Lookie - Lookie COOKIES!

Youngsters love big, soft, puffy, drop cookies—especially with milk after school. And chances are oldersters go for them, too—any size, shape or kind.

Cookies pack easily in lunch boxes, are delightful to serve when guests drop in, and are tasty for just plain munching. They're good for you, too. So how's your cookie supply? We think the two recipes given below are tempties—real wartime specials and treats for your favorite cookie jar. Why not try them today

PRALINE BUTTER PUFFS (They magically disappear)

1 1/4 cups flour
1/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter

1/4 cup white sugar
1/4 cup finely chopped pecan or walnut meats
Powdered sugar

Sift flour, measure and sift again with brown sugar and salt. Cream butter and add flour mixture gradually, creaming after each addition. Melt white sugar in heavy frying pan, heating until golden brown, stirring constantly. Add nut meats and pour into well-greased drip pan (8x12x3/4). When hard, crush fine with rolling pin. Add to cookie dough, mixing thoroughly. Form dough into small balls. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) for 15 minutes or until done. Remove from oven, cool slightly about 3 minutes, roll in generous amount of powdered sugar. When cold roll again in powdered sugar. Makes 3 dozen cookies, 1/4-inch in diameter.

JEWEL BARS (Cookie jar gems)

2 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 1/2 cups finely cut gum drops

4 eggs
2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1/4 cup chopped walnuts

Sift flour and measure. Sift again with baking powder and cinnamon. Sprinkle dry ingredients over gum drops. Beat eggs until light; add brown sugar and mix well. Stir in flour and gum drop mixture and add nut meats. Bake in two well-greased shallow square pans (8x8x2) in moderate oven (350° F.) for about 20 minutes or until done. Cut in bars (1x3 inches) while hot. Cool. Remove from pan and roll in powdered sugar. Makes 3 dozen cookies.
