Students Carry Off Prizes In Book Week Contest Here

Prize winners in the book week contest sponsored by the Klamath county library have been announced. Contest entries were in the form of book jackets designed by the students to illustrate a book on American life. There were 248 entries from the following schools: Alameda, Altamont, Bly, Crescent Lake, Gilchrist, Fremont, Keno, Lambs Camp, Malin and Merrill. Alphabet books were made by the primary grades. They are to be used as library books for pre-school and first grade children. Fifteen were submitted by Altamont, oBanza, Crescent Lake, Henley, Keno and Sumners. Klamath county library is awarding a book to the student who placed first in each class of the contest. Shirley Ann McLeod, Bly, fifth grade, placed first in Class B with her entry "Pedro" by Flack and Larsson.

Honorable mention goes to Louis Magallanes, Keno, sixth grade, whose entry was "Paul Bunyan" by Turney. Class C award goes to Lois Kandra, seventh grade at Merrill, whose entry was Altschuler's "Border Watch." Jo Ann Kandra of Merrill, eighth grade, gets honorable mention with her book jacket on "Traitor's Torch" by Crowfield. Class D, the high school contest, award goes to Idella Hauptmann, Gilchrist high school. Her entry was "The Soul of Ann Rutledge" by Babcock. There was no prize offered for the alphabet books which made up Class A. Prize winning book jackets and those who received honorable mention together with the alphabet books are on display in the chamber of commerce window.

LET US MAKE THIS A GOOD CHRISTMAS

Our chain of joyous, untroubled Christmases is broken. This Christmas will be different... but we can still make it a good one.

All that Christmas means to us is in peril today. The peace and good-will, the warmth and cheer, the joyous gathering of family and friends... all these may be lost to us unless we dedicate ourselves wholly to the task of winning the war.

We must, with valiance and courage, preserve our Christmas spirit, so it will shine out for all the world to see. This Christmas, of all we have ever known, must be a good Christmas.
