Parties Highlight New Year's Eve

Many Attend Dances Given Thursday With Cocktail Parties Earlier in the Evening

Klamath folks saw the Old Year out and the New Year in at midnight Thursday as they danced or sang to the familiar strains of "Auld Lang Syne," in many homes and at several of the year's largest parties. Toasts were drunk and Tom n' Jerry cups clicked as best wishes were passed between friends and hopes for a better New Year raised.

Cocktail parties preceded both the Reames Golf and Country club and the Elks club dances which brought out best bib and tuckers and black ties.

One of the largest parties was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney at their home on LeRoy street when they asked friends in before the Reames party. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Coppage, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. James Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Orr, Captain and Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. LeMire, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell A. Smith, Miss Dorothy O'Sullivan, Mr. John Merryman, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Durment, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bally, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drew, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott, Miss Rose Macartney and Mr. Tony Hyde, Miss Mary Jane Jenkins, Mrs. Fred Burgoyne and Mr. Harry Welmar. Of this group various couples gathered for dinner earlier in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker entertained a small group of friends at their home on Pacific Terrace with cocktails just before the Reames dancing party.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Miller asked a group in before the Reames party including Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. William Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock and John Merryman. Hosts at a cocktail party for about thirty guests, some of whom went on dancing at various parties, were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller at their home on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville entertained at one of the many parties before the Elks dance at the Elks temple. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cotter, Miss Alice Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Justin McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wells, Miss Mary Bellotti, Mrs. Robert E. Hillman and Bill Martin.

A gay potluck supper was that arranged by Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson for their daughter, Mary Lou, at the family home on Pacific Terrace. Later the guests went dancing at Reames. Guests included Ann Mueller, Wanda Shaw, Merlon Albrecht, Dorothea Ellingson, Frank Ganong, Bill Constans, Ben Hastings, Jimmy Shaw and Keith Howell.

DAR MEET SLATED FOR MONDAY NIGHT

Open House Nets Nice Benefit Fund

Visitors at Mrs. Clara Shaw's New Year's Party Contribute to Red Cross

To scores of Klamath people the New Year just doesn't start right unless they attend Mrs. Clara Shaw's annual New Year's day open house at her residence on Homedale road. The party was equally successful when many called between two and seven o'clock Friday afternoon and evening.

Because this is war time, Mrs. Shaw sponsored a Red Cross benefit and during the open house hours exactly $162.25 was dropped into a bowl near the door, the money to be turned over this weekend to the Klamath county chapter, American Red Cross.

Assisting Mrs. Shaw during the day were Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. Clyde Baker, Mrs. George Burger, Mrs. Carl Farrell and Miss Mary Alice Seruys.

A number of out-of-town visitors, here for the weekend, were among Mrs. Shaw's guests and enjoyed greeting old friends for the first time in a year. Mrs. George Hillis and Mrs. Harvey Moore entertained by singing during the afternoon.

NILE CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY AT PARTY ROOM

Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Laura F. Willits and Mrs. Leo N. Huls will act as hostesses at the first meeting of the new year for the Klamath Falls Nile club to be held at the Pelican party room on Tuesday afternoon, January the fifth, when luncheon will be served at twelve o'clock.

Following a short business meeting, in charge of the president, Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, members will adjourn to the Red Cross rooms to make surgical dressings.

Holiday greetings were received here from Mrs. Arthur Gustafson and daughter, Sonya, who are in Milton, Oregon, "Snowy" is overwise but joined in best wishes to friends here.

MOTHERS TO EMBARK ON PROJECT

War time is making many changes in club programs and this year the University of Oregon Mothers will devote their meeting hours to surgical dressings at Red Cross headquarters. Members are asked to meet at nine o'clock Monday morning, January the fourth, in the dressings project room in the basement of 418 Main street.

Later the members will have dessert at the Pelican cafe. Hostesses are Mrs. Willard Peyton and Mrs. Louis R. Mann. All mothers of Oregon students are asked to take part.

COCKTAIL PARTY ON NEW YEAR'S

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCollum were hosts at their home at 1139 Crescent avenue, with a cocktail party and supper for a group of 20-30 club members and their wives during the holidays.

Those at the McCollum home included Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, Mr. and Mrs. John Sandmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Redmond Coghland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finch, Mr. and Mrs. George Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patty, Mrs. Fred Konschot and Elmer Johnson.

Afternoon book section of AAUW will meet Tuesday, January the fifth, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Jenkins. Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen will review "The Valley of Decision," by Marcella Davenport.
