

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN PICTURES

FONDA JOINS NAVY — Film Actor Henry Fonda (above) carries a sea bag over his shoulder as he reports for duty in the Navy at Los Angeles. The actor, father of three children, will be trained at San Diego, Calif.

FLIERS LIMBER UP FEET—To develop that sensitive touch needed for using foot controls on plane, these army student fliers are given foot exercises in pool at Carlstrom Field, Arcadia, Fla., as part of Riddle Aeronautical Institute course.

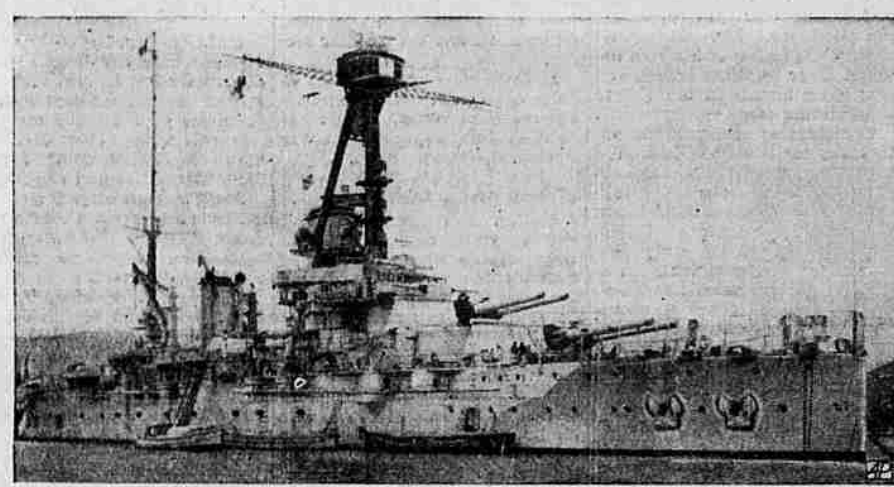

FIRST LADY AND QUEEN MOTHER—Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt (left), wife of the American president, chats with Queen Mother Mary of Great Britain during a tour Mrs. Roosevelt made of the British Isles.

'IRON MAN RICK' — Mrs. Eddie Rickenbacker stands beside an oil painting of her hero husband at the Grand Central Art Galleries in New York City. The painting was done by Artist Howard Chandler Christy.

FOUND—A Hollywood movie talent scout spotted Ann Savage (above) in a bit part in a play based on a Clifford Odets' drama, and immediately wired his office. Now she has a film contract.

DEMILITARIZED FRENCH WARSHIP—The French battleship Lorraine (above), a 22,189-ton vessel, has been demilitarized at the British naval base at Alexandria, Egypt.

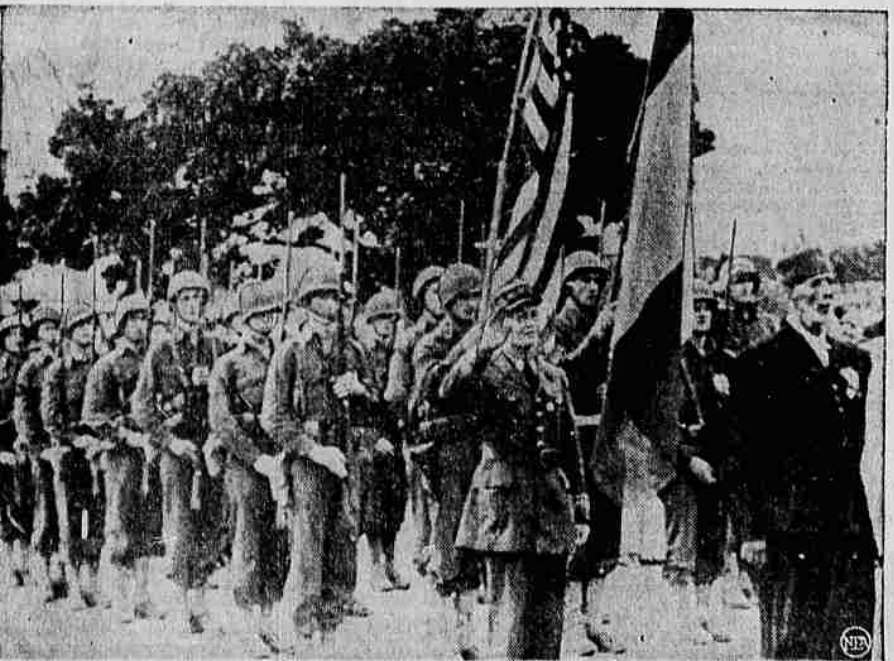

SEEKS AID FOR CHETNIKS—Using a dagger as a pointer, Ruth Mitchell (above), only foreign woman ever admitted to Chetnik membership, indicates on map where the Serb guerrillas operate. She is seeking funds for Serbs.

