

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

STEPHEN AND LINDA POPE

MRS. ORRIS WILSON WILLARD

—Kennell-Elis

Holiday Dancing Party on Saturday

Rotary Club Fetes Klamath Students Who Are Home for the Christmas Holidays

One of the gayest of the holiday affairs and one which was planned for the pleasure of the younger set, will be the dancing party given this evening, Saturday, in the Willard hotel by the members of the Rotary club.

The large ballroom has been made gay with greens and all the holiday trimmings, and invitations were in the mail early this week to students who have returned from school and those who remained at home during the past year.

At midnight a buffet supper will be served.

Invitations also were sent to service men who are visiting with their families in this city this holiday season. The affair ushered in the parties which will be given among the younger set and takes the place of the usual Christmas week luncheon given for the students.

Making plans for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bruce.

MRS. JONES HOSTESS TO SON'S FRIENDS

Mrs. Ray P. Jones entertained Friday evening at her home on Lincoln street honoring her son, Donald, and a group of friends who have gone through school. The boys are now enlisting in the service, Donald Jones having returned this week from Seattle where he enlisted in the United States coast guard. Donald's friends included Donald Smith, Cecil Drew, Melvin Miller, Keith McGilvary and Roy Eastburn.

DRESSINGS CLASSES TO CONTINUE

Surgical dressings classes will continue right straight through the holidays as dressings must be made, it was observed by Mrs. Ralph R. McCartney, project chairman.

Workers will not be asked to serve Christmas eve, but they will work the day before Christmas and the day after, continuing on through the year.

Amaranth Order Elects

Installation Scheduled For Middle of January

The Order of the Amaranth, Friendship court No. 11, met Wednesday of last week in the Masonic hall for a holiday party. A decorated Christmas tree centered the room and there was a gift exchange with donations given for soldiers who will visit the Commando headquarters during the Christmas season.

Officers were elected and Miss Isabelle Milne will serve as royal matron; Mr. Ed Jones, royal patron; Mrs. Jack Schulze, associate matron; Dr. D. D. Havens, associate patron; Mrs. Harvey D. Park, conductress; Mrs. C. S. Elliot, associate conductress; Mrs. George S. Stephenson, secretary; Mrs. Sam Gaster, treasurer and trustess, Dr. M. C. Cassel and Mrs. John Milne.

Miss Pearl Bodenhamer was initiated into the order.

Installation of officers will be held Saturday, January the twenty-third, to which the public is cordially invited. Grand Royal Matron Marion Shreve and Grand Secretary Frances Hurlbut of Portland will preside.

SWEETHEART CHOSEN BY DeMOLAY

Miss Joanne Hamilton has been chosen the Sweetheart of DeMolay and will rule over the DeMolay Snowball dance which will be given during the holiday season at the Willard hotel.

Others who will serve in the court over which Sweetheart Joanne will be queen are four attractive princesses, Roberta Tucker, Barbara Palmer, Christine Demetrakas and Wanda Shaw. The party is one of the holiday highlights for members of the younger set including students home from the colleges.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Coull and son, Tommy, of San Luis Obispo, California, are expected here this coming week to spend the holidays as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. William Serruys of the Merrill highway. The Coulls are former Klamath Falls residents.

The holiday season has brought all sorts of news of interest to Klamath people. Mrs. Willard is the former Ruth Elaine Hendricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Hendricks of this city, and a bride of December the eleventh in the McClellan Field chapel, Sacramento, California. The young couple has been greeted here this week by friends.

Christmas is a most important time for Stephen and Linda Pope, attractive young children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pope of Fort Klamath. They were snapped in their star-papered nursery by mother just this last week.

New Year's Eve Dance Scheduled

Reames Golf and Country Club to Observe Traditional Affair With Holiday Party

A gala affair of Thursday night, December the thirty-first, will be the annual New Year's eve dance to be sponsored by Reames Golf and Country club members at the clubhouse. Dancing will start at 10 o'clock and the traditional favors will prevail as near as war time purchasing will permit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter head the committee making plans for the dance and they will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford and Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg.

Members may bring their houseguests and are permitted to invite friends to the New Year's eve party.

A buffet supper will be served at midnight, it was announced. A number of informal cocktail parties are planned prior to the dance which is the club's largest party of the year.

DINNER GIVEN SUNDAY NIGHT AT PELICAN

A no-hostess dinner was enjoyed by a group which has met for several years, the affair given Sunday evening in the Pelican party room also honoring the birthday anniversary of Miss Nora Rinker.

Attending the party were Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. George Burger, Mrs. Frederick W. Hyde, Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. William Serruys, Mrs. Lucile Warner, Mrs. Avis McConnell, Mrs. Rose M. Poole and Miss Rinker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller, (Frances Humphrey), are spending Christmas in Klamath Falls with their parents, Mrs. George Humphrey of Pine street and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller of Jefferson. They reside in Portland.

