

Herald and News Society

By Lois Stewart

Stanfields Leave To Live in East

Several Informal Affairs Given