ions which reached me on November 12.

"One. What is the soviet view of the allied campaign in Africa?"

Might Growing

"Answer. The soviet view of this campaign is that it represents an outstanding feat of major importance demonstrating the growing might of the armed forces of the allies and opening the prospect of the disintegration of the Italo-German coalition in the nearest future.

"Two. How effective has this campaign been in relieving pressure on the soviet union and what further aid does the soviet union await?"

Allies Have Initiation

"Answer. It is yet too soon to say to what an extent this campaign has been effective in relieving immediate pressure on the soviet union. But it may be confidently said that the effect will not be a small one and that a certain relief in pressure on the soviet union will result in the nearest future.

"But that is not the only thing that matters. What matters first of all is that since the campaign in Africa means that the initiative has passed into the hands of our allies, the political and war situation in Europe in favor of the Anglo-Soviet-American coalition; that that campaign undermines the prestige of Hitlerite Germany as a leading force in the system of the axis powers and demoralizes Hitler's allies in Europe; that the campaign released France from her state of lethargy and mobilizes anti-Hitler forces in France and provides a basis for building up an anti-Hitler French army; that the campaign creates conditions for putting Italy out of commission and for isolating Hitlerite Germany; finally, that the campaign creates the prerequisites for establishment of a second front in Europe nearer to Germany's vital centers which will be of decisive importance for organizing victory over Hitlerite tyranny.

Reds Will Help

"Three. What possibility is there of soviet offensive power in the east joining the allies in the west to hasten the final victory?"

"Answer. There need be no doubt that the red army will fulfill its task with honor as it has been fulfilling it throughout the war.

"With respect, (Signed) J. Stalin."

Home-Based RAF Rips Into Port of Genoa

elers from Italy as saying the first four raids in the past four weeks caused damage aggregating $200,000,000 at Genoa. Docks, warehouses and areas in the heart of the city were reported devastated by the massive British explosives and showers of fire bombs.

The raiders concentrated last night on the big Ansaldo factory, west of Genoa, which makes armaments and engines for warships, the air ministry reported. The dock area was reported aflame from thousands of incendiaries.

"Women at War" Week Sets $75,000 Goal in Bond Sales

"Women at War" week will be observed in Klamath Falls, November 22 to 28, and a goal of $75,000 in bonds and stamps has been set for that period, according to Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, chairman of the women's division of war savings.

Final plans for the "Women at War" week will be made at a luncheon to be given in the Pelican party room, Thursday at 12 o'clock sharp. All interested women are urged to attend and

NEW SPUD CEILING VOIDS CONTRACTS

Paul Dalton, chairman of the California-Oregon potato marketing agreement committee, received a telegram from OPA Saturday stating that the new ceiling order on potatoes voids contracts where prices exceed the ceiling set by OPA.

The telegram read: "RETEL NOVEMBER 11. ANY CONTRACTS WHERE PRICES EXCEED CEILINGS ESTABLISHED SHIPPING POINT VOID BUT NO LIMITATION HAS BEEN SET ON PRICES TO GROWERS."

to utilize during the war certain colleges and universities to train a limited number of men for "highly specialized" duties in the armed forces.

4 Million Needed

In signing the bill only a day after final congressional action in a measure stripped of all restrictions as to length of training before combat duty, the president said the time had now come "when the successful prosecution of the war requires that we call to the colors the men of 18 and 19."

Officials have estimated that there are about 2,400,000 youths between 18 and 20 already registered and that about 2,000,000 or more might go toward making up the 4,500,000 additional men needed in all the four armed services by the end of the 1942 calendar year.

ping some potatoes, wheat or beans into a kettle, adding some gelatine, cooking it a while and then putting on your new tires and driving away."

The secret process, Taylor said, has been offered to the war production board and "would eliminate even the necessity of making alcohol in the process, but so far we have had no encouragement."

He stressed these contentions relative to the new process: One bushel of wheat, currently selling for about one dollar, could make two 6.00-16 tires, or seven recaps, or 3.2 gallons of alcohol.

