Soroptomists Thank Donors of Packages For Men in Service

Sincere appreciation to clubs and individuals who prepared Christmas boxes for men in service, was expressed Monday by Mrs. H. W. Bathiany, in charge of the project sponsored by the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club.

Mrs. Bathiany reported there were sufficient packages to issue to each visiting service man with more than 300 going out from under the Commando tree, a large box of gifts sent to Camp White, Medford, and a package for each man in service of the military police at Newell.

The majority of fall hats are felt—just like the cost of them.

Markets and Financial

STATE INCOME HELD DOUBLED DURING 1942

PORTLAND, Dec. 28 (AP)—The war boom in Oregon lifted the state's income to a new high this year.

A year-end survey showed payrolls nearly doubled, farm products increased 30 per cent in value and private businesses gained from 25 to 500 per cent in trade.

The state industrial accident commission said November was typical, the payroll being $40,122,851 compared to $21,234,786 in the same month in 1941. Portland payrolls accounted for most of this gain, increasing from $9,741,488 to $27,006,545.

N. I. Nielsen, federal agriculture statistician, said field, truck and fruit crops increased 20 per cent in quantity and higher prices lifted the total value to a 30 per cent increase over last year.

Freight Increases

The merchants' exchange said Oregon exports were up 500 per cent from recent years.

Railroad lines reported more than 100 per cent increase in passenger traffic and from 40 to 50 per cent increase in freight.

A Dun and Bradstreet survey placed the increase for major department stores at 50 per cent. Some specialty stores did better. Retail business as a whole, despite declines in autmobile, refrigerator and other lines, was 25 to 50 per cent greater.

With a few days to go, Portland bank clearings reached an all-time high of $3,248,513,562 (B) compared to $2,508,723,490 (B) last year.

Red Cross Notes

By ROSE POOLE

Since January 1, 1942, Klamath county chapter of the American Red Cross has made and shipped the following articles:

Navy turtleneck sweaters, 54; sleeveless sweaters, 18; mufflers, 21; helmets, 17; socks, 120 pairs.

Army sweaters, 299; cap mufflers, 47; mufflers, 218; helmets, 420; gloves, 14 pairs; wristlets, 314 pairs.

Beanies, 27; hot water bag covers, 19; and lap robes, 11.

These articles have been shipped to the navy supply depot at Oakland, Calif.; Geiger field at Spokane, Wash.; Los Angeles area at Los Angeles; Fort Lewis, Wash.; 11th naval district, San Diego, Calif.; Vancouver Barracks, Vancouver, Wash.; Hammer field, Fresno, Calif.; Pacific area, San Francisco, Calif.; Ogden warehouse, Ogden, U.; Army Air Force hospital, Command Kearns, U.; Veterans Administration building, Seattle, Wash.; and military police at Tulelake, Calif.

We now have on hand 200 pounds of O. D. army yarn, ready to be knitted. This is to be made into 112 sleeveless sweaters, 32 turtle neck sweaters, 32 pairs of gloves, 40 helmets, 40 mufflers, 24 pairs of wristlets. After the Christmas activities are over, we would like to have every knitter who has helped in knitting these garments previously come in and get yarn to make these articles for the armed forces. The need is great as the stocks are again depleted.

Mrs. Fred Goeller of South Riverside street has just read us part of a letter from her brother, Sgt. Alfred M. Carlson. The letter was written November 30 and Sergeant Carlson was then in England. He says, "All of us received a present from the American Red Cross which was meant for an early Christmas gift, I believe. It was a bag that had in it a soap box, soap, paper and envelopes, deck of cards, sewing kit, shoe laces, book, etc. It was sure nice and they were all things that we could use." This was one of our comfort kits which we have been telling you about, and each man going overseas receives one of these. By the way, Sgt. Carlson was serving with a tank battalion when the letter was written and is probably now on one of our battle fronts.

When next you are down town, please see our Red Cross window at the headquarters, 418 Main street. It was installed and decorated by Mrs. A. L. Barker and embodies the true spirit of the Red Cross and its work.

Those who persist in holding to such old shibboleths as "the white man's burden" and talk blithely of reverting after the war to the obsolete levels of an imperialistic status quo either do not know the score or stubbornly ignore it. — Wendell Willkie.

In some cases the old villager who speaks of the younger generation is right.

CASHING TURNS MARKET PRICES TO LOW LEVEL

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—The stock market got off to a fairly good start today but profit cashing on the recent advance to the highest levels since October, 1941, turned prices generally lower in the latter part of the proceedings.

Belated tax offerings, particularly in low-quoted issues, came out in sizable blocks and helped lift volume to around 1,200,000 shares, one of the largest of the year to date.

Peace-rated stocks, apparently buoyed by the continuance of good war news, again were among the early risers although some of these faded after midday.

Stocks touching best marks for 1942 before meeting opposition included General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Firestone Tire, Deere, Oliver Farm, Dome Mines and Texas Co.

WHEAT

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 — Wheat prices rose to the highest quotations since 1937 today while corn, rye and oats reached top levels for the past several months in a general grain market advance that amounted to a cent or more a bushel in some cases before late profit taking whittled down the gains.

Buying by industry and professional traders, including mills, was inspired largely by indications that rationing of certain other foods may sharpen demand for cereals, of which there is a plentiful supply. Demand for livestock feed and for grains in the manufacture of alcohol and other commodities needed in the war also stimulated buying. Wheat traders expected higher flour price ceilings to be announced soon.

Selling just before the close, part of which was hedging against increased receipts at many terminals, lowered wheat prices sharply from the day's highs. Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛c higher compared with Saturday's finish, May $1.36¼-⅜, July $1.36¼.

Corn finished ⅜-½c higher, May 94⅜-½c, July 95½c; oats ⅛-¼c up; soybeans ⅛c higher; rye ⅜-½c.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Dec. 28 (AP) (U. S. Dept. Agr.)—The Boston wool market was generally quiet today. A few small sales of foreign wools were made for use in civilian orders. A total of about 15,000 bales of Australian wool will be sold at public auction on Tuesday, January 5. Inquiries were made on domestic wools suitable for use on knitted twenty-ounce cloth on which bids are to be opened December 31.

When gossips get hold of an idle rumor, it isn't!