LIVE RABBIT'S FEET — Gunner Sergeant Alan B. Citron (above) at Harlingen, Texas, gunnery school, carries Propwash, a pet white rabbit, on flights for luck.

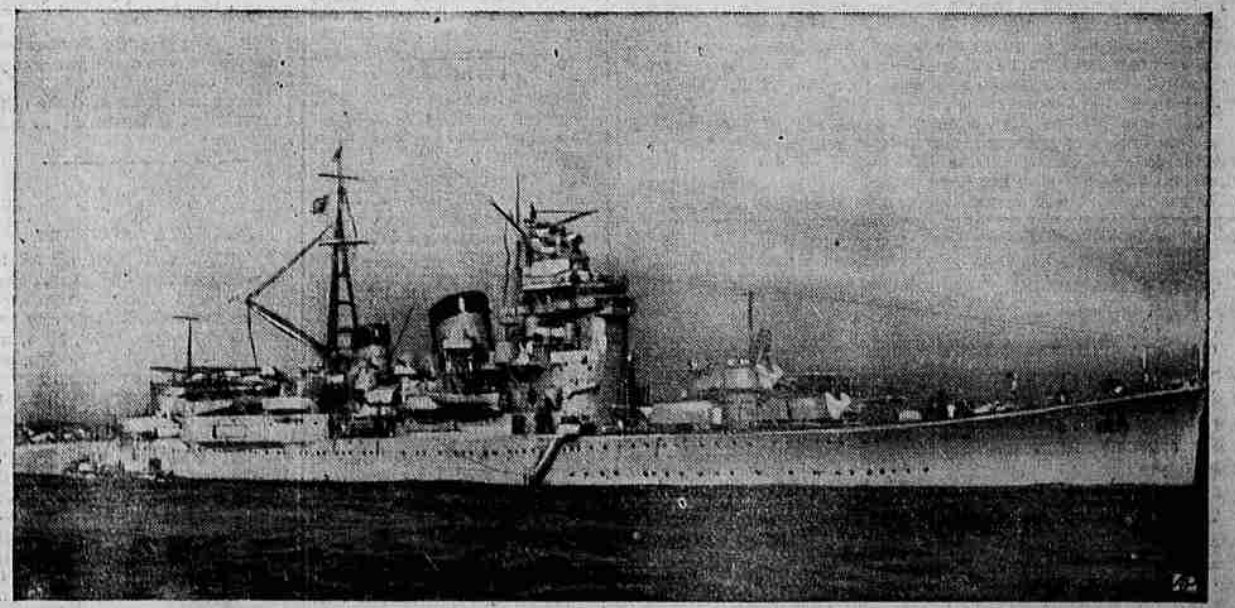

FLYING GENERAL'S SON ENLISTS — Robert Kenneth Chennault (right) takes the Navy oath as he enlists at Jackson, Miss., becoming sixth son of Gen. Claire Chennault in service. Robert is 17 years old.

An aftermath of the Anglo-American move into North Africa, the American and French flags are shown flying side by side at a ceremony before a French War Memorial somewhere in Algeria, probably Oran. A French officer and a native official stand in the foreground as American troops present arms. U. S. Army Signal Corps Photo.

REPORTS—Navy Lieut. Dewitt Peterkin (above) in Hawaii after Solomons duty, says Japs lost 30,000 to 50,000 men attempting to recapture Guadalcanal.

ONE OF JAPAN'S CAMERA-SHY WARSHIPS—Despite strict Japanese precautions against the photographing of their warships, this picture of the Cruiser Ashigara was made at Shanghai in 1940 unknown to the Jap navy.