Dinner Planned—Members of the Shrine club will meet for dinner at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night, December 2. A cocktail hour will be followed by the dinner program. All Shriners are welcome. It was announced, and election of officers will be held. Children in the Shrine hospital at Portland were greeted with plenty of turkey on their plates Thanksgiving day when Klamath Shrine club members sent 130 pounds of turkey to the hospital. Funds were raised at a dinner held just before the holidays.

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman M. Carter, 4012 Cannon avenue, are parents of a son, their first child, born at Klamath Valley hospital Sunday. Mrs. Carter is the former Ola Mae Hough of the city school staff. Carter is with the Southern Pacific. The child weighed 8 pounds 1 ounce at birth. Both mother and son are doing nicely.

To University—Leo Molatore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Molatore, left Sunday afternoon for Eugene to resume studies at the University of Oregon. Tony, his brother, left for Oregon State college. Both boys spent Thanksgiving here and also present was another brother, Clifton, now with the United States navy at San Diego.

Stag Night Set—The Elks annual stag night is all set for Saturday, December 12, according to E. Mullis, general chairman for the affair. Activities will start about 9 o'clock according to Mullis, who urges all members to attend. There will be coffee and sandwiches served from early evening on, with plenty of entertainment to follow.

On Dean's List—Donald Watkins, son of Mrs. Gertrude D. Watkins of 725 Mitchell street, was one of four students to head the dean's list at Armstrong's business college in Berkeley. Young Watkins maintained a straight "A" average for the term. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school, class of 1942.

From Baker—Jim Anderson, well known stockman of the Baker district, spent the weekend here looking over stock ranches with the thought of purchasing property in this area. He left for his home Sunday. Anderson was a guest at Hotel Hall while in the city.

Called by Illness—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, 2135 Reclamation avenue, left on Sunday for Portland, called by the illness of their daughter. Taylor is an engineer on the Southern Pacific railroad here.

Returns Home—J. R. McLellan, chief dispatcher with the Great Northern railway, has returned to Klamath Falls after being called to New Westminster, B. C., near Vancouver, by the serious illness of his father.

To School—Barbara Wales, Oregon State college student, was among those home from school over Thanksgiving, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wales of Lincoln street.

From School—Fred Lloyd, student at Oregon State college, returned to Corvallis Sunday after spending Thanksgiving here with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Guerretaz, 421 Washington street.

Returns North—Patricia Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton of Riverside, left Sunday for Oregon State college after spending Thanksgiving here with her family.

Returned—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones (Rose Thompson) returned Sunday evening after spending several days in Nevada and California points following their marriage at Reno, Nev., last week. They are now at home to their friends at 401 Jefferson street.

Thanksgiving Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Don Colvig and son Raymond, of Weed, were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. O'Neill, 1954 Portland street. They returned home on Saturday.

From Prospect—Mrs. Helma Hertog, a former resident of Klamath Falls and now living at Prospect, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Brink on Saturday.

Pinochle Party—The Eagles auxiliary is sponsoring a pinochle party at 2 p. m. Tuesday, December 1, at the Eagles hall. The public is invited.

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Don McAuliffe of Malin celebrated Thanksgiving as dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Murphy and family of this city.

To Dunsmuir—Mrs. Timothy Murphy returned to her home in Dunsmuir Sunday after spending Thanksgiving here with friends and relatives.

To Pendleton—Bishop William P. Remington returned to Pendleton Sunday after spending the weekend in Klamath Falls and Langell valley.

Leave Hospital—Mrs. C. R. Morris and infant son were dismissed Sunday from Klamath Valley hospital and returned to their home, 1813 Austin street.

Aid to Meet—The Klamath Lutheran Ladies' Aid will meet in the church parlors Tuesday, December 1, at 2 p. m. The program is in charge of Mrs. Elmer Rindall. Mrs. A. Ovgard is in charge of music and the hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Andrew Olsen and Mrs. Arthur Oberg.

Club to Meet—The Past Noble Grands club will meet Tuesday for 1 o'clock luncheon in IOOF hall. All members are invited to attend.

Townsend Auxiliary—Members will meet Wednesday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Adah Larson, 618 Willow, for one o'clock potluck luncheon and business meeting. All are asked to bring needle, thimble and scissors to the quilts.

Commuters Will Have to Speed Up

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 30 (AP)—Commuters who've caught the bus or street car by just walking a bit faster will have to lope, starting today.

One third of the 4355 stops on the Kansas City public service transportation system are being eliminated to help offset the delays anticipated in handling new business caused by gas rationing.

the war, navy, justice and senate departments and the board of economic warfare and the tariff commission.

"These departments and agencies," reported Rep. Cooper (D-Tenn.), chairman of the subcommittee, "again emphasized that there was no desire or intention to bring any persons into the country that are now restricted by the immigration laws for permanent residence and only those vitally needed in the war effort on a temporary basis."

The Japanese give no one the right to disagree with them. Liberty as we know it doesn't exist; you must conform absolutely or be crushed.—Nurse captured by Japs in Korea.

WAR-TIME POWERS BILL HITS SNAG

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP)—In a compromise move, a house ways and means subcommittee decided to strip from President Roosevelt's requested new war-time powers any authority to suspend present immigration regulations and restrictions.

The action came after the subcommittee, attempting to whip a measure into shape for congressional approval this year, conferred with representatives of

The Doctor May Not Have to Worry About Gas Rations

MISSION, Kan., Nov. 30 (AP)—Gold—and gas too—is where you find it. That's why Dr. Abraham Sopher is looking in his front yard.

The prospects of fuel rationing gave the Kansas City physician the shudders. He summoned R. A. Foster who had once drilled a water well.

"Why, you've got an outcropping of the Raytown lime right by the front gate," Foster replied geologically to Dr. Sopher's inquiry concerning the possibility of a natural gas well on his lawn. "About three quarters of a mile south there's a flowing gas well brought in at 700 feet."

Foster got the job and his big rig has been chugging away in the fashionable suburban district for a week now. The bit is down to 135 feet already.

The German people are becoming more and more weary, their war economy has weakened and their former arms superiority is dwindling.—Premier Wladyslaw Sikorsky of Polish government-in-exile.

French garrisons flocking to the allied standard have switched from "V" for Vichy to "V" for Victory.

LET US MAKE THIS A GOOD CHRISTMAS

Our chain of joyous, untroubled Christmas is broken. This Christmas will be different... but we can still make it a good one. All that Christmas means to us is in peril today. The peace and good-will, the warmth and cheer, the joyous gathering of family and friends... all these may be lost to us unless we must, with valiance and courage, preserve our Christmas spirit, so it will shine out for all the world to see. This Christmas of all we have ever known, must be a good Christmas.
