

Marshfield, Newberg Win Thanksgiving Bouts, But Pelicans Fight for Title

Three Teams Put Irons in Title Blaze

By The Associated Press
Three Oregon high school football teams still had their irons in the state championship fire today and others settled back with regional titles under their belts after Thanksgiving day grid feasts.

While the Klamath Falls Pelicans, No. 1 claimants to the crown, were idle, Marshfield and Newberg chalked up victories to press their title bids.

Unbeaten, once-tied Marshfield made certain of at least the Coos county championship by punching over touchdowns in the second and third periods to humble North Bend, 13-0.

Newberg, unbeaten, untied and apparently the king of the minor powers, rolled over Sherwood, 39-0, to record its eighth victory of the season. Newberg already had clinched the Tualatin-Yamhill Valley league title.

The Portland interscholastic championship went to Franklin, which enjoyed the holiday. Jefferson, only team with a chance to tie the Quakers, battled through a scoreless tie with Grant and its last hope was gone.

Eugene captured the No-Name league crown Wednesday night by trimming Albany, 18-6.

Other turkey day scores: Hood River 12, The Dalles 6; Oregon City 0, Milwaukie 0 (tie); Hillsboro 12, Forest Grove 7; Beaverton 20, Tigard 0; Rainier 13, St. Helens 6; Woodburn 18, Silverton 0.

Pelicans Lay Out Terms to Title Battle

Frank Ramsey, Klamath Pelican football coach, said today that "Klamath will play anybody for an official state championship but will ask for seven days of practice under the same conditions as its opponent." Ramsey was to leave today for Portland to attend a meeting Saturday of the board of control of the State High School Activities association where the football situation is to be discussed.

The Pelican coach said Klamath would insist on the opposing school taking financial responsibility for the practice period as well as the game.

He said the Pelicans had had no outdoor practice session since November 14, six days before their game with Vancouver, when midwinter weather struck this area and continued until after the Trapper game. Lack of practice was a contributing factor in the defeat by the Trappers, according to Ramsey. He pointed out that Marshfield and Newberg, most voluble disputants to Klamath's state title claim, have been practicing steadily and both actually played on Thanksgiving day.

Until the Vancouver game was slated for November 20, Klamath Falls had not scheduled a game after Armistice day for 11 years, due to uncertainty of weather conditions.

Weekend Fishing Prospects

PORTLAND, Nov. 27 (AP)—Western Oregon weekend fishing prospects looked good to the state game commission today.

The weekly bulletin gave this county-by-county report:
Tillamook—Excellent steelhead and cutthroat fishing expected with heavy runs anticipated. Salmon eggs best lure.
Jackson—Rogue river good for steelhead, fair for silverside salmon. Applegate yielding good cutthroat, fair steelhead catches.
Josephine—Steelhead limits taken from Rogue and Applegate. Limited catches of cutthroat also reported from Applegate. Illinois river yielding good bags of silversides and steelhead.

All-Around Man

Roy McKay, Texas fullback, is considered the best all-around back in Southwest conference.

Basketball Moves Into Sport Spot

No Trip East for Oregon; Oregon State Prepares for Madison Square Triumphs
EUGENE, Nov. 27 (AP)—Basketball commands the sports spotlight here this weekend when the University of Oregon quintet opens an intensive pre-season schedule of games with high-ranking independent and small college court aggregations. The program replaces the usual eastern barnstorming jaunt, taken by the Webfoots for the past four years, but discarded this year's in cooperation with the war restrictions on travel.

Coach Howard Hobson's eighth edition of Oregon basketball will meet the Bruno studios (former Bradford's) team of Portland here tonight and will range with the highly-touted Vancouver Ramblers here Saturday night.

Five lettermen are expected to be in the starting lineup—Warren Taylor at center, Captain Don Kirsch and Bob Newland at guards, and Ralph Fuhrman and Bob Wren at forwards. Several other players, including Letterman Wally Borrevik, six-foot-eight center, will not be eligible until the first of the year, before the Webfoots open their northern division, Pacific Coast conference season.

