

Holiday Dinners Highlight Weekend

Thanksgiving Observed in Klamath Falls Homes
With Guests Joining in Celebration

Klamath Falls families shared their Thanksgiving turkey and the trimmings with close friends Thursday afternoon and tables gleamed with silver and crystal as Americans observed their first wartime Thanksgiving since 1917. A number of families asked visiting service men to their homes and enjoyed having them as their guests as much as the boys enjoyed the traditional feast.

A pioneer family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry Anderson on the Merrill highway at four o'clock for Thanksgiving dinner. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby and Sue, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin and Betty Ree and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hubb, Mrs. Maude Hosley and son, Tom, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goeckner and two children, Kent and Thirza, Mrs. William DeCew and sons, Martin and Larry Snyder, Mrs. Anice Anderson and Mrs. S. E. Martin, here for the holidays from Piedmont, California.

Dr. and Mrs. James Hilton and three children enjoyed as their Thanksgiving day guests, Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke and their three children.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson motored to Medford where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle. It was a double celebration, both Thanksgiving and the birthdays of Dr. Johnson and Mr. Boyle. This is an annual affair for the two families. The two Johnson daughters, Mary Lou at Pomona and Barbara at the University of Oregon, remained at school for the weekend.

It was a homecoming at the R. R. Macartney home with Mr. Macartney returning from Chicago and daughter, Rose, arriving from Stanford for the holidays. Other dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Macartney were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Durment and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

Mrs. Victor E. Newman entertained at Thanksgiving dinner and around her table were Miss Hazel Morrison, Miss Helen Roberts, and the three young Newmans, Dick, Katharine and Ann.

Their annual get-together was celebrated by the Kent and Murray families Thanksgiving afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, Rodney, Marcella and Rosemary Murray, Mrs. Helene Sandon, Ralph Waggoner, Joy Kent and Earl Kent, the latter arriving Thanksgiving day from Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCollum entertained at their home, 1139 Crescent avenue, with a family dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George McCollum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Beverley Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassett, Beverly and Tommy, and Vanie Walker.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew Thanksgiving day dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew and daughter, Nancy Lee, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. North of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Buchanan and daughter, Dorothy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore had a family dinner and their guests at four o'clock were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney and two small ones, David and Carol. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel were dinner hosts to Mrs. Rollo Gould, Miss Ruth Dunning, Sally and Peter Barnhisel and George Stevenson.

Lieutenant Robert Thompson had Thanksgiving with his family and greeted his new son for the first time. Lieut. Thompson is stationed at McClelland field near Sacramento. Daughter Sue was also happy to see papa in his new uniform.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock and children, Jack and Eleanor Ann, drove to Medford for the day and were dinner guests of Mrs. Welch Prock and family.

Judge and Mrs. George Grizzle entertained at a big family dinner for their children at their home, 927 Jefferson street, at half past one o'clock Thursday afternoon. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kintgen and daughter, Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Grizzle of Mt. Laki district, Mrs. Grace Kintgen, Mrs. Mike Latta and children, Barbara and Douglas, of Tillamook, Mrs. John Pastega and son, James Welch of Vallejo, Janet Dawn Welch and the Grizzles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hazzard entertained at their home on Hope street with a family dinner for Mr. Hazzard's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore had out-of-town guests for Thanksgiving dinner, their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wallace of Wallace, Idaho, who left Saturday for Los Angeles. Others at the Moore table were Mrs. Charles Bailey and Mr. R. C. Woodruff, Joan and Tommy Moore.

Judge and Mrs. U. E. Reeder were hosts at a family gathering at their home in this city. Covers were placed for relatives and friends including Mr. and Mrs. Carol Howe and young son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Geer, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McKimmons, Private Niles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reeder, Miss Audrey McPherson, Miss Florence Howe, Mrs. Garnet Carey, Miss Berdena Reeder, Miss Kathleen Livingston and Miss Barbara Jean Reeder.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald West entertained at their home near Malin with a family dinner on Thanksgiving afternoon. Present were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. West, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn and sons, Roger and Larry, Mrs. Lloyd Froom, (Margaret West), Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Whitby, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West and daughter, Sara Dale, Mrs. Claire Arnold, and Elliot West.

Among those who entertained guests at Thanksgiving dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford who were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Frank McElroy, Mrs. Marion Farmer, Mrs. R. H. Orison of Oakland, Wilbur Shannon and Bob and Theodora Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman V. Berg invited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hardesty and daughter, Susan, to celebrate Thanksgiving with them at their home on Lowell street. Also at the Berg table were Mrs. C. S. Dahlquist and Master Roger Berg.

