

STATE FUNDS TO AID CITY STREET WORK

The city of Klamath Falls will receive $7000 for street work from state funds this year, according to announcement at Monday night's council meeting by City Engineer E. A. Thomas.

Thomas said the money will be spent on streets other than state highways in the city. The state directly maintains the highway streets, such as North Ninth, South Sixth, Main westward from Ninth and South Riverside.

Sidewalk Trouble

Mayor John Houston said the fund is about the same as that appropriated to the city last year. It comes from state highway money.

Engineer Thomas told the council that sidewalks in some places in the business district have sunk and broken up, and the council asked the police judge to notify owners of abutting property to repair the walks. Places mentioned in particular are at Sixth street and Klamath avenue, on Sixth between Klamath and Main street, and Eighth and Main streets.

The council concluded its meeting before 8 p. m. At an informal session following the meeting, the city officials discussed airport plans.

APPEAL FROM DEATH SENTENCE DENIED

SALEM, Nov. 10 (AP)—William E. Wallace, Portland, should die in the state prison lethal gas chamber for the murder on August 8, 1941, of Benjamin H. Finkell, whom Wallace shot and killed on a downtown Portland street, the Oregon supreme court ruled today in a 4 to 3 decision.

Wallace now is in the Multnomah county jail. He must be resented in circuit court, and then brought here to await his execution. His only remaining hope is for the governor to grant clemency.

Wallace, a "capper" or agent for a Portland gambling establishment, shot Finkell, who was sitting in an automobile with his fiancée, because Finkell objected to Wallace's using profane language in the presence of the woman.

Wallace's appeal was based on Circuit Judge Alfred P. Dobson's refusal to permit Wallace to introduce an insanity plea after the trial opened. The state, in its opening statement to the jury, made remarks tending to show that Wallace was insane. The defense immediately asked the court to permit the change to an insanity plea, but the court refused, a law providing that insanity pleas must be made before the trial opens.

It was because of this law that the majority opinion, by Justice Brand, upheld the conviction. Justices concurring in the decision were Bailey, Lusk and Rossman.

Liquor Rationing in Oregon Held Remote Possibility

PORTLAND, Nov. 10 (AP)—There is little prospect of liquor rationing in Oregon.

That was the assurance Monday by L. J. Wentworth, chairman of the liquor commission, in commenting on the rationing plan adopted in Washington, where customers will be limited to one quart a week.

Wentworth said there was no liquor shortage and advised Oregon residents there was no reason to start on a hoarding spree.

L. F. Allen, state liquor administrator, added that if hoarders did start buying heavily or if Washington residents tried to stock up in Oregon, some restrictive measures might be considered.

Soldiers Help Out in Mining

BOISE, Nov. 10 (AP)—Although soldiers assigned to mine work have definitely relieved the shortage of miners in Idaho, at least 1000 more are needed, Harry March, secretary of the Idaho Mining association, said last night.

March said about 400 soldiers have been put to work in the lead and zinc mines of Shoshone county, about 50 at Stibnite and another 50 at Mountain City, Nev.

CIVILIAN BEEF QUOTA CUT AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—The office of price administration reduced by 10 per cent Monday the quota of beef for civilian consumption during the October 1-December 31 quarter in order to provide more beef for the armed services and lend lease.

OPA said the armed forces and lend-lease were not now receiving sufficient beef to meet their requirements.

In its action today OPA ordered slaughter houses to reduce their deliveries of beef for civilian use to 70 per cent of deliveries during the final quarter of 1941. It said the action was recommended by the war production board's food requirements committee, headed by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

GD WORKERS TO GET EXTRA GAS RATION

SALEM, Nov. 10 (AP)—Key civilian defense workers who must use their automobiles in connection with their duties will be eligible for gasoline when gas rationing becomes effective, State Defense Coordinator Jerrold Owen said today.

To qualify for extra gasoline, defense workers must submit a statement showing the number of miles they have driven in the past three months exclusively in defense activities.

Equipment Coming

Owen said that plans would be worked out so that such workers may get new tires or recapped tires.

He said that several Oregon cities soon would receive protective equipment, such as gas masks and other equipment to be used in emergencies. He warned the county and city defense councils that they must not give publicity to the receipt of the equipment, as the allocations are a military secret.

Military Secret

The western defense command ordered Owen to have the state and county defense councils to make complete monthly reports on their activities, so that the army may know at all times the state of preparedness against enemy attack.

