

Altar Society Has Holiday Festivity

St. Augustine Parish Members Enjoy Affair Given Wednesday at Merrill

MERRILL—With the approaching Thanksgiving season an incentive for the theme of the annual pre-Christmas bazaar, card party and supper, the Altar society of St. Augustine's church entertained delightfully for guests that gathered Wednesday in the Merrill community hall from all communities of the south end.

Grouped about the hall were booths of fancy work, aprons and delectable food and tables for bridge and pinochle, played during the afternoon.

Strutting turkeys drew a pumpkin coach filled with overflowing with fall fruits, the whole topped by a clever avocado and pepper coachman. Autumn leaves and yellow tapers added to the ensemble that centered the serving table.

The lace covered refreshment table was centered with button chrysanthemums in tones of yellow and bronze and here too, yellow tapers and scarlet leaves added a brilliant note. Silver tea and coffee services graced either end. Pouring were Mrs. E. M. Hammond and Mrs. Robert W. Steele.

Prizes in pinochle went to Mrs. Brickell, who took first honors, and to Mrs. Kuhn who took second. Both guests were from Tulelake. Mrs. W. J. Groves, Merrill and Mrs. J. R. Steele, Merrill, took first and second honors in bridge. The guest award presented by small Alice McKendree, gownied in a Christmas scarlet frock, went to Mrs. J. B. Kidwell.

Immediately following the afternoon affair guests began arriving for the supper hour and committees served until a late hour. Chicken sandwiches and all the trimmings of a picnic lunch were on the menu.

Guests again enjoyed the booths and a number of concessions and many of them went home laden with good things to eat. Paul Mauldin, Merrill, took home a dressed pig and a dressed turkey. Mr. Petrik, Malin, a $25 bond. Mrs. Madge Carey, Merrill, accepted $10 in savings stamps.

Members of the society assisting Mrs. George Yost, Tulelake, general chairman, were Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Malin, Mrs. Ray Baker, Tulelake, Mrs. R. W. Steele, Merrill, Mrs. E. T. Crawford, Merrill, Mrs. George Frey, Tulelake, and Mrs. Al Porter, Tulelake, in making the affair a financial success.

MERRILL MOOSE MEET NOVEMBER 17

The Women of the Moose, Merrill Chapter No. 18, met in regular session November the seventeenth with Esther Sevey, senior regent, presiding. There were nineteen members present. The bond drive and dance will be held Saturday night, November the twenty-first, at the Broadway hall in Malin. A feature of the evening was the initiating of Marjorie List into our chapter. At the close of the session, the ladies met with the Loyol Order of the Moose for program and refreshments.

The program was in charge of the library committee of which Esther Johnson is the chairman. An interesting program was given. A musical number by Lillian Thomas and an interesting talk by Ray Van Meter on the grand work done by the Moose organization in sending magazines and other reading material to boys in the armed forces all over the world. Particular mention was made of the amount of material sent to Anchorage, Alaska.

Four books are being sent by the Merrill chapter to Mooseheart for the pleasure of the children there. Esther Johnson is donating one personally and the other three sent by the chapter.

After the program, refreshments were served by Dovie Icenber, Elna Noel, Louisa Icenber and Adela Hawkins.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY REBEKAHS

MERRILL—Geraldine Moore will serve as noble grand of the Merrill Rebekah lodge during the coming year with Beth Robley as vice grand. The two new officers were elected Monday night. Re-elected were Winnie O'field who was elected first in 1928 as recording secretary, Ann Fruits, financial secretary, and Thelma Stukel, treasurer. A pot luck dinner preceded the business meeting.

Mrs. Maud Faus and Mrs. Neala Stevenson were in charge of the program.

NOVEMBER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dalton Jr., are Klamath newlyweds. Their marriage took place Saturday, November fourteenth. The bride is the former Geraldine Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Manning of this city. —Kennell-Ellis.

Tulelake Couple Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Main Feted by Friends Following Their Recent Marriages.

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Main, whose marriage was a recent event were greeted at a community get-together in the Carr school house Tuesday evening, when more than one hundred guests arrived to offer congratulations and to present a gift of two walnut end tables for their home in the homestead district. Members of the Homestead Community club sponsored the evening.

Mrs. Main, formally Violet Wilson, was home demonstration agent for Modoc county and was well known here having conducted classes on subjects of homemaking for the last year. Mr. Main is associate director of the Modoc Farm Center and president of the Tulelake Growers.

