

VANDENBERG OUT OF RACE FOR PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (P)—Senator Vandenberg, Michigan's favorite son for the republican presidential nomination in 1936 and 1940, announced Monday he would not be a candidate in the 1944 convention and expressed relief "the events of the next 18 months will dictate our appropriate nominee."

"In my expectation, he will be found amid the new timber which is richly available for his leadership—and which will become more so as the war progresses," Vandenberg said. "As a non-candidate myself I may hope to have far greater influence in choosing the right candidate. That is all that matters."

Vandenberg was the second 1940 aspirant to withdraw from 1944 republican consideration. Previously Senator Taft of Ohio announced he would support John W. Bricker, three-term Ohio governor, for the nomination.

In addition Thomas E. Dewey, governor-elect of New York, has announced he expected to serve his full four-year term, which would mean he would continue in the governorship through 1946.

3-YEAR SENTENCE METED ABDUCTOR

MILWAUKIE, Dec. 15 (P)—Kidnaping charges were on file here today against two young Portlanders accused of forcing a woman cab driver to accompany them to Roseburg.

District Attorney Fred Miller identified the pair as Virgil Ray Kaufman, 18, and Rosalee Margaret Mayo, 17, who, he said, also are charged with assault and robbery with a dangerous weapon.

Kaufman and Miss Mayo were arrested at Roseburg yesterday. Miller said they had Mary Jean George, 24, cab driver, take them from Portland to Milwaukie, then forced her out of the driver's seat at gun point and continued on to Roseburg, where police stopped the cab because it lacked a public utilities commission permit.

PORTLAND, Dec. 15 (P)—A three-year prison sentence was imposed yesterday on Frank Mayo, 19, brother of Rosalee Margaret Mayo, 17, charged with abducting a woman cab driver.

Express your devotion by embroidering this Sacred Heart picture and the Divine Praise. Both being the same size, they make a suitable group or can be used framed as one picture. Pattern 7455 contains a transfer pattern of 2 pictures 6 by 8 inches; stitches; materials needed; color chart.

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. _____, to _____ followed by your name and address."

Lakeview Rotary Club to Honor Hay at Dinner

LAKEVIEW—Honoring A. D. Hay, recently appointed member of the state supreme court, the Lakeview Rotary club will entertain at a dinner at the Hotel Lakeview on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Rotary President Dave DeArmond says that the Rotary ladies are also invited. Mrs. Hay will also be a guest of honor.

The regular luncheon of the club will not be held on Wednesday.

charge with two other youths. Mayo was sentenced to the penitentiary by Circuit Judge Marvin W. Watkins.

JAPS TRAPPED ON KISKA, SAYS PAPER

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 15 (P)—The Anchorage Times said in an editorial today that the reason the Japanese still are at Kiska is because they cannot get off the island.

Reviewing events since the Japanese occupied the Aleutian island, the newspaper said that all Japanese aircraft there and more than 20 vessels have been destroyed and many shore batteries silenced.

The editorial added facetiously that if it is desirable to have the Japs leave the island, transportation might be permitted them, and they would evacuate in a hurry.

COOPERATION

PHILADELPHIA, (P)—After Reporters Wayne Barr and Dick Larsh of the Philadelphia Record received notices to report for army induction, a sheet of copy paper bearing two typewritten notes went up on the Record's bulletin board. The notes said: "Anyone wishing to contribute to a going-away fund for Dick Larsh, please see me—Wayne Barr."

Every School Child Can Get Souvenir of "Oregon"

Every school child, boy or girl, in Klamath county will have an opportunity to secure a souvenir from the famous old battleship, "Oregon," in the Battleship Oregon Souvenir War Bond program. It was announced Monday by Andrew Collier, county war savings chairman.

In order to qualify for the memento, a child must complete a stamp book or purchase a bond of any denomination through the schools, Collier stated. The drive continues from December 18 to January 30.

The old battleship is being dismantled and its metal melted to make new war weapons.

Every teacher in the county has been made an agent to assist in the new war bond buying program and will certify students eligible for a souvenir from Oregon's historic shrine, the old battleship which made a record run around Cape Horn and reached Cuban waters in time to help destroy the Spanish fleet. For this act she was known as "the bulldog of the navy."

All teachers are urged to remind their pupils that those converting their war savings stamps into bonds will receive one of these historic mementoes made from a piece of wood from the ship.

Deadline On Ration Book 1 Extended Two Days

Local rationing boards have been instructed to fill applications for the sugar-coffee book-war ration Book 1—through December 17, the state office of price administration announced today. Some local boards reported a heavy last-minute rush which they were unable to handle; other boards ran out of the books. The additional time was allowed, the OPA stated, to offset the two days when boards were closed to catch up on handling of mileage rationing applications.

BLITZKREIG

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Some goats are masters of the frontal assault and aren't confined to attacks from the rear. Patrolman Lawrence O'Connell says so.

He was sent to aid 11 defense workers who complained that every time they tried to get on a street car Mrs. George Dermane's goat would bow his neck and charge. By the time they'd get up, the street car would be gone.

O'Connell took charge—strode firmly toward the animal. It knocked him down twice before Mrs. Dermane came along and got her goat.

BIN SET UP FOR STOCKING SALVAGE

Cooperating in the national drive to salvage silk, rayon or nylon garments, Sears Roebuck and company have established a salvage bin on the main floor. Silk, rayon and nylon are used to make powder bags for use in the big guns. These materials are ideal for the purpose as they burn completely and leave no residue.