Greens Sent To Medford

Holiday Decorations To Brighten Camp White as Club Gifts

Members of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club spent a busy day Friday in the main auditorium of the city library, making wreaths, swags, arrangements and table decorations which will be sent this weekend for the holiday pleasure of soldiers stationed at Camp White, Medford.

The women gathered juniper, cedar, pine needles and all sorts and sizes of pine cones, holly, Oregon grape, fir boughs and other greens and by noon had completed more than fifty of the arrangements with a full afternoon's work ahead of them. Some of the cones were dipped and shone with crystals for tables and trays and were attractive mementoes of the mountain country.

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb was in charge of the workers, assisted by Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote.

At noon there was a paper sack luncheon.

MOTHERS CLUB OF ACADEMY PLANS PROGRAM

The annual Christmas meeting and program will be observed by members of the Mothers club of Sacred Heart academy, on Sunday, December twentieth, at half past one o'clock in the school auditorium. All members of the club, mothers of students, and friends, are invited.

During the afternoon there will be the traditional Christmas shower for the sisters of the academy, it was announced.

Mrs. Prentice Yeomans, who has visited here the past several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Rose M. Poole of Conger avenue, has left for Richmond, Virginia, to spend the holidays with her husband, Colonel Yeomans. She will return here after the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon and young son, Michael, who have resided at Tulalake for the past four years, have moved to Klamath Falls and purchased a home on Lowell street. Mrs. Dixon is a daughter of Mrs. Willard Peyton of 944 Eldorado street.

Ruth Hendricks Is Bride in Ceremony

Attractive Klamath Maid Weds Orris Wilson in Rites Read at McClellan Field Chapel

An attractive bride of the holidays was Ruth Elaine Hendricks who became Mrs. Orris Wilson Willard in a ceremony read Friday, December the eleventh, in the chapel at McClellan field, Sacramento. Mrs. Willard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendricks of this city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett M. Willard, well known residents of Albany, Oregon.

The ceremony was read by Captain Myron H. Willard, chaplain at McClellan field and brother of the groom, before an altar banked with red and white carnations.

AAUW Has Holiday Meet

Klamath Chapter Enjoys Dinner Party in Pelican Room

The annual holiday dinner party enjoyed by Klamath chapter of the American Association of University Women, was given Friday evening in the Pelican party room with Miss Katherine Walton in charge of arrangements.

The room was gay with many tall red candles and arrangements of pine needles, greens and holly. Bright Christmas tree ornaments filled silver bowls as table decorations.

Miss Walton made a jolly Santa Claus and she distributed gifts among the members. There was a quiz program, the singing of Christmas carols and a group of songs by Mrs. George Hillis and Mrs. Violet Moore.

Forty members and guests attended the affair. Mrs. Dean Miller, president of the Klamath chapter, presided at dinner.

TRADITIONAL HOLIDAY PARTY GIVEN

Mrs. George Myers entertained at her home on Pacific Terrace for members of two bridge clubs who gather each holiday season for an evening of cards and the traditional Christmas tree and gift exchange. Three tables were in play.

Guests included Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Claude H. Davis, Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble, Mrs. Joseph Peak, Mrs. Jacques J. Stelger, and Mrs. Lester Offield.

The bride, given in marriage by Lieutenant Robert A. Thompson of Klamath Falls, wore a white flannel frock with a shirtwaist blouse, scarlet buttons on the large patch pockets, and a scarlet belt accented by the red roses in her corsage, a matching scarlet cap and slippers, both with nail head trim. White gloves and a red bag completed her costume. For "something borrowed, something blue," the bride wore her father's Masonic emblem.

Mrs. Myron H. Willard attended the bride. She wore a water blue sheer wool frock with a long torso bodice and full pleated skirt. Mr. James Moore of McClellan field was the best man.

The service was read at half past five o'clock in the evening and later there was an informal supper for members of the party.

Mrs. Willard is a popular member of the younger set, attended Oregon State college for two years where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority. She was a member of Talons, sophomore women's service honorary, Alpha Lambda Delta, sophomore women's scholastic honorary, served as house registrar, and on the Co-Ed Hour council at OSC. The groom is a graduate of Albany high school, attended Oregon State and is a member of Chi Phi fraternity. He served as football manager of the Rose bowl team in 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard are now at home in the Roosevelt apartments and Mr. Willard is awaiting his call to serve with the SEABEES, United States navy construction battalion, in which he enlisted as electrician's mate, third class.

Mrs. J. C. Lemire will leave Thursday of next week for Medford to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Flick of the valley city.