Owen warned chairmen of the council's recreation committee that they must take measures to prevent lists of soldiers from being compiled, as this would give vital information to the enemy. He said that in guest registers in recreation centers, names of soldiers, with their addresses and branches of service, are being listed. This must stop, Owen said, because the army demands it be stopped.

HIGH COURT OKEHS PENALTY ON WHEAT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—The supreme court held constitutional Monday legislation imposing a 49-cent-per-bushel penalty on wheat produced and sold in excess of agricultural adjustment administration quotas.

Justice Jackson delivered the opinion on a challenge of the 1941 legislation by a group of Montgomery county (Ohio) farmers. The litigation was considered of far-reaching importance by the Roosevelt administration.

The legislation, passed by congress May 26, 1941, increased the penalty on the excess over AAA quotas from 15 to 49 cents per bushel and prevented the sale or use on the farm of any wheat produced until the penalty had been paid.

This legislation was an amendment to the 1938 agricultural adjustment act which authorized the secretary of agriculture to fix quotas restricting the marketing of basic farm products.

PAYMENT ORDERED IN PLYWOOD CASE

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—Eighteen Oregon and Washington plywood operators were ordered to pay their employees $216,000 in back pay by the west coast lumber commission in one of two decisions announced Monday.

In the other, the commission ordered the Oregon-Washington Plywood company, Tacoma, to hire workers for overtime work on Saturdays on the basis of seniority regardless of whether the employees are men or women.

Six thousand workers would be affected by the back pay order, each to receive $60 on a basis of 7 1/2 cents an hour for time worked between February 15 and May 16. This group produces 50 per cent of all the plywood manufactured in the northwest.

Rumors Against Tule Lake Center Investigated

NEWELL—Phillip Webster, assistant to R. B. Cozzens of the regional WRA office, returned to San Francisco November 6, after a five-day investigation of rumors and charges made against the Tule Lake project by some newspapers and people in this locality.

GIRL CLEARED IN SOLDIER SLAYING

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Nov. 10 (AP)—An Anchorage coroner's jury has absolved 12-year-old Jane Bergman of blame in the shooting Friday of Private Robert H. McNulty, Kearney, Neb., soldier.

The jurors verdict declared McNulty's death was due to a gunshot wound inflicted by accident.

The girl told authorities she fired two shots through the door of the home in which she was caring for two children Friday night when McNulty failed to heed her warning to leave the place. The shots, she said, were merely intended to frighten the soldier. His body was found on the doorstep when the residents returned later.

9349 ENROLL IN NEWELL SCHOOLS

NEWELL—Although understaffed and with shortages in equipment and textbooks, the schools at the Tule Lake project have an enrollment of 2430 high school students and 1519 students in the three elementary schools. Eight grade school teachers and 22 high school teachers are required to complete the staff. School seatings are practically completed for the elementary schools, but only half of the high school seatings are completed and installed. By using all of the makeshift equipment from all other community services, the schools have been able to carry on. Supplies and textbooks are arriving daily but certain supplies are unavailable due to priorities.

Guard Against Wartime Constipation!

It's frequently due to lack of "bulk"

Millions of folks these war days feel all dragged out, with no nip or pep. And no wonder! Their working, sleeping, and especially their eating habits are all different. Meals are apt to be hurried, improperly balanced—and they neglect the important matter of "bulk" in the diet.

Yet getting enough "bulk" might make all the difference. For lack of it is one of the common causes of constipation. Medicinal laxatives give only temporary relief in such cases; they don't get at the cause.

But Kellogg's ALL-BRAN corrects this constipation by supplying the needed "bulk"; often brings lasting freedom from the trouble. Eat this crisp, delicious cereal regularly, drink plenty of water and "Join the Regulars." ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

LEGION DANCE TO AID CHILD WELFARE

The success of the National American Legion auxiliary child welfare program rests with the unit, according to Mrs. James Fowler, chairman of Klamath Unit No. 8.

"This year as never before in the history of our organization, child welfare is challenged to assume greater responsibilities," she said. "It must be our responsibility to see that in this time of national crisis, when practically all attention is being focused on various phases of war activities, that the fundamental problems which concern the child are not overlooked. We must be ever mindful that ultimately national security depends upon our ability to meet the material, physical, mental, emotional and spiritual needs of our children."

"Children must be not only nourished, sheltered and protected, but taught the meaning and responsibilities of freedom so they will be strong to carry forward a just and lasting peace."

A large percentage of the proceeds derived from the Armistice day dance sponsored by the American Legion and auxiliary, to be held at the armory Wednesday evening, November 11, will be used locally for child welfare. The public is cordially invited to attend.