Coaches Get Bumps In Bowl Bid Fights

Players Get Bruises Gaining Records; Now Directors Battle for Bowl Bids
By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Athletic directors and football coaches, whose players have received all the bumps and bruises while building glittering records, will get the pushing and shoving themselves this week as bowl promoters seek January 1 contestants.

Only on the campus of Texas university will everything be serene. The Longhorn players voted to compete in the Cotton bowl yesterday even before taking their showers after polishing off Texas A. & M., 12 to 6, on a touchdown by Jackie Fields just 46 seconds before the game's end.

But at Tulsa university the athletes hurried right out after their 40 to 7 victory over Arkansas—their tenth of the year without a tie or defeat—to post markers which would direct the mailman, telegraph messenger or personal bow emissary to the home of Coach Henry Frnka.

They were hopeful of staging a bowl promoters convention at William & Mary college, too, the Indians downing Richmond yesterday, 10 to 0, to replace Duke as the southern conference champion.

Of course, much of the actual bowl business must be delayed until after Saturday's games in which unbeaten Georgia Tech has an important engagement with Georgia and all-winning Boston college mixes with a Holy Cross eleven that doesn't believe the Eagles have been voted to be the best team in the country.

That doesn't include Saturday's meeting between Army and Navy which annually would fill the largest bowl but this year has been cut down to finger-bowl size by President Roosevelt's orders.

Texas' faculty still must approve the school's participation in the Dallas bowl but the southwest conference champions in the past have had no difficulty getting such permission and none is expected this year.

No announcement was made of a possible Longhorn opponent although Missouri, which yesterday trimmed Kansas, 42 to 13, to retain the Big Six title, Tennessee, Alabama and possibly Georgia have been mentioned.

One of the latter trio also might furnish the opposition for Boston college in the Sugar Bowl. The Eagles haven't been formally announced as New Orleans visitors during the holiday season but have been linked with the game since early this month.

Tulsa is another Sugar Bowl possibility and along with William & Mary and Penn State also has received unofficial consideration for the Miami Orange Bowl affair.

Georgia Tech, if it downs Georgia Saturday, is supposed to have the inside track to the Rose Bowl, where the host team may not be decided until December 12. However, if Washington State downs Washington Saturday it will take a lot of blocking and tackling to remove the Cougars from the front rank.

Advance Ticket Sale Good for Washington War

SEATTLE, Nov. 27 (AP)—University of Washington athletic officials reported today the best advance ticket sale of the football season for tomorrow's traditional state championship game, in which Washington State out of the coast conference leadership is an added attraction.

If field conditions are at all favorable, there are prospects of a scoring bee. WSC has the power of Fullback Bob Kennedy along with an accurate passing attack. Washington has some strong running backs and an air attack which reached a new peak against UCLA last week.

Coach Ralph Welch promised a few new tricks from the Husky bag. Citing the continual scouting of Washington by Assistant Coach Bailey of WSC, Welch commented: "We're pretty hard put to hash up something new, but we have, and the Cougars will be the first to see it."

Both teams are expected to be at top strength.

Idaho Trackmen Win Roundtable Cross Country

SPOKANE, Nov. 27 (AP)—University of Idaho trackmen lived up to advance press notices yesterday as five of them came in among the first 10 to win the four-mile varsity race, featured event of the Athletic Round Table's Thanksgiving day marathon program.

The Indians, led by Bob White, who came in in 21 minutes, 31 seconds, to place first in the four-mile varsity, took the meet with an official score of 28, followed by Oregon State with 72, Stanford 73, Washington 94 and Washington State 114.

Whitman, Oregon and Gonzaga failed to finish complete teams but Roy Griffin of Whitman took individual second place honors.

The frosh three-mile was won by Bob Hanna, Idaho, in 17:20, with Floyd Cuff, Stanford, second. Only Idaho and Washington State teams finished this event, with State taking team honors.

Al Lawson of Yakima took individual honors in the high school event of about two miles, coming in in 7:10.7, although the Rogers team of Spokane was credited with the win.

