To Go East—Mrs. Charles Ollmann, principal of Fairview school, plans to leave Wednesday evening for Canton, S. D., where she will visit briefly with her mother, Mrs. J. G. Laxson, before going to New York where she will be joined by her husband who will receive a five-day furlough from his work with the SEABEES at Davisville, R. I. Mrs. Ollmann also plans to visit with a brother, Dr. Gerald Laxson who is stationed with the US Veterans' hospital in Lyons, N. J. Mrs. Ollmann will return shortly after the first of the year.

Improving—Mrs. Frank Eberlein, 2959 Summers lane, who underwent a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital last week, is reported much improved by Klamath relatives. She may receive visitors, it was learned. Mrs. Walter Zetzman has returned from Portland where she has been with her daughter during her illness.

Program—A pageant, "When the Light Shone," will be presented by the young people of the Klamath Temple, 1007 Pine street, Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. There will be special singing by the choir. The public is cordially invited to attend by the Rev. Daniel B. Anderson, pastor.

Receives Call—Oris W. Willard has just received word to report for duty with the SEABEES as electrician's mate, third class. Mrs. Willard is the former Ruth Hendricks and their marriage took place December 11 at McClellan field, Sacramento.

From Lakeview—Carl Pendleton, Lake county clerk, visited in Klamath Falls Monday from his home in Lakeview.

Church Page—All contributions to the church page should be in the hands of the church editor not later than Wednesday at 2 p. m. The usual church page published on Friday will be issued on Thursday this week due to the Christmas holiday. There will be no issue of The Herald and News on Christmas day.
