Afterwards a short program was held and four members talked on the various aspects of the Christmas celebration. Mrs. W. D. Miller, acting as toastmistress of the evening, welcomed the guests and introduced the speakers.

ANW Club Has Party

Oldest Social Group In City Gathers Around Tree

By Mrs. Wilbur Jones

Mrs. J. F. Goeller was hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club Wednesday afternoon at her lovely old pioneer home on South Riverside. A warm, cheery fire in the fireplace, and a decorated Christmas tree in one corner of the large living room, created an atmosphere appropriate to the season, while the guests stitched, knitted or just chatted.

The hostess announced that the day was the 169th anniversary of the Boston Tea Party, and asked Mrs. Wilbur Jones to read a story about this historical happening. The day was also the forty-second anniversary of the marriage of Mrs. Lyle O. Mills, an active member of the club, and Mrs. Mills had written a poem dedicated to her husband, in commemoration of their years together. This poem was read and is here reproduced:

"The scent of Juniper trees on the air
Brings back the past so clear
When life was but a happy dream
And we were young, my dear.

Time has changed my face and form
But still my heart is young
Tonight as I stand by the Juniper trees
And wait for you to come.

I love you just the same, old boy,
As I did long years ago,
Although your step is not so quick

And my temples are touched with snow.
But hand in hand we'll wait our time
And bear our troubles together

Like the Juniper trees in the foothills
Through fair and stormy weather."

Refreshments were served at four o'clock, the hostess being assisted by her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Fred Goeller and Mrs. Harry Goeller. Little Miss Sue Goeller, three years old, and granddaughter of the hostess, was a special guest.

On Wednesday afternoon, January the sixth, Mrs. J. J. Parker will entertain the club at her home on Lincoln street.

FRIENDS LEARN OF PASSING OF MRS. GILLARD

Many friends here were grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. George Gillard at Whitefish, Montana on December the eleventh. While residing here Mrs. Gillard was active in the First Presbyterian church and the Bethany circle, and in the Order of Eastern Star, having been a past matron from Whitefish.

After leaving here, the Gillards visited a daughter in Seattle, Mrs. Harry Rush, and were at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Willard Reeves of Whitefish, when Mrs. Gillard became ill the day after arriving there. A son, Mr. William Dewing, resides in Klamath Falls.

HOLIDAY PARTY ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The annual Christmas party given by the women employees of the California Oregon Power company was enjoyed this year when Mrs. Ladd Hoyt, Mrs. Esther Noel and Miss Helen Czmowski entertained the group on Friday evening of last week. There was the traditional tree and gift exchange and a shower for three brides, Mrs. Orville Dalton, the former Geraldine Manning, Mrs. Lloyd Froom, who was Margaret West, and Mrs. James Dratz, formerly Hazel Herrell.

Present were the three honor guests, Mrs. C. Jester, Mrs. Catherine Keep, Mrs. Robert English, Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. Grace Wells, Mrs. Don Newson, Mrs. Dwayne McDonald, Mrs. David Shirk, Miss Violet Chinn, Miss Julia Deneault and the hostesses.

SEAL SALE ASSISTED BY CLUB MEMBERS

In behalf of the Christmas Seal sale the members of the Klamath Falls Toastmistress club have presented talks over the radio and before service clubs during the past month. The talks first assigned to be prepared for a club meeting and later used in these outside performances have given the members some worthwhile experiences.

A skit given over the local radio station on November the nineteenth was prepared by Mrs. D. O. Miller. It depicted a tubercular patient being interviewed by a public health nurse before leaving for a sanatorium. Later the patient has returned cured and a friendly neighbor listens to her experiences. Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Keith Rice and Mrs. Colman O'Loughlin took part.

On November the twenty-third, Mrs. Colman O'Loughlin presented a short talk over KFJL. Mrs. O'Loughlin pointed out that the anti-tuberculosis campaign is essentially a defense measure.

On November the twenty-fourth Mrs. Paul K. Buck told about the anti-tuberculosis program in Klamath county and the uses to which the money obtained from the sale are put. Mrs. Buck also appeared before the Lions club at their regular meeting.

Mrs. Rice spoke over the radio and gave an interesting description of the seal itself. She related some incidents showing how the seals protect the American home.
