

GILMAN TO AID IN SETTING UP HIRING HALL

R. T. Gilman, manager of the Columbia River District council hiring hall in Portland, arrived in Klamath Falls Monday morning to aid Tim Sullivan, president of the Klamath Basin District council and C. R. Cooper, secretary, in setting up a union hiring hall system to follow through with the West Coast Lumber commission's directive order number 294, the IWA announced Wednesday.

This order decrees that the union furnish the employers with a list of names of local unemployed members, and that the employer must give preference to this list in the workers' classification as long as the man is capable of handling the job, the IWA statement said.

Explanation is planned "Union hiring is a large benefit both to employer and employee alike, as it gives a better understanding of each others' problems and leads to better cooperation and collective bargaining," the union statement reads.

"It is the intention of both Sullivan and Gilman to meet with as many employers and employees this week as possible and explain union hiring to them."

Square Deal
Gilman asserted that employers and government agencies are unanimous in support of union hiring in the Douglas fir area of the Columbia river.

"Union hiring is based on one thing, and that is to see that a square deal is given to every one. The men are placed on jobs according to seniority as to date of registration," said Gilman.

Gilman's headquarters while in town will be the Klamath Falls district council office and the Elk hotel.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By ANITA GWYN

Last Friday was double-bar cross day at KUHS and Christmas seals were on sale in the home rooms.

Mrs. Alice Howard, Girls' League advisor and dean of girls, reports that $40.16 worth were sold, approximately $6 over the quota.

The Girls' League annual Christmas assembly will be held Monday at 1:05. Although regular assemblies have been cut and are now rather few and far between, the girls will still get theirs. Every year this has been one of the activities looked forward to. Another annual event is a reading by Mrs. Lucille O'Neill. This year it will be a French tale as compared with a story of Russia last year.

Plans are being made for a pep assembly Friday afternoon at 3:30 in honor of the basketball game that night to be played by the Pelicans and the squad from Grants Pass. The game starts at 8 p. m.

"What Men Live By," a legend of old Russia by Leo Tolstol, will be presented in the Little Theatre off Mon Claire, December 18, 19 and 20 by the dramatic department, under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist. The cast includes the following students, many of whom have appeared in other productions: Bruce Wirth, Mary Jo Hallett, Bruce Davis, George Brown, Ray Schatz, Bernice Foster, Dolly Lee, Patricia Brown, Don Roper, Barbara Moore and Martin Butz.

The program were made by the art department under the supervision of Mrs. Brown. Music will be furnished by members of the A Capella chorus, which Mr. Charles Stanfield directs. Special mention goes to the following students for their work: Malcolm Epley Jr., scene design; Ray Schatz, stage work;

SUGAR STAMP TO BE VALID DEC. 16

Sugar stamp No. 10 becomes valid December 16, the Office of Price Administration announced today, and will be good for three pounds of sugar until January 31, 1943.

Sugar stamp No. 9, which was valid for three pounds during a similar period, expired at midnight December 15.

Industrial and institutional users of sugar may apply for their January and February allotments after December 15. These allotments remain unchanged. 70 per cent for industrial users, 60 per cent for institutional users, and 85 per cent for hospitals of the type which were entitled to receive this amount during the November-December period.

Persons who eat 14 or more meals a week at the same restaurant or boarding house must give their sugar and coffee ration book to the owner of the establishment.

The office of price administration issued this ruling today to clear up a conflict in its own regulations.

Formerly the deadline was 12 meals for sugar and 24 for coffee, but since both commodities are rationed with the same book, the rule had to be standardized.

"SUGAR LITTLE CHILDREN"
CHICAGO (AP)—Nine-year-old Phyllis Sondej has been ill since babyhood and must remain indoors constantly.

Asked by her mother what she wanted for Christmas, she replied:

"All I want for Christmas is a teacher. I'm nine years old and I've never been to school. I can't read or write and I do so want to learn."

The United Charities has appealed for a teacher who can spend some time at the Sondej home.

Barbara Shultz and Mary Landry, making of costumes and William Lofdahl, lighting. There are many other students who are helping to make this play a success. Everyone is invited to attend.

War bonds and stamps will be on sale in the main hall tomorrow.

HISTORY REPEATS

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Price ceilings are old stuff in Lancaster—in fact, 200 years old.

The Pennsylvania Historical commission says the king's colonial agent set top prices on everything that an early Indian trader here had in stock.

The purpose, the commission says, was to assure the Indians a square deal.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

RENO, Dec. 16 (AP)—Marriage licenses issued here Tuesday included: Roy Oster, 21, Westwood, Calif., and Vera Opal Nix, 18, Portland; N. H. Reagin, 58, and Lillian M. Jackson, 57, both Klamath Falls.
