

INVESTMENT INCOME LIMITATION SEEN

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt plans to ask the new congress to extend the $25,000 net salary limitation to investment income, beginning in 1943.

An informed official, who could not be quoted by name, said today the president believed that all types of earnings should be limited for the duration, but had omitted investment income from his executive order because he was informed the wage stabilization act gave him no authority in that field.

As put into effect by James F. Byrnes, economic director, the executive limitation bans the payment by any company or the receipt by any individual of a gross yearly salary of more than $67,200. After deductions for insurance, debt and federal tax payments, this is calculated to leave $25,000 net.

There was no comparable limitation, however, on the income received from investments and this was one of the points made by Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee in assailing the order as "unwise and unnecessary."

TWO BURGLARIES REPORTED IN CITY

Two burglaries were reported to city police, one more than a year old. William Rhodes, 511 Roosevelt street, told police he left here in October, 1941, and upon his return this week found his home had been ransacked. Among the articles taken were a gas plumber's furnace, a pipe vise, one set of Toledo dies, a ratchet drill, household utensils, bed clothing and a man's suit and overcoat.

Robert Canby, 831 Oak avenue, returned from a trip to Portland and found a window in his garage broken, and seven boxes of 12-gauge shotgun shells missing.

NEWELL COMMANDER MOVED TO ARIZONA

Captain William Patterson, 38, who has been commander of the military guards at the Tulelake WRA project, has been transferred to the project at Prescott, Ariz.

The transfer was confirmed by the ninth service command at Salt Lake, but no additional details were given.

Captain Patterson has been in charge of the military unit at Tulelake since the WRA project started.

Butte Strangler Shot "Without Apparent Motive"

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 1 (AP)—Bullets fired without an apparent motive killed Helen Kennedy, 38, Butte stenographer, and James Martin, 71, retired miner and friend of the woman's family.

Police Chief Bart Riley said Martin shot Miss Kennedy three times on a Butte street last week, then mortally wounded himself.

Relatives of the dead woman, Riley said, could offer no reason for the double shooting, and said it "came out of a clear sky."

Martin's wife, who died last spring, was a cousin of Miss Kennedy and was a very close friend of her. People's Warehouse Co. 3108th

Found in Attic

Mrs. Chaney Hall (above), about 62, was found emaciated and apparently nearly starved in the attic of a squalid dwelling and behind bolted doors by Los Angeles police who broke into the house after a neighbor became concerned because he had not seen the woman's husband, Henry Hall, for nearly a week.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By ANITA GWYN
After a four-day vacation from classes, students were again back at KUHS to study (?). Talk of visitors, turkey and numerous other topics was in the air. Now the main idea is just how many days it will be until Christmas holidays.

Music twinkled down the halls Monday, originating from Mr. Wendell Smith's junior English classes.

Every year about this time, music of the period of various authors is studied and copies of the words of many songs are passed out to the students so they can participate in the lesson.

The student body office has been moved to new and larger quarters. Those looking for lost articles or wishing to turn in found things will now have to travel to the old candy room located on the main floor across from the exhibit case.

While we are on this subject, the display has been changed, and the works of Dean Geist are mounted—three large drawings of airplanes.

The scrap heap in front of the school is gradually diminishing in size as the metal is hauled away to go to war.

Plans were laid for a sophomore "hop" at a meeting of that class Monday morning. Bob Perkins, president, was introduced to the students. The advisor is Mr. Smith.

The PTA membership drive ends tomorrow, December 2.

Basketball season is getting underway with turnouts and practice to see who will make up the Pelican squad. Wayne Scott will coach the team this year.

For once, dirty fingers were permitted. Students, with their parents' permission, were fingerprinted in room 319 all day today.

At this writing, Tuesday morning, the list of big and little sisters had not been put on the bulletin board, but it will most likely be posted Wednesday.

The Hi-Y, under the supervision of Paul Deller, voted in new members and planned the initiation for December 9, Monday night.

commandant, and Lt. Col. Charles L. Driscoll, executive.

Lieutenant Dow formerly was staff sergeant at Letterman General hospital, San Francisco. In civilian life he was a mill worker in Oregon lumber mills. He attended Klamath Union high school and Keno high school.

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Dec. 1 Rex Simpson Carter, son of Edward G. Carter, Drummond, Wis., has been graduated from recruit training as honor man of his company at the U. S. naval training station here.

Employed for four years as a lumberman for the Swan Lake Moulding company, Klamath Falls, Ore. Carter left his job several weeks ago to enlist as a seaman, first class. Through a series of aptitude given the 130 men of his company, he has been selected to attend one of the navy's service schools.

Albert C. Carlson has been promoted to the rank of sergeant, according to an announcement by officials of the army air base, Topeka, Kas. Carlson has been in the army since March 4, 1942. He is a native of California.

States there are 4th incomes in 1929; in 1932, there were only 20.
