Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Aloha chapter No. 81, Order of the Eastern Star, advance night was observed. This is when all elective officers of the chapter fill the positions to which they expect to be elected at the next regular annual election to be held the first meeting in December. These pro tem officers conferred the degrees of the order on Mrs. G. Clemmens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Frain. At the close of the initiatory ceremonies, Mrs. Frain, in behalf of herself and her husband, presented to their daughter an Eastern Star ring, set with a diamond and carrying the colors of the five points of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. E. E. Smith, who has been a faithful worker in Aloha chapter during the ten years of her residence in Klamath Falls, was escorted to the east where a floral degree was conferred upon her by officers of the star points, the secretary, and the worthy matron. Each officer presented flowers and expressed sentiments in keeping with the high esteem in which members of the order hold Mrs. Smith. Red and white carnations in a glass bowl were used in the center of the table. Place cards carried a cleverly made turkey. Small hobnail glass vases, each carrying a hand-made handkerchief embroidered in the five colors of the star points, were gifts for each guest. The turkeys and the handkerchiefs were the handwork of Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Martin presented to Mrs. C. L. Workers Are Petitioned

More Women Asked to Take Part in Dressings Project

The surgical dressings project in the Red Cross rooms at 418 Main street is going along nicely but more workers are needed, according to Mrs. R. R. Macartney, chairman, who announced this weekend that the work room has been enlarged.

Any woman in the city who is able to give six hours of week to the project is urged to do so and for those who cannot work during the day, the evening classes are opening Tuesday, December the first, and these classes will be held from seven to ten o'clock each Tuesday and Thursday evenings for the duration. Daytime instructors will start the classes, Mrs. Macartney stated.

Sixty women can be accommodated at one time in the workrooms and it is hoped that the holiday season will not make any difference in the number of man hours put into the project. Despite Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's surgical dressings are sorely needed by the men fighting in the South Pacific and that is where the dressings made by Klamath women are going.

The Klamath project has not yet reached its quota despite the fact that there are many loyal workers. In other words, more loyal workers are needed. All you need is a pair of willing hands, an all-over apron and a cheese cloth to bind up your hair. There you are. Apply in person!

Jolly Neighbors will meet on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock of this coming week at the home of Mrs. B. F. Douglas, 5429 South Sixth street, when the annual Christmas party and gift exchange will be held. Guests are asked to bring a gift not to exceed twenty-five cents. Mrs. A. L. Paul, Mrs. Al Longmire and Mrs. H. F. Sackett will assist Mrs. Douglas.
