THE PENNEY WAY IS THE THRIFTY WAY

IS YOUR CHRISTMAS LIST ALL READY?

Perhaps you've even started checking off the presents you've already bought. Many people have. We've never known a year when so many people began their shopping early.

From talks with many of our customers, we've found that because of the holiday season, nobody can afford lavish or hasty shopping this year, for we all have War Bonds to buy, and that comes first.

Last-minute, hurry-up buying often means you can't get exactly the gifts you want for the price you want to pay. Sometimes substitutions are necessary, and they may cost more than you had planned to spend.

Then, too, many of our customers are making their own gifts this year—and materials have to be bought early to allow time for the making.

What if all amounts to is that a strictly limited budget makes it necessary to give yourself time for careful planning and buying.

Here at Penney's we made our Christmas plans early, and your Penney store is ready, now, with the practical gifts you want, at the sensible prices you want to pay.