VENTURE CLUB ASSISTS IN WAR WEEK DRIVE

The Venture club of Klamath Falls participated in the Women of War Week program in both a helpful and interesting way. All those who purchased a twenty-five cent stamp or more were given three chances to hit the bull's eye, not the usual kind, but something much more appropriate. On the wall hung a picture of Hitler. The bull's eye was Hitler's eye. For those hitting the right mark, a free pass was given to any theatre in town. This stamp and bond purchasing and dart throwing game took place from Monday through Friday nights of this week in the lobby of the Esquire theatre.

All together $15,250 worth of bonds and stamps were sold. The Venture club members that sold the stamps and bonds were Dorothy O'Sullivan, Pat Shaw, Geraldine Dalton, Shirley Mayhew, Katherine Johnson, Clara Oetjen, Beverly Sanders, Dorothy Laurensen, Mary Jane Metter, Phyllis Smith, Mary Trulove, Barbara Sellers, Joyce Leech and Beverly Siemens.

LUNCHEON AT LION HOME FRIDAY

A lovely affair of this past week was the half past twelve o'clock luncheon given Friday by Miss Marianne Lion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Lion, at the family home on Pacific Terrace.

VISITOR ENTERTAINED BY HOSTESS

Mr. and Mrs. L. Orth Slesmore entertained informally Wednesday evening at their home on Lakeshore drive for Lieutenant J. Truman Runyan who spent this weekend in Klamath Falls from his post at Roseburg.

Guests included Lieut. and Mrs. Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. C. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley.

"I HAD SUCH A NICE THANKSGIVING, did you?" This from little Patty Diane Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Boyer of 220 Lincoln street. Patty will be two on the eighteenth of December.

Program Arranged

Library Club to Hear
Discussions on India
And Asia

An interesting and timely meeting is planned by the program committee of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club. Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm and Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, who have arranged the presentation of talks on "Asia" and "India" for Monday afternoon, December the fourteenth, in the main auditorium of the public library at two o'clock sharp.

Mrs. Edward A. Geary will present the topic, "Asia," and Mrs. Everett Dennis will discuss "India." Both are members of the Klamath County League of Women Voters and have given much thought and work to their parts in the coming program.

There is more to the program than that, too. There will be numbers by the Klamath Union high school capella choir under the direction of Mr. Charles Stanfield. The choir has been doing splendid work and is a credit to the director.

Third on the program is an exhibit of Christmas wrappings, yes, it's just around the corner, and this time the wrappings will feature the common things around the house, butcher paper, bits of string and greens from the woods. This promises to be very exciting for those who put a lot of store in the way their Christmas packages are "done up." A feature will be children's wrappings.

Fourth is the silver tea and funds derived will be used to purchase a war savings bond invested by the club.

"Community Sing" Voted Success

Women at War Week Program Ends With Gathering in High School Auditorium Friday Night

All the people who stayed home from the first community sing sponsored in this town of ours last night, Friday, in the Klamath Union high school auditorium, missed a whale of a lot of fun, a peach of a program and a pepper-upper that banished war blues right now!

The community sing, which featured new and old war songs and many of the old "sweetheart" songs of another day, was attended by more than 300, and some said 400, youngsters and oldsters, an excellent representation of Klamath's families. The sing, incidentally, wound up Women at War week which has been observed since last Saturday noon and under the direction of Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, chairman of women's division of war savings.

The program opened with Klamath Union high school band, resplendent in red and white uniforms, playing the opening strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" following the pledge to the flag led by Gerald Anderson.

From then on it was sing, sing! Soloists were Violet Moore and Lillian Hillis who sang "The Marine Hymn" in a perfectly thrilling manner. Pat Brown who sang, "Hills of Home" and "Ship Ahoy" in her usual beautiful voice, and "My Buddy" by

The total figures are in a news story garnered Saturday as this is written right after the sing Friday night.

Members of Girls Friendly society of St. Paul's took over street sales of stamps shortly after nine o'clock Saturday morning and wound up at the parish house for lunch. Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr., and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter were in charge.

(P. S. Immediately after the sing last night, with the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers" still in the auditorium beams, requests were pouring in for a pre-Christmas song fest of carols! How about it?)

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED TUESDAY EVE

Miss Katharine Newman, who was thirteen years old on November the twenty-fourth, was honored by her mother, Mrs. Victor E. Newman, at the family home Tuesday evening when a group of friends were invited for dinner. Later the guests enjoyed the movie.