A hilarious round of laughter greeted the mock wedding party which capered through antics of the wedding day and a scene five years later in the life of a farm wife. Leo Donovan was the minister, Mrs. A. E. Ryckman the blushing bride and Johnny O'Shea the swaggering groom. Mrs. Albert Larsen was the bride's mother, Mr. McKimmons the father who gave the bride away and the little ring bearer was Joyce Larsen.

Later Mrs. Sam Anderson read Edgar Guest's "The House by the Side of the Road," and eight boys and girls, Carla Main, Shirley Ann McFall, Glenna Miller, Clarice McGarva, Marvin Thomas Jr., Malcolm Crawford, Lyle Scott and Hewitt Slater presented a clever song and dance number. Mrs. M. V. Maxwell led a responsive reading by the audience in keeping with the theme of the party. Mrs. Maxwell in the absence of the club president, Mrs. H. T. Street, presented the gift.

Mrs. Marvin Thomas poured during the refreshment hour from a beautifully decorated table centered with an arrangement of lacquered fall fruits on an orange pottery platter circled with Oregon grape. Tall orange tapers and the silver service and lace cloth added to the festive note of the decorations.

Assisting on the committees were Mrs. Roy Easley, Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Mrs. Lester Vernon, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. H. T. Street, Mrs. W. G. McClymonds, Mrs. Dan Crawford, Mrs. Sam Anderson, Miss Ruby Parmlee and Miss Louise Fotheringham.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Hughes of San Francisco and Mrs. Jack Etheridge of Los Angeles, sister of Mrs. Hughes, were guests last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold. Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Arnold have been close friends for many years.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held their regular meeting in the KC hall on Monday, November the sixteenth. Owing to the stormy weather the card party planned for that evening was postponed until a later date, at present undecided. The next meeting will be on Monday, December the seventh.

Mr. Nicholas L. Barry Jr., of Lakeview and Klamath Falls, the former Ronella Shipman, has left for Chicago to join her husband who is training to instruct at an aviation mechanics school. Mrs. Barry will be gone for several months and plans to visit friends and relatives in the east during her stay.

FORT CLUB ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

FORT KLAMATH—Members of the Wednesday Night Contract Bridge club were delightfully entertained Friday evening at the William Zumbun ranch south of Fort Klamath, when Mrs. Zumbun was hostess to the group at a seven o'clock dinner followed by an evening of cards.

Gold chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece of the dinner table, and the Thanksgiving motif was carried out in card appointments. Two tables of contract were in play, following dinner, with Mrs. Alfred B. Castel being awarded high score, and Mrs. Zumbun, second high, at the close of the game.

Those enjoying the party were Mrs. Eldon Brattain, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William Page, Mrs. Fred Zumbun, Mrs. Alfred B. Castel, Mrs. Harold Wimer, and the hostess, Mrs. William Zumbun, whose husband was present at the dinner. Mrs. Jerry Sisemore, club member, was unable to attend.

Future plans of the group are undecided, owing to the fact that several of the members are leaving soon to spend the winter months at different points. Playing will be resumed on their return in the spring.

GALLOPING PARTIES ENJOYED

SPRAGUE RIVER—The Ladies Sewing club decided to have a "galloping tea" for November. Mrs. Stanton Pool, as leader, took her group and galloped to the home of Mrs. Joe Miksch Friday, November the sixth. The evening was a spent playing pinochle. High score for ladies went to Mrs. Stanton Pool and for men to Earl Johnson. Levi Wylie received low. Funds from these affairs go into the club treasury.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Bud Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Pool and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miksch. It was decided to make these "galloping pinochle parties."

The second of the series was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson Friday, November the third. High score for women went to Mrs. Byrd Tompkins, for men to Joe Miksch. Low scores went to Mrs. Joe Miksch and Harley McWilliams. Refreshments were served to the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miksch, Mrs. Byrd Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McWilliams, Mrs. Stanton Pool and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson.

STUDY GROUP DISCUSSES AMERICAS

The study group of the Senior Circle of the Congregational church held its regular meeting in the social hall on Friday, November the thirteenth. The group, under the leadership of Mary Eckstein, is studying Latin American countries and their relationship to the United States and to the world at large. A report was given of the Pan-American highway as planned and thus far completed, and topics were assigned for the next meeting, December the fourth.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. L. R. Harvey and Mary Eckstein, and others present were Mrs. Glenn Stivers, Mrs. Elmer Mitchell, Mrs. M. C. Messer, Mrs. H. O. Lohr, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. Lampropoulos and Nicky, Mrs. W. A. Little and grandson Glenn Allen Marin, and Mrs. S. R. Berry.

