Children Present Impressive Candlelight Service Tuesday

An impressive service was presented by candlelight by the children of the Community Congregational church, of which the Rev. Eugene Haynes is pastor, in the church on Tuesday evening. The following is the impression derived by one of the audience who deeply appreciated the efforts of Miss Eckstein and Mrs. Elliott in giving to the public such a service.

"As God loved children, so did the many-gathered listeners at the Community Congregational church Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

"The dimly lighted church, decorated with Christmas greens, with twenty beautiful, small voices, softly filling the air, hearts almost stood still at the beauty and I know every listener was very close to God at that time through these children."

The choir was made up entirely of second and third graders dressed in their black and white choir robes. With hands folded, these little boys and girls sang their beautiful Christmas carols in perfect tone.

A great deal of work and practice was required to get the choir together and credit goes to Mary Eckstein and Mrs. R. E. Elliott and to the following children, James Erdmann, Donald Day, Sue Ann Sessler, Betty Jean Haynes, Darlene Woods, Sharon Glenger, Betty Lou Shaw, Donald Colson, Sally Searcy, Claudette Oaks, Arlene Kielsmeier, Marilyn Hardin, Janice Pex, Anita Pence, Nancy Ellott, Imogene Shaw, Gloria Jackson, Monte Johnson, Clara Ann Shaw and Bobby Stivers.
