STEWART

AMONG THE ROTARY members at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones who are receiving best wishes from their friends following their recent marriage in Nevada.

HOME ON LEAVE and home for the holidays, these two chatting at the Rotary party. Miss Winifred Lamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm of Modoc Point, and Hugo Mertz of the United States navy, who spent the early holidays with friends and relatives.

STUDENTS HOME from school enjoyed the Rotary holiday dancing party given at the Willard hotel last Saturday evening, and of course the bountiful buffet supper which followed. Among the couples at the party were Miss Peggy Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keating, and Gordon Ledingham, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Ledingham. Both are home from the University of Oregon.

Happy New Year

When the bells ring out at midnight next Thursday, ushering in the early hours of 1943, we hope it is a year of happiness for those that witnessed the bell ringing and whistle blowing of 1942 with misgivings. Throughout the land Americans are wishing each other a Happy New Year with a fervor unsurpassed—since those other days of 1917 and 1918.

If any resolutions are to be made by us Average Americans, they will probably be on the knuckling down order. Knuckling down to do more war work, stretch our hours so that more good can be crowded into them, plan the housework so that there is more time to know the neighbors, knit a few more stitches for the Red Cross, write a few more letters to men in service, fold a few more dressings at the surgical dressings project. If ever in all this world there was need to be tolerant, to give more and share more of what we have, be it that faculty of spreading sympathy and cheer or what goes into our bank account, it is this coming year of 1943.

Knuckle down! Another year is around the corner. A year where you will find a place in the scheme of things to be useful.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

FIRST PARTY DRESS

Thank goodness for the very young moppets who are having the thrill that comes once in a life time, the joy of their first formal! Left to right, Joan O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Neill of Mon Claire street. Next, Sally Mueller, daughter of Mrs. Helen Mueller, 219 North Ninth street; Betty Westlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Westlin of Mon Claire street, and Barbara Roskamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roskamp, LeRoy street.
