

Mrs. Moreland New Library Club Head

Merrill Group Makes Plans for Holiday Party to Be Held December the Thirtieth

MERRILL—Mrs. Claud Moreland will succeed Mrs. M. A. Bowman as president of the Merrill Library club, her election, with other officers elected at the annual Christmas party being unanimous. Serving with Mrs. Moreland will be Mrs. Clifford Schuck, first vice president; Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, second vice president; Mrs. T. O. Wheeler, secretary; Mrs. D. M. Palmer, treasurer and Mrs. A. J. King, parliamentarian. Mrs. J. B. Kidwell was elected librarian for the ensuing year.

Husbands of active members and of members who for some reason have not been able to attend meetings, will be guests at a holiday potluck supper the evening of Wednesday, December the thirtieth, the affair to be held on the club room. Dinner will be served at half past seven o'clock and cards and dancing will follow.

Mrs. Bowman appointed Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Moreland and Mrs. Palmer to serve on the entertainment committee, Mrs. W. J. Grove, Mrs. J. R. Blatch, Mrs. Frank Carey, Mrs. Harold West and Mrs. O. M. Castleman to assist with dinner preparations.

Preceding the business session, Mrs. Kilpatrick, program chairman, offered a number of timely bits of poetry interspersed with community singing of Christmas carols, and the salute to the flag.

Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, voicing appreciation of Mrs. Bowman's splendid work during the year just ending, presented a gift from the club. Mrs. W. C. Bailey distributed gifts brought by the members for the Christmas exchange.

A lighted Christmas tree and Christmas greens added to the festive note of the occasion. The buffet table in the dining room was centered with a miniature frosted tree flanked by red tapers and encircled with evergreens. Guests dined at small tables in the main room.

Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, Mrs. C. E. Sharp and Mrs. W. C. Bailey, committee in charge of the luncheon, were assisted by other members of the club in serving.

Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, chairman, Mrs. H. C. Bradbury and Mrs. C. E. Sharp acted as a nominating committee prior to the election. Officers will take the chairs at the January meeting.

The Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose of Merrill had their annual goose bake, December first. One hundred members and friends enjoyed the dinner. An interesting musical program was given followed by the playing of games. Defense stamps were awarded.

HOLIDAY PARTY GIVEN BY NEIGHBORS

Jolly Neighbors were entertained at the annual Christmas party of the club at the home of Mrs. B. F. Douglas, 5429 South Sixth street, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, with Mrs. A. L. Paul, Mrs. Ralph Wiese and Mrs. H. F. Sackett as assisting hostesses.

The president, Mrs. James W. Fowler, opened the program with a prayer written by her husband. The evening ended with the singing of "God Bless America." During the party Christmas carols were sung and gifts distributed from a beautifully decorated tree.

Next meeting of Jolly Neighbors will be held at the home of Mrs. Bert Cole, 2226 Hope street, Wednesday afternoon, January the sixth at two o'clock with Mrs. Syd Evans and Mrs. Harvey Lohr assisting. There will be election of officers at this time. Eighteen members and several of their children enjoyed the day.

MRS. SKINNER HOSTESS TO SEW-STUDY CLUB

The Sew and Study club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Skinner on Thursday when a potluck luncheon was enjoyed around a beautifully decorated table. A Christmas tree was lighted in the living room and gifts were presented to members.

Mrs. George Casper read articles from the Reader's Digest which were discussed while various members knitted for the Red Cross. A box of candy, sent from Mrs. W. C. Van Emon who is now in San Francisco, was served.

Present were Mrs. H. A. Hagman, Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. J. K. Keno, Mrs. E. C. Stucky, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. V. B. Anderson, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Miss Phyllis Hogah and the hostess.
