Program—The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will present a Christmas program Thursday, December 17, at 2:15 p. m., in the church parlors. Mrs. Fred Fletcher will be the devotional speaker. Mrs. Louis Reed will sing "O Holy Night." The missionary message will be presented in a play entitled, "Christmas Eve and the Bus Is Late." Those taking part are Mrs. James Sloat, Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mrs. E. J. Tillman, Mrs. R. J. Howard, Mary Jane Howard, and Mrs. H. S. Cunningham. Hostesses for the tea hour are Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Mrs. R. J. Howard, Mrs. B. A. Purcell, and Mrs. Paul Otterbein. Women of the church and friends are cordially invited.

Dedication — At the First Methodist church Sunday morning, the Rev. Victor Phillips will dedicate a number of copies of the book, "Strength For Service." This book has been specially compiled by an overseas chaplain for the use of our fighting men. After the dedication of these books next Sunday they will be sent to men in our armed services who have gone from the First Methodist church. A number of New Testaments have already gone to service men. More than 20 men from this church are now serving their country in the armed forces, Rev. Phillips stated.

Garden Group—All members of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club are asked to meet Friday at 10 o'clock in the library clubrooms to spend the day making table arrangements and wreaths for Camp White, Medford. A paper sack lunch will be served at 12 o'clock noon and work will continue throughout the day. Those having greens, including boughs, cones, berries or sprays, are asked to bring them to the workroom.

Expected Home — Lois Phillips, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church, is expected home this weekend for the Christmas holidays. She is a student at Willamette university in Salem.

False Alarm—Steam coming from the Elks club building at Third and Main streets caused a false alarm to be turned in to the city fire department at 2:50 p. m. Tuesday. This was the only call of the week, firemen stated.

Home From School—Gale and Dale Motley, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Motley of Arthur street, are among the University of Oregon students home for the holidays.

From School—Gordon Ledingham, first year student at the University of Oregon, is among the students home from Eugene. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Ledingham.

Initiation Coming—A class of candidates will be initiated by officers of the Elks lodge at the Thursday night meeting. A clam feed will follow the meeting.

Recovering—Mrs. Elsie Bodman of Mowich, Ore., is recovering from a recent illness.

Assisting—Mrs. Kenneth Clark is assisting in Moe's office.

Expected Here—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller of Portland are expected to arrive Saturday to spend Christmas week with Mrs. Keller's mother, Mrs. George Humphrey of Pine street, and Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller of Jefferson street. Keller expects a call for duty with the United States navy the first of the year. He is a member of the art staff of the Oregon Journal.

To Go South—A. J. Connolly, pioneer businessman of Klamath Falls when he operated the old Connolly Brothers Saddlery, 918 Main street, has spent some time in this city enjoying the hunting. He plans to leave in several days for Los Angeles to spend the remainder of the winter. While here Connolly has also supervised repairs to his property holdings here.

In Sacramento—Lt. Earl Humphrey, son of Mrs. George Humphrey of this city, is now stationed at Mather field in the signal corps offices, according to word received here. Mrs. Humphrey visited recently with her husband and returned Monday to Los Angeles. Both are well known here.

TWO LETTERS THAT STAND FOR QUALITY

IT IS IMPORTANT to select a toilet tissue that is thoroughly flaming. M-D does this because it absorbs quickly... soft, too, yet strong and safe to use. We suggest that for greater comfort and absorbency you ask your druggist or grocer for M-D at 3 rolls for 25 cents.

FOR REAL SECURITY a sanitary napkin must absorb quickly and surely without uncomfortable hardening. Scientifically designed for this very purpose, M-D Sanitary Napkins are just right. The tapered ends add both to convenience and invisibility. At druggists and grocers... 2 packages (24) for 39c.