The process would produce synthetic rubber at less than 10 cents a pound, or "one-half the cost of slave labor rubber."

The Tri-State Industrial and Synthetic Rubber association, a new organization of farmers, civic, industrial and education groups, is ready to start production whenever the government gives a "go ahead" signal.

structure burned so fiercely it was impossible to determine the sex of some victims.

Forty were injured and 17 are still in hospitals, a few with serious burns and broken bones—the result of leaps from second-story windows.

Housing authorities estimated the loss at $400,000.

Many occupants, newly arrived, did not know their neighbors and were of small help in identification. One man, fearing for his roommate, roamed through the crowd last night shouting "Where's 623, where's 623?" Asked why he didn't call his roommate by name he replied "I don't know his name. I think he's from Idaho."

Deputy Sheriff Fred Greenwood said the fire started in a wastebasket in the center of the building. He noticed some smoke while on an inspection tour, and traced it to a linen storage room.

As he opened the door, the fire, already burning briskly in the wastebasket, flared up.

"It seemed to explode all over the room," Greenwood said.

but it is only one of many times that Rickenbacker has cheated death.

As a race track driver before the World war he turned over or hit fences time after time, but always came back undaunted. As a World war flier he was credited with shooting down 21 enemy planes and four balloons, winning virtually all the American and Allied medals for heroism.

As president of Eastern Airlines, he had flown mostly as a passenger in recent years. He was on an airline inspection flight on Feb. 27, 1941, when the plane crashed near Atlanta, Ga., and his months-long fight back to health was followed by the nation.

"Lieutenant James C. Whitaker, Lieutenant John J. De Angelis and Staff Sergeant James Reynolds, all of the United States army who were also aboard the missing plane, have been located by a Catalina flying boat ashore on a small island in the South Pacific," the navy reported.

"With the rescue of Captain William T. Cherry, United States army, this makes all the personnel of the Rickenbacker party accounted for."

The rescue of Cherry was announced yesterday. The war department said that, although weakened by about three weeks exposure to sun and sea he was "in good condition."

Cherry was the pilot of the plane, which was carrying Rickenbacker to the war zone for a survey of air force operations for Secretary of War Stimson.

ference. They've been there ever since.

One guesses Hitler is calling on Japan for a second front against Russia. Or somewhere else.

Ankara (Turkey) heard immediately after the start of the African offensive that Hitler had asked Japan to attack Madagascar but the Japs refused on the ground they didn't have enough naval and shipping strength available.

THAT confirms the belief that the Japs are looking out for THEMSELVES FIRST, and will help Hitler only if and when it serves their OWN PURPOSE to do so.

One guesses it wouldn't serve the Japs' purpose to spread themselves any thinner right now.

THERE'S a naval battle on in the Solomons area today, and as usual the Japs claim to have inflicted heavy damage on us. Our own navy department says both sides have suffered losses, but information of great value to the enemy would be given by announcement of losses suffered by us.

That, of course, is wholly true, and we shall have to wait for details.

ON the basis of the news today, keep your eyes fixed on Tunisia. Our side's land forces have probably crossed the Tunisian border already and a showdown is due at any moment.

When it comes, we shall find out how successful the Germans have been in rushing in reinforcements.

Snell for Governor Committee Reports Campaign Expenses

SALEM, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Snell for governor committee reported to the state department today it spent $8987 in the general election campaign, while the Earl Snell for governor club spent $2698.

Other contributions made to Snell's successful campaign included: George Stadelman $76, W. C. Perkins $89, Snell for Governor club $60, and the Klamath Falls Snell for Governor club $769.

Bike Stolen—L. R. Wineberg reported to city police the theft of his red and white Colson bicycle on Friday, November 13, from in front of the Pelican theatre. The machine carried city license No. 775.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC AREA, Nov. 14 (AP)—Thirty-five officers and men of the United States army air corps, who previously were awarded Silver Stars for "gallantry in action," have been presented Oak Leaf Clusters in lieu of a second Silver Star.

Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenney, commander of the allied air forces in this area, announced the awards. They are in recognition of heroic acts on scores of missions from Malaya to the Solomons.

In addition to the seven Sicily-bound planes shot down, about six others were badly damaged.

On Thursday British fighters shot down six large Italian troop-carrying planes filled with German troops, flying north, probably from Tunisia, it was announced.

The long-range fighters apparently were operating from British bases on the island fortress of Malta.

A report from allied headquarters in the Mediterranean that the Germans had landed light tanks by air in Tunisia indicated that the axis forces there were being reinforced rather than withdrawn.

It was regarded as probable that the axis planes intercepted yesterday on the way to Sicily were returning north to pick up more troops and equipment since the communique did not mention that they carried troops.

in the rear succeeded. They dropped into the water near the shore. We were later told by the Chinese that they were picked up by fishermen.

"Reaching a water-covered rice paddy about 15 miles from Kowloon, the pilot made a belly landing. No one was hurt.

"The Messerschmitt strafed us as we dived into ditches. The pilot, however, stood by the ship to destroy secret equipment with pistol shots. He was a target for three planes which came over strafing. A bullet caught his foot.

"We assisted him to a nearby village, where we obtained Chinese clothes and dressed the wound.

"An English-speaking woman we took to be Japanese told us to await the arrival of Japanese officials and be interned. As soon as she left we picked up the pilot and sneaked away.

"That night men came beating the bushes for us. We heard rifle shots. The pilot and the navigator crawled away from us. In the darkness we were unable to locate them and never saw them again.

"With the searchers getting closer, Cunningham and I made a break for it. We ran a long time—traveled all night.

"The second night we got directions mixed. We walked eastward right through a small Japanese camp without knowing it. We discovered the danger when a Japanese truck started near us.

"We crept away and traveled all night. The next morning a villager gave us rice cakes, our first food in three days. By signs he indicated the Japanese

New Guinea Clean-Up

In New Guinea Allied and American ground troops moved forward, wiping out invasion-bent Japanese.

Two light cruisers and a transport damaged; 30 planes and 30 large landing boats destroyed; a number of shore batteries silenced; well over 500 officers and men killed—those are the enemy losses inflicted by American and allied troops as reported in communique by Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur and the navy last night.

Roaring down to within 1000 feet of the foe heavy bombers blasted the two light cruisers and set the 800-ton transport ablaze in a new attack on the Buna-Faisai area in the northern Solomons. A day earlier, the allied high command reported, bombers had struck at four troop-laden transports in the same area off Bougainville island.

The Klamath Falls Pelicans are unbeaten and untied. Rogers had a similar record until its final city league game, when it dropped a close decision to Gonzaga high school.

Telegrams expressing interest in a game between the Pelicans and the Spokane champions have been sent to the Spokane round table by Coach Frank Ramsey of the Pelicans and the Klamath Quarterback club.

Ramsey has also sent a letter to Eldon Jenne, Portland prep school sports director, expressing interest in a charity game between the Pelicans and an all-star team from the Portland prep league.

SPEED A TANK to the fighting front!

Telephone calls play a vital part in building tanks, guns, ships, planes. They help to move millions of men to the fighting fronts. War is on the wires. There must be no blocking of these war calls.

We cannot build new lines to carry them because copper, nickel and rubber are shooting, not talking, materials right now.

What we can do is to make the most of what we have. You can help by making Long Distance calls only when they are really necessary. And on these, please be as brief as you can.

The call you save today may speed a plane or a tank to the fighting front.

Your co-operation is deeply appreciated.

My Appreciation

Twenty-one years ago I opened my insurance business in Klamath Falls. These have been busy years, and good years. In the hustle to serve my clients I have sometimes paused, as I do now, to think of the pleasant associations I have formed. I wish now, as Thanksgiving time nears, to express my appreciation to the people of the Klamath Basin for the support they have given me in my life and accident-insurance business.
