

Klamath Pair Have 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morgan Receive Congratulations From Friends on Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morgan of 5108 Avalon street, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday, November the fifteenth, with open house for friends.

Dinner was served at one o'clock with covers placed for thirty-eight relatives. Seventy-five called during the day. All of the immediate family of six sons and three daughters were present with their families, and with the exception of two grandsons who are with the navy in the fighting zone, all enjoyed the day with the Morgans.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were married in Wausau, Wisconsin, in 1892 and came to Oregon in 1908 and settled on a ranch near Roseburg. During the first World war they moved to Klamath Falls. Two sons, William and Mark, served in that war and one son, their youngest, Ronald Judd Morgan, is in the present conflict.

Guests gathered for dinner in the IOOF hall. The table was decorated with lovely flowers and centered with a golden wedding cake. The flowers were presented by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church of which Mrs. Morgan has been a member for fifty years. Thanksgiving day favors made the table gay. Among those present were two grandchildren, Linda and Charles Warren, Ashland.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Schneberger, Mrs. Rachel Swan, Mrs. Minnie Kluth, Mrs. Luella Hough, Mrs. Mae Huck, Mr. M. L. Guderian and Mrs. Mary Guderian, G. B. Harrison, Mrs. Dora Harrison, Mrs. Blanche F. Brannan, Mrs. Mattie H. Earnstable, Mrs. Amelia Riesch of Falls City, Nebraska, Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. Carolyn Kelly, Mrs. W. E. Sawchuck, Mrs. G. T. Casper, Mr. and Mrs. Chris W. Litzberger and Patricia, Mrs. Hortense Strong, Miss Phyllis Hogan, Mrs. Katherine Levings, Mrs. Marion Houghtaling, Mrs. Lillian Hagman.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, Mrs. Florence Gilkison, Mrs. Angie Henders, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wishard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wakeman, Miss Bobby Bray, W. J. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Goodwin and Edna, Jimmie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Morgan, Betty and Junior, Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Morgan, Jerry and Pat, and from Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Norris and Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Warren, Linda and Charles, Mrs. A. Harri, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and Joanne and Darleen, Ronald Judd Morgan of Camp Luis Obispo, and the following from Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Morgan, George, Carley, Tommy and Marlene, Mrs. W. O. Hill, Ronald and Leah Rae, and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Morgan.

SERVICE READ AT CAMP ROBERTS

Elsie Rose Boldischar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boldischar of this city, became the bride of Private Robert Albert Monett, in a ceremony read at the Southeast chapel at Camp Roberts, California, at six o'clock, the evening of November the fourth. The service was recited by Chaplain James T. Fish before a candle-lighted altar.

The bride wore a teal blue afternoon frock trimmed in white, a teal blue hat and alligator brown accessories. She had an orchid pinned at the shoulder of her gown.

Miss Dorothy Mayfield, bridesmaid, wore a chocolate brown afternoon suit with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Mr. John W. Seale, groom's service man, was the groom's attendant.

The bride is well known in this city. Mr. Monett is with the 76th Infantry, Company A, Camp Roberts, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Monett of Superior, Wisconsin. Before entering the service he served as display manager with Sears Roebuck company.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR BLY MISS

Ceremony Recited

Geraldine Manning Bride in Service Saturday Evening

Miss Geraldine Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Manning, became the bride of Orville Dalton, Jr., son of Mr. Orville D. Dalton, in a beautiful ceremony solemnized Saturday evening, November the fourteenth, at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary H. Townsend, 421 Alameda street. Rev. Victor Phillips read the service before an altar covered with a lace cloth from Scotland, upon which rested tall white tapers and an heirloom Bible, before a bank of palms and chrysanthemums.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Winnifred Gillen sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. David Burgoyne upon the violin.

The traditional wedding procession was played by Mrs. David Burgoyne as the bride, upon her father's arm, entered the room. She was lovely in a gown of old fashioned colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt, the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of blue with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Clifford Dalton.

After the ceremony the bride and groom cut a white wedding cake. The table was lovely with a lace cloth, tall white tapers and small white chrysanthemums. The bride's mother wore a brown flowered frock with a corsage of pink rosebuds and assisted in serving.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breithaupt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt, Babe Dalton, Melvin Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dalton, Mrs. Will Wood, Louie Randall, Helen Czmowski, Mrs. Ladd Hoyt, Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, Mrs. David Burgoyne, Howard Manning, Ralph Manning, Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Manning and Mary H. Townsend.

A dinner was given November the eleventh at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Steyskal in Malin honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wolgren of Haysprings, Nebraska. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walgren, Mrs. Anton Steyskal, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wolgren and daughter, Barbara Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steyskal and son, Richard, Miss Joanne Steyskal and Glen Steyskal. Games and cards followed dinner.

CASCADE CHAPTER HOLDS MEMORIAL SERVICE

Cascade Crest chapter 159, OES, met Wednesday evening in the Masonic temple at Chiloquin with Mrs. Walter Brown, worthy matron, and Dr. Phillip Cole, acting worthy patron, presiding.

A memorial ceremony for members of the order, who have died the past year, was held, the worthy matron giving a brief history of each of the following:

Mabel Settlemeier, worthy grand matron of Oregon in 1918-19; Maisie Morande who joined the chapter October 17, 1929, acted as worthy matron and was secretary of the chapter at the time of her death; Jessie Stoddard who became a member April 10, 1935.

The altar was draped in white for this ceremony, with Mrs. Ivan O'Donoghue acting as chaplain, Mrs. William Page as marshal, Mrs. Ernest Hooley as conductress and Mrs. William Zumbrun, associate conductress.

Mrs. A. N. White of Minneapolis, mother of the worthy matron, Mrs. Brown, was a special guest at the meeting.

GUESTS AT NITZ HOME LEAVE FOR EAST

Guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Carl Nitz, 1025 High street, are Mrs. Nitz's mother and sister, Mrs. Theodore Hoerner and Miss Sylvia Hoerner of St. Louis, Missouri, where Miss Hoerner is employed by the government. They have been in Klamath Falls for about two weeks, and are leaving this weekend for their home.

Several from the Zion Lutheran church have entertained in their honor since their arrival. On Friday, November the thirteenth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zetzman, 2447 Reclamation avenue, entertained Mrs. Hoerner and Mrs. Carl Nitz and their three sons at dinner, and on Armistice day they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ronfeld (Lucile App) of Merrill.

On account of the storm, the Juvenile Neighbors of Woodcraft did not meet on Monday. Their next meeting will be on Monday, December the seventh, at four o'clock in the KC hall.
