

Installation Takes Place at OES Meet

Masonic Temple Scene of Ceremony Tuesday Evening Followed by Tributes

Mrs. Clarence A. Humble will preside over the destiny of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, for the year 1943, having been duly installed as worthy matron, Tuesday evening. Serving with Mrs. Humble for the coming chapter year will be Mr. Lawrence K. Phelps, worthy patron; Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, associate matron; Mr. Earl Templar, associate patron; Mrs. Ed Markham, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Oldham, conductress; Mrs. Will Wood, associate conductress. The above are the elective officers.

The officers appointed by Mrs. Humble include, Mrs. Ted Huey, Adah; Mrs. James Rackeror, Ruth; Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Esther; Mrs. James H. Hunter, Martha; Mrs. Herman Glavold, Electa; Mrs. Glenn Kent, marshal; Mrs. Fred Heilbrunner, chaplain; Mrs. George Hillis, organist; Mrs. Fred Cofer, warder; Mr. Arthur R. Dickson, sentinel.

Past matrons of the Eastern Star who conducted the installation ceremonies were: Mrs. George Casper, worthy matron; Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, secretary; Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, chaplain; Mrs. Earl Templar, marshal; Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, organist.

The chapter room was simply but effectively decorated with a festoon of evergreens outlining the rostrum in the east, where a background of light green studded with gold colored stars made this recessed alcove lovely to see. The windows carried the same decorative scheme.

The five star points were dressed in light blue gowns, each one wearing a wrist bouquet to which was attached a flowing veil, in the color appropriate to the star point represented.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, worthy matron, presided during the regular session which preceded the installation ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels became members by affiliation. Degrees of the order were conferred upon Miss Pearl Bodenhamer and Mrs. F. W. Peak.

Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, chapter chairman of Red Cross activities, read her final report for the year, showing that members of Aloha chapter have given $626 hours to war service during the past year. Mrs. Wattenburg was highly commended for her excellent report. Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Wattenburg were escorted to the east and presented with gifts in appreciation of their services. Mrs. Leroy Erdmann and Mrs. W. C. McArthur were also escorted to the east and presented with gifts by Mrs. Martin in appreciation of their services. Mrs. McArthur left Wednesday morning for Vancouver to join her husband who is employed in defense industries.

The past matron's jewel, the gift of the chapter, was presented to Mrs. Martin during a floral degree conferred upon her by Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. Markham, Mrs. Oscar Smith, Mrs. McArthur, Miss Isabelle Milne, and Miss May Phinney, who each, with an appropriate sentiment, gave to Mrs. Martin a bouquet of purple violets.

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, president of Aloha Past Matron club, presented a gift in behalf of the club and invited Mrs. Martin to become a member of the Past Matron club. Mr. Leroy Erdmann, worthy patron for the past year, presented to Mrs. Martin, a scroll carrying a tribute, beautifully done in old English lettering. This tribute follows:

To Whom It May Concern: Be it known that Charlotte Martin has served Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, as worthy matron, during the year 1942. A. D. She has been faithful to the demands of honor and justice, exhibiting the fidelity of Adah, the patience and devotion of Ruth, the queenly courage of Esther, the trustful faith of Martha, the undying love of Electa, and above all, has sought after truth. She has been a considerate leader under whose gracious guidance it has been a pleasure to serve. She is now recommended to the kind care, love and devotion of all members of the Order.

Signed, L. L. Erdmann, W. P. Mrs. A. P. Epperson presented gifts from a few close friends to Mrs. Martin. Mr. Phelps presented to Mr. Erdmann, in behalf of the chapter, the past patron's jewel. Mrs. Casper received roses from Mrs. Humble. Mr. Dickson, in behalf of Klamath lodge A. F. and A. M., gave to Mrs. Humble a basket of lovely red roses. Mrs. Humble also received other gifts from friends.

Musical numbers heard during the evening included "Only a Rose," by King, sung by Mrs. George Hillis; "In the Luxembourg Gardens," by

CIRCLE NAMES NEW OFFICERS

On Friday, December the eighteenth, the Senior Circle of the Congregational church met in the social hall on Garden avenue for their annual Christmas party and installation of officers for 1943. Luncheon was served at half past one o'clock by the hostesses, Mrs. L. E. Henry and Mrs. H. S. Stone.

Following the luncheon there was a reading by Mary Eckstein and the group, with Mrs. H. S. Stone at the piano, joined in singing Christmas carols. A short business meeting followed, and Rev. Eugene Haynes conducted a beautiful candle-lighting installation ceremony. Each year the design formed by the lighted candles is different, this year they formed the Greek letter "phi," representing faith, just as the red candles rather than the white ones of other years represented courage.

Mrs. L. R. Harvey will serve as president for another year, and Mrs. William Larson was elected secretary and treasurer, while Mary Eckstein will serve as vice-president in place of Mrs. Glenn Stivers.

The afternoon ended with the Christmas gift exchange, also an annual event. Present during the afternoon were Mrs. Glen Stivers, Mrs. L. E. Henry, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. J. C. Marin, Mrs. S. H. Goddard, Mrs. H. C. Brown, Mrs. Lee Kennedy and her guest, Mrs. R. M. Lewis of San Francisco; Mrs. H. O. Lohr, Mrs. A. A. Myers, Mrs. Lee Sutton, Mrs. L. R. Harvey, Mrs. H. J.
