MARKET ENTERS NEW YEAR WITH SLACK DEMAND

By VICTOR EUBANK NEW YORK, Jan. 2 (AP)—The stock market today stepped into 1943 with a fair amount of confidence but with an appreciable slackening of buying demand.

Many brokers and customers elected to extend the Friday holiday to Monday and boardrooms were sparsely populated. Those who appeared for the two-hour proceedings, however, seemed moderately bullish, especially regarding the further good war news.

While profit taking on the recent rally was in evidence at the start, assorted favorites managed to tack on minor fractions which the majority retained at the close. There were a few wider spreads. A smattering of losers also were seen.

Bonds and commodities held to a fairly steady course. Wall street was considerably encouraged by the price performance given by the share division in 1942 but scant comfort was found in the record of activity. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks finished 1942 at 37.1 and emerged from last year at 41.6, a new top for more than 14 months. Dealings for 1942 amounted to 125,685,298 shares, lowest since 1914 when the figure was 47,431,000, and compared with 170,803,671 in 1941. The historical high was established in 1929 with a total turnover of 1,124,800,410.

Twenty-Five Years Ago As Now, War Ruled World; January 2, 1918, Quiet

By The Associated Press A quarter of a century ago, as now, most of the world was embroiled in war.

But the birth of the new year, 1918, marked the last year of the first World war, which had dragged along wearily for three years, five months and three days.

The United States had then been a participant for eight months and 24 days, as compared with one year and 23 days in the present conflict.

The summer and autumn of 1918 were to witness great victories for the allies, the collapse of Germany and the armistice of November 11.

There were no indications of those epochal events in the comparative quiet on the European battle fronts as 1918 came into being. New Year's day was uneventful.

On January 2 the lull continued. There were minor engagements on the western front in the Cambrai sector between the British and Germans; Italian armies scattered a flotilla loaded with Austrian troops on the Piave river; the British were advancing toward Jerusalem; bolshevist Russia and Germany were discussing terms for a separate peace; the American expeditionary forces were engaged in no outstanding activities.

Here in the United States the shortage of coal was causing concern and part of the White House had been closed to conserve fuel. Intensive efforts were being made to double the size of the American armies in France.

Oregon News Notes

By The Associated Press Oregon exceeded its $100,000,000 1942 goal in the war bond campaign by $500,000, the state war bond staff reported in Portland Saturday.

Portland recorded its lowest number of traffic fatalities in a decade last year—a total of 56, six less than in 1941.

The Portland weather bureau said rainfall totaled 47.54 inches, 5.92 above normal, in 1942, and the average temperature was 54.8 degrees, 1.7 above normal.

Albert E. Bush, 48, Portland, struck by an automobile Tuesday, died in Portland.

Oregonians accepted for cadet training at Randolph Field, Tex., include Edwin Maerz, route 3, Salem; Maurice L. Strait, Newberg; John W. Nash, and John F. Parisotto, Klamath Falls. Mrs. Mathew D. Coy, about 45, wife of Marshall's chief of police, died of burns suffered Thursday when her clothes
