Thanksgiving Proclamation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—In an unusual proclamation, President Roosevelt called upon the American people Thursday to observe both Thanksgiving and New Year's as days of prayer.

Devoted of the "whereases" of customary presidential proclamations, this one started with a quotation from the 92nd Psalm: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."
 After reciting the 23rd Psalm, Mr. Roosevelt said in his proclamation:
 "Inspired with faith and courage by these words, let us turn again to the work that confronts us in this time of national emergency; in the armed services and the merchant marine; in factories and offices; on farms and in the mines; on highways, railways and airways; in other places of public service to the nation; and in our homes."
 The proclamation of two national days of prayer followed numerous requests from religious organizations and church leaders throughout the country asking that this step be taken. The last day of prayer proclaimed by Mr. Roosevelt was last New Year's day.