Honoring Katharine were Jean Hilton, Ruth Landry, Marilyn Bruce, Janet Ledingham, Marilyn O'Neill, Norma Jo Smith, Lynden King and Dorothy Collier.

Mrs. E. M. Igl will be hostess to the Oregon Mothers club at her home on North Third street at a quarter to two o'clock Monday afternoon, December the seventh.

Many Enjoy Elks Party

Gay Affair Given on Thanksgiving Eve in Lodge Ballroom

One of the gayest of the holiday affairs was the dancing party given Wednesday evening when Elks entertained with the annual Thanksgiving eve ball in the Elks temple.

Cocktails were served from nine to ten o'clock in the pine paneled room and later dancing was enjoyed until one o'clock when a Thanksgiving breakfast was served. More than three hundred were present at the party.

The committee in charge included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY AT MURRAY HOME

Miss Rosemary Murray's tenth birthday anniversary was observed Saturday afternoon of last week when a group of friends were invited to the Percy Murray residence on Pacific Terrace for games and a beautifully frosted cake.

Honoring Rosemary were Jean Henderson, Joan Moore, Jean Rae Oldenburg, Frances Mae Bewley, Frances Stearns, Claudette Gleason, Marilyn Moore, Eleanor Emery, Nancy Shapleigh, Dale Smith of Tulalake, Jean Mahan, Totie Liskey and Barbara Swanson.

Bazaar Plans Completed

Holiday Festivities
Planned by St. Paul's
December Fifth

But with one week left before St. Paul's annual bazaar, supper and program, the committee in charge is working hard to make this Christmas affair at the parish house next Saturday night, December the fifth, one of the largest ever held.

Mrs. John Coppage is general chairman of the big all-day doings and has arranged a gay program for the children with fun for the grown-ups in the evening.

Mrs. E. P. Livingston has completed plans for her puppet show which will be exceptionally exciting this year. A brand new story and a brand new dress on spanking new puppets. This show will be held in the small hallway and will be repeated every time there is a new audience. In other words, it will be a continuous performance.

Then there will be a fortune teller for the youngsters, a fish pond, a punch bowl, country store, candy booths, movie and stage shows, and games. The shows start at one o'clock and will run through until four o'clock, Mrs. Coppage stated.

For the grown-ups there is a buffet supper which sounds especially good, a country store full of home-made goodies, needlework booths, cooked food booths and in the basement there will be dart games. Dancing will follow the supper hour.

Members of the vestry were busy with hammer and nails this weekend transforming the parish house into a bazaar to hold all sorts of things for the holiday season.

Super is under the direction of Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby and her committee includes Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, president of the Guild, Mrs. Phil D. Schroeder and Mrs. John Schubert.

An invitation is extended to all members of the parish, their friends, and those interested, to attend the dinner and to take part in the games. Reservations are not needed.

MISS MOORE HONOR GUEST ON SATURDAY

Gwyneth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Moore, who are leaving soon for Portland to make their home, will be the honor guest at a supper party this evening at six o'clock when Connie Hunt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt, entertains for her pleasure.

Guests will be Gwyneth Moore, Mary Ann Mills, Jean Hilton, Ruth Landry, Alice Mead, Joanne Bennet, Joyce Sample, Dorothy Collier, and the hostess, Connie Hunt.

HOLIDAY SALE SCHEDULE BY ALTAR SOCIETY

St. Mary's Altar society of Sacred Heart church, will hold a gift sale on Saturday, December the fifth, at the former location of Tim's on North Ninth street, between Whyal's and Chilcote and Smith's offices.

Women of the parish have been working the greater part of the summer on articles for this sale, and will have a nice assortment of pillow cases, tea towels, and aprons to offer. The public is cordially invited to call.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT SHOWER

On Friday evening, November the twenty-seventh, Mrs. Myron Shannon entertained with a shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, in honor of Mrs. Drazil James, (Hazel Herrell), who was married Saturday, November the fourteenth, in Carson City, Nevada.

Honoring Mrs. James were Mrs. Esther Noel, Mrs. C. C. Colvin, Mrs. Jack Crawford, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Don Hunt, Mrs. Clifton Molatore, Mrs. Robert Howard, Mrs. Walter Jendrzewski, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. Donald Vannice, Mrs. Don Newsom and the hostess.

Mrs. James is employed by the California-Oregon Power company, and plans to continue her present position until spring.

Mrs. Prentice Yeomans is here as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Rose M. Poole. Mrs. Yeomans will remain in Klamath Falls for a month before joining Colonel Yeomans at his post in Virginia.

Mrs. R. H. Orison of Oakland, California, is the guest of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford of Lakeshore drive.