Willamette Drubs Whitman, Clinches Conference Crown

SALEM, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Northwest conference football crown was won for the third straight year by the powerful Willamette Bearcats as they drubbed the outclassed Whitman eleven, 26-0, here yesterday.

Two touchdowns were credited to Capt. Teddy Ogdaal, Willamette fullback, as he lugged the ball 196 yards in 26 tries, while Halfbacks Rex Hardy and Cecil Connors led the other two.

The Bearcats gained a total of 314 yards while holding Whitman to 45 and no first downs.

Savold Betting Underdog for Bivins Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Lee Savold, whose left hook broke the noses of Billy Conn, Lou Nova and Tami Mauriello, is the 2 to 1 underdog tonight in the 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden in which Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland makes his eastern debut.

Bivins, who lets his opponents decide whether the bout will be a boxing or a slugging match, has been fighting since he was a flyweight and now scales a pound or two over the light-heavyweight limit.

Savold will have a weight pull of approximately 16 pounds and will be making his first New York appearance since losing to Mauriello on October 30. Tami was to have met Bivins tonight but his Savold-broken nose still hasn't healed.

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—At the end of the first period of the Penn-Cornell game yesterday, the Penn boys had had something like 18 shots at the goal from 30 yards or less in three games and had scored just one touchdown. . . . From there on they couldn't be stopped—at least not by Cornell. . . . Which explains why you seldom see a grid coach over 30 whose hair retains its natural color. . . . Off that one game, our vote goes to Penn as the best team we've seen this season (we haven't seen Boston college) and another vote goes to Franklin Field as a swell place to watch a game if you don't get up so high the players look like exceptionally agile chessmen. . . . So far as we know, Cole Calgaeni, the Penn tackle, is no relation to Cal Cagni, the fighter, but we'd hate to meet him up an alley either.

Cap. "Mike" Moran, commander of the U. S. S. Boise, was a four-letter man at Annapolis before he became a six-Jap man in the Solomons. And he once won a trophy as the best all-around athlete aboard the U. S. S. Nevada. . . . Lieut. Billy Nichols, the crack polo player, complains about having to fight "the battle of Broad street" in the army ordnance department. . . . Commander O. O. "Scrappy" Kessing, head of the North Carolina Navy Pre-Flight school, has received his sea orders and most of the coaches there wish the same thing would happen to them. . . . Tommy Swanson, former Oregon State halfback, now a captain at Camp Roberts, Calif., describes a lieutenant in his company as "one of the grandest fellows I've ever known, and a wonderful officer with troops." . . . You may have heard of the lieutenant last football season—Jarrin' John Kimbrough.

SPORTS MENTION

Dave Allman, the blind boy who captained the Penn wrestling team a few years ago, will be admitted to practice law before the Pennsylvania state supreme court Monday. . . . Mike Jacobs still hasn't been repaid that $13,000 he laid out for advertising, printing, etc. on the Louis-Conn almost-fight. . . . Add Cy Peterman of the Philadelphia Inquirer to the growing list of star sportswriters who have gone overseas to cover the big game. Cy now is filing from the London pressbox. . . . You'd think Denny Myers wouldn't have any worries about his Boston college football team, but he has shed 27 pounds since the start of the season—and not by cutting out starches.

Inhuman Army Grid Team May Be Human In Navy Struggle

Bowl Invitations Ready?

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 27 (AP)
Okay, pass the invitations. Tulsa's Golden Hurricane—unbeaten, untied and unworried in the best year of its football history—is ready for a New Year's date.

A season in which Tulsa scarcely had a bad moment was climaxed yesterday with a smashing 40-7 triumph over Arkansas, the Hurricane's tenth victim of the 1942 campaign. Tulsa piled up 427 points to 32 for the opposition.

In this football-mad city, nobody doubted that Tulsa would get a bid to a major bowl. The only question was "Which do you think it'll be?"

The Sugar bowl, the Orange bowl and even the Rose bowl figured in the speculation.

Coach Henry Frnka was about the only person in town who wasn't talking.

"There isn't anything I can say about bowl games," commented cautious Henry. "Other people do the planning and talking."
