WILLKIE RAPS CENSORSHIP AMONG ALLIES

NEW YORK, Dec. 7 (AP)—Wendell Willkie expressed belief today in a message to the people of England on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor that Americans and Britons could reach conclusions as to the purpose of the war "that are sounder than the wisest pronouncements of temporary leaders."

"The right of free expression and all it implies was attacked at Pearl Harbor," Willkie said. "Let's get on with the discussion."

The message was cabled to England and was to appear in today's issue of Lord Beaverbrook's London Evening Standard.

Frankness Asked

Willkie said it was his opinion that if a common accord of our purposes was not reached "while we fight, we will inevitably fall apart when the fighting is over" and it was for this reason, he added, that he was trying to "prod" the leaders of both nations "into frank statements of their post-war purposes."

The 1940 republican presidential candidate said that international censorship generally was set up for one of two reasons—"either to protect our feelings, as if we were super-sensitive children, or to cover up official mistakes."

"For instance," he continued, "a day or two after our collaboration with Darlan was announced I was required to devote from a talk I was making to the American people my condemnation of that policy and no reference to my position was allowed to reach England.

Devious Methods

"At the same time similar condemnation of our policy was being made in parliament and we learned by radio and press that there was grave disapproval of it in England, as there was in America.

"To illustrate still further the deviousness of official censorship, we likewise read in our papers of your government's refusal to allow DeGaulle to broadcast his protest over the Darlan arrangement for fear of embarrassing our government."

Citizens Warned To Skirt Camp White Range

CAMP WHITE, Ore., Dec. 7.—Artillery firing will be conducted on the Beagle range of the Camp White reservation December 7 to 11 inclusive, it was announced today from headquarters. Firing will be limited to the hours between 12 noon and 5 p. m.

The Beagle range lies 9 miles north of Medford, which is in the form of a rectangle 8 miles wide to the west of Rogue river and north for 10 miles from the mouth of Little Butte creek.

Military and civilian personnel are warned to remain out of the area unless they have business. Range guards will be posted to enforce this order.

Acid Indigestion

Relieved in 5 minutes or double your money back. When excess stomach acid causes painful, suffocating gas, sour stomach and heartburn, doctors usually prescribe the fast-acting medicine known as symptomatic relief—medicine like those in Bell and Wallace. No inactive, dulling or irritating matter in a fifty or seventy-five cent bottle to us for double money back, 25c.

IMPRESSIVE ELKS SERVICE PRESENTED

Impressive services, honoring both departed members of the lodge and members who are in the armed forces, were held by the Elks lodge Sunday afternoon with Linking Knight Jack Linman in charge of arrangements. Officers of the lodge, led by Exalted Ruler Frank Peyton, gave the memorial ritual of the rendition of the famed Alpine toast by Linman.

Special music included violin numbers by Harry Borel and several vocal numbers by a quartet composed of Charles Stanfield, John Houston, George Myers and Charles P. Van Doren. Miss Marie Obenchain accompanied.

At the close of the services, American and service flags were brought in by Sergeant Lester Finley of the U. S. marines and Sergeant Angus Newton of the U. S. army.

LAKE EXAMINER BACK IN PLANT

LAKEVIEW—The Lake County Examiner is publishing again in its own plant, after an interruption caused by a fire which caused several thousand dollars worth of damage to the plant and building.

For two weeks, the paper was published in Klamath Falls and brought here for distribution. The Examiner building has been re-floored and otherwise remodeled, and both the newspaper and job business are now running normally. Personnel of the newspaper has been hit by illness.

BRISTLES RATIONED

All brushes made in the United States must contain at least 45 per cent of material other than pig and hog bristles, most of which has been imported in the past from China and the Far East.