MOOSE TO OBSERVE BOOK WEEK

Senior Regent Ruby Bell of the Klamath chapter of Women of the Moose, announces her organization's participation in the annual nationwide celebration of Book Week. The chapter's celebration is in charge of the library committee of which Maude Sergeant is chairman.

Women of the Moose adopted their library program in 1930, following the origination of Book Week by Franklin K. Matthews, chief librarian of the Boy Scouts of America. Women of the Moose have exemplified the objectives of national Book Week in all activities of the library committee. They are striving to build an adequate library at Mooseheart and to encourage reading among the membership as well as the general public.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By ANITA GWYN

The Trappers won. That was the surprising fact Friday night, but the Pelicans are still the champs of Oregon. As has been stated by business men in Klamath Falls, the high school and town are behind the team, win or lose. We have raved about what a swell team we have and patted them on the back after every game they won this season and now is no time to let down on this for we still have a great bunch of boys who put all they had into the game. Give them three cheers.

Before the game the KUHS student body was honored by the presence of John Houston, Lee Jacobs, Lynn Roycroft and several other members of the Quarterback club. Talbert Sehorn, master of ceremonies, introduced Houston, who took over the pep assembly from over on Coach Ramsey led the seniors in a yell which was followed in this order: Juniors, Lee Jacobs; sophomores, Joe Peak and Wayne Scott; and freshmen by the right honorable mayor. Each leader went a little farther by rolling up sleeves or pants cuffs or taking off jackets. Peace offerings, introductions and yells floated through the program.

The Oregon Historical association has announced that it will hold its annual essay contest of approximately 2000 words about the "Oregon Trail." All high school students are eligible. For further information, see a history teacher.

The past week has been a Mrs. Rex Davis, (Marlah ney, have arrived in Louisville, Kentucky, where they were met this week by Mr. Davis, who has just completed his thirteen weeks of basic training at officers candidate school, Fort Knox, Kentucky.

DRIVE OPENS TO KEEP U. S. PUBLIC HOME

Joseph B. Eastman, ODT director, fired the opening gun today in a nation-wide drive to keep the American public at home.

The "don't travel" appeal is designed to focus attention on the gravity of the passenger transportation problem and to show what must be done to solve it.

Overcrowding Serious "The time is here," Eastman declared, "when all the American people must understand, what many of them now realize, that unnecessary travel can do real and serious harm to the war effort.

Overcrowding on many rail and bus lines already has become very serious. With inter-city travel by private automobile practically out of the picture and troop movements constantly increasing, conditions will become much worse, unless the American public comes to the rescue.

Curable "There is a great shortage in travel facilities, and those that we have are vitally needed for our military forces and war business. Mere pleasure travel cuts into and robs the supply for these necessary purposes, and will do this more and more as time goes on.

"The American people can cure this situation if they will. The way to do it is to stay home, unless there is real need to travel. Particularly keep off the crowded routes. It isn't difficult to find out which these are.

"We all like to travel. It is not pleasant to do without it. But neither is war pleasant. Bear in mind, also, that in view of the shortage of facilities, there soon will be no pleasure in traveling. In fact, there is very little now.

"I urge you most earnestly to ask yourself before you purchase a travel ticket or board a bus or train, whether you really need to make that trip. If you cannot conscientiously answer that question in the affirmative, please do not go."

The "don't travel" drive launched by Eastman today is being worked out by ODT in close collaboration with the Association of American Railroads and the National Association of Motor Bus Operators and through them with the individual rail and bus companies.

buy one, not insofar as studying, but assemblies shortened classes somewhat and school was dismissed before 3 o'clock for a good share of the school days. Next week we expect to be setting back to routine and a little more work.

A student body ticket or a dime will admit students to the dance to be held Monday afternoon, 3-5. Pop will be sold.

Girls Guarded As Police Hunt Escaped Youths

PORTLAND, Nov. 21 (AP)—Portland police guarded the homes of two Portland girls today as a state-wide search continued for two escaped Oregon convicts.

The escapees, Turman and Glenn Wilson, were sentenced to the state penitentiary for raping the girls. Police said they had threatened to kill the girls for testifying against them.

The Wilsons escaped yesterday by letting themselves over the prison wall at Salem with a rope fashioned out of cloth.