Any garment of these materials or in combination with other materials such as cotton, can be used, according to Ron Fischer of Sears, who is handling the salvage drive at the store. Customers are asked to wash the garments and turn them in at Sears, where they will be baled and sent to reconditioning plants. Old stockings are especially wanted because of the purity of the materials used in their manufacture.

SLOW BUT SURE

SIDELL, Ill., (P)—Gas rationing doesn't prevent Mrs. Fannie Parker, 77, from making her usual trips around town.

She rides in a cart pulled by her nephew's team of goats.

The children are our heritage. Our future depends on their good welfare.—Dr. Alice V. Keliher, New York health official.

Grade School Christmas Carol Service Planned

The traditional Christmas carol service given by grade school children will be presented Sunday, December 20, at 3:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church. It was announced this week.

The pageant of the nativity will be presented by the entire seventh grade of Fremont school with choruses made up of the other six schools in the city system.

Grade school music students are anticipating a busy pre-holiday season. On Friday of this week they will present the Rotary program at the Willard hotel with first graders playing the role of Santa Claus. There will be a program of unusual carols and numbers by the junior high school choir.

Carolers will be guests of the Business and Professional Women's club at the regular dinner meeting Monday night, December 21, at the Willard hotel.

SURE, IT'S YOUR GROCER'S FAULT

... or is it?

YOUR GROCER started this war—or did he?

He sank the ships that carried your coffee—or did he?

He took the cans away from the canners, the labor away from the farmers, the tires away from the draymen—or did he?

And he hasn't a worry in the world—except —except trying to satisfy you with a smaller variety of foods than you're used to

—except trying to serve you with less help, less goods, less gasoline

—except trying to keep his business going with higher expenses, less profits, fewer products, and more taxes

—except wondering why he doesn't shut up his store and take a good job elsewhere that will pay him more money and let him sleep at night.

Even so—your grocer isn't crying for sympathy.

He knows you have your own problems, too. But he is saying, if you will cooperate with him he can make life easier for you.

For instance—well, let Mrs. Smith give you a few tips:

2 Who Escaped Transport Sinking Tell Experience

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15 (P)—Two engineering men who got away in the last lifeboat to leave the 21,000-ton liner President Coolidge, told Saturday of their escape and of her loss.

The navy announced at Washington that the once-paternal vessel, serving as a transport, sunk in the South Pacific after hitting a mine. Only four of the more than 4000 aboard were lost.

Charles Ross, a fireman, and John Paton, both of this city, first assistant engineer, told of the experience.

"I was on duty in the fire room," Ross related, "when the first explosion came. All I remember is a blast, then everything went black. When I came to all the lights were out and the water was rising rapidly. I was alone and the explosion had knocked down all the ladders."

"I yelled for help, but got no response, so I figured I had better get out of the water as quickly as I could. I climbed to the ratings, but the water got there almost as soon as I did. I climbed to the top of the boilers. I expected them to let go any minute, so I tried to get down. The water was so deep, I didn't have a chance. I was trapped.

"Suddenly the ship rolled to her side and I saw a glimmer of light directly overhead. I realized I was beneath a ventilator and might have a chance to get away."

He tried to climb out but the only handhold was six feet above his head. "I thought my goose was cooked," he related. He decided to yell. He heard an answering voice. It was Paton's. "Paton threw a rope down the ventilator," Ross said, "but the ship was listing so much the rope swung away from me. Then he climbed down into the ventilator to direct the rope to me, but when I got it I was too weak to hold on. I found out after I was rescued that my hands were so badly burned I couldn't hold the rope."

"Paton climbed down, secured the rope around me, and he and the chief engineer pulled me out."

A LITTLE HEADWORK SAVES A LOT OF FOOTWORK... says Mrs. John Smith, housewife

MRS. S. I used to enjoy shopping. But not any more! The gas and time it takes—the shoe leather—and the trouble to get what you want.	MRS. S. Maybe we ought to try this Del Monte "Buy-for-a-Week" plan they're talking about here.	MRS. S. Take a look at this Del Monte Wartime Meal Planner. There's the government nutrition chart—here's a whole list of everyday foods to choose from. And here's a practical form for working out a whole week's menus.	MRS. J. I get it! And then you buy as much of what you need for a week as you can all at once. One trip to the store does most of the work.	MRS. S. That makes good sense during times like these.	GROCER. Good sense, all right! But it's more than that. The way things are going, this Del Monte "Buy-for-a-Week" plan is a life-saver for me. Helps me give a lot better service. I wish more women would try it.

FOR over a quarter of a century, our advertising has been telling housewives about Del Monte Products and Del Monte Quality.

We felt that this was the biggest service we, as a company, could give consumers—that the opportunity to buy a wide variety of fruits, vegetables, juices, dried fruits, coffee and other foods, all under one dependable label, meant greater satisfaction for all—with less guesswork, less waste, less lost time for everybody.

Today, you can't choose as freely as you have in the past. Many of these foods are going to the army and navy.

But we feel that Del Monte advertising can be of even greater service today—to you, to your grocer, to the whole country.

To win the war we must all work together. We must understand each other's problems. We must all cooperate intelligently.

Most grocers are doing their level best to serve you well under very difficult conditions. They are the same men who, after this war is over, will again want to give you the widest possible selection of Del Monte's many quality foods. Help them—and you help yourself.
