SEATTLE (AP)—A couple of University of Washington men put on a fund-raising stunt that fairly smacked of patriotism.

The two—Roger Ryan and Barry Rogers—capitalizing on the patriotic fervor of the coeds and the imminent man shortage prospect, set up a booth in which they sold kisses to the gals for a dime.

All profits (they were not reported) were to go to the coed-sponsored fund for purchase of a jeep for the army.

Buy it through the want-ads.

"RED HOT" KEGLER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—John "Red" MacConnell of the Oakland Rod and Gun club, almost stopped the bowling at the Elba alleys when he rolled games of 227, 278 and 232 on a central Pittsburgh duckpin league game.

Friends claim the 737 total is highest ever reported in a league game.

SPOKANE (AP)—All this time Spokane has been calling it the "Alan Baxter General Hospital."

The army nearly got the new 1000-bed hospital complete before an appeal to the library of congress straightened out the name puzzle.

Reported the library: The hospital "is named for Bedediah Hyde Baxter," surgeon general from August 16 to December 4, 1890.

Anyway, it's still Baxter.

Machinery which was considered obsolete in the automobile production field is now the only machinery which can be effectively used in manufacturing certain airplane parts.

Plane production hit a high of 4800 in June.
