WOULD YOU LIKE TO GIVE A COMFORT KIT TO ONE OF OUR BOYS GOING OVERSEAS?

Surely you would . . . and here's how you can do it . . . accomplish the very thing you've been wishing you could, make an American boy or so happy, better satisfied to be going overseas to fight for your freedom and mine.

The Klamath County Chapter of the American Red Cross has undertaken the task of providing 500 Military Comfort Kits for men in the Armed Forces of the United States.

You can make this possible by bringing in one or several articles needed to fill the bags with, or by bringing in contributions or mailing a check, so the Red Cross can do your shopping for you.

Every little bit helps. Everything you bring in and every contribution you make will be used to help fill the Comfort Kits. These Comfort Kits, which carry so much of comfort and pleasure to our boys, are the last pieces of equipment given to them before they embark for overseas duty. The bags are of khaki twill, 11x14 inches, with a drawstring at the top. They also serve the men in uniform as a place to put their personal possessions, their letters, their cherished photographs.

Comfort Kits contain the following articles (illustrated at the left) . . . deck of playing cards, bars of unscented soap, package of cigarettes or smoking tobacco, shoe polishing cloths, V-Mail or small writing pads and envelopes, chewing gum or life-savers, 40-inch khaki shoe laces, double-edge razor blades, pocket-size books (detective or humorous), small games, Red Cross sewing kit with regulation contents.

Cost of filling one Comfort Kit by the Red Cross is $1.50. Stop in on your lunch hour or next time you are downtown at the Red Cross Headquarters, 418 Main street. Hours 9 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. But DO IT NOW!
