War Week Slatec November 22 to 28

Ladies of the Nation Set for Gigantic Task of Raising Millions in War Savings Project

This next week is Women at War week and every woman in these United States has been advised of it. It comes along with Thanksgiving week and women of America certainly have more to be thankful for than any other group of women in the world today. That is a broad statement but a true one, nevertheless. Klamath county women are responding to the call for support of this nation-wide bond and stamp buying week in splendid fashion.

Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver is chairman of women, Klamath county war savings and their goal for this coming week, November 22 to 28, is a really fat sum — just $75,000. Members of her committee are Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mrs. Leslie W. Peate, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, and they've been working.

At a rousing good meeting at twelve o'clock noon Tuesday in the Pelican party room, Mrs. Weaver presided over a luncheon at which various women's organizations were represented. She outlined the work ahead this coming week and received a simply marvellous response.

Present at the luncheon were Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mrs. Leslie W. Peate, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, county committee members; Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen of the Junior chamber league; Mrs. Horace E. Getz, Mrs. Glenn Kent and Mrs. William L. Scott of the Library club and garden group; Mrs. R. A. LaLonde, representing Catholic Daughters of America; Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr., Christmas Seal Sale campaign and Klamath County Health association; Miss Lillie Darby, president of the Business and Professional Women, and Miss Eleanor Weatherford, also of BPW; Mrs. Beauford E. Hayden, League of Women Voters; Mrs. Harry Wayne, Daughters of the Nile; Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. Carl Huson, Mrs. Ray Coulam and Mrs. C. A. Lundy, Sojourners, and Mrs. Neal Stewart, The Herald and News. Mrs. Brixner also represented Soroptimists and Venturists.

Mayor John Houston, in official proclamation, has set aside November 22 to 28 as Women at War week and urged cooperation of all organizations and individuals in observance of this period.

Members of the Soroptimist and Venture clubs are taking over the work of publicizing and urging the sale of war savings bonds and stamps in the city's theatres. Venture club girls will sponsor a theatre where they will have a dart game with Hitler as the target. Price to throw a dart — of course — war stamps.

The Business and Professional Women will have charge of the stores and sales in the business houses. Members of the Girls Friendly society of St. Paul's, under the direction of Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, will sell stamps on the streets Saturday. They will have luncheon at the parish house under the direction of Mrs. J. Hardin Carter.

Mrs. Fred LaForge of the American Legion auxiliary, has taken over the work of contacting all city and suburban schools and urging families to attend the "sing."

The Sing? What do you mean the "sing."

Have you heard about the SING? On Friday night at eight o'clock, November the twenty-seventh, the night after Thanksgiving remember, there will be a huge community sing at Klamath Union high school auditorium. Charles Sfanfield will direct the singing and there will be solos by

Miss West Is Bride

Klamath Maid Weds In Wisconsin on November the Sixth

Margaret Helen West, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. West of Merrill, became the bride of Sergeant Lloyd Froom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Froom of Salem, in a half past eight o'clock evening ceremony read Friday, November the sixth, in Sparta, Wisconsin.

The service was recited by the Rev. Frank J. Wright in the Congregational parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Myers, formerly of this city, attended the young couple. Both Mr. Froom and Mr. Myers are members of the 301st ordnance division, United States army, and stationed at Camp McCoy near Sparta.

The bride wore a smart white wool afternoon frock with fuchsia trim, a small fuchsia hat and a single purple orchid at the shoulder.

Mrs. Froom is expected to return home this weekend. She is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and later attended Oregon State college. Mr. Froom, before his enlistment, was Klamath Falls representative of the Pacific Finance corporation.

SOPHOMORES ENTERTAIN AT WILLARD

Members of the Sophomore class of Sacred Heart academy entertained Friday evening at the Willard hotel with a "sophomore hop" which is given annually. Guests wore sport coats and there was a punch bowl.

Miss Helen Lesmeister was chairman of the dance and assisted by Miss Peggy Pruitt, Miss Helen Peterson, Miss Cathryn Doran, Miss Dorothy Daley, Miss Shirley Smith and Miss Eleanor Brick.

Pat Brown and numerous features.

Theme song of Women at War week is "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," slightly changed to the slogan, "Praise the Lord but Buy the Ammunition."

Soloists aren't especially needed — what the sing needs is family voices, lifted in thankful praise of Thanksgiving, lifted in the sheer joy of singing and being Americans all. Usually the people that sing because they love to sing aren't especially in "fine voice." But they love to sing and this is their chance. Come one, come all, and bring the family. Friday night, night after Thanksgiving, Miss Marie Obenchain has kindly consented to be the accompanist. Songs will be mimeographed and passed among the audience by students. Please come and bring your families to the "SING." Ministers will announce the community song fest from their pulpits Sunday.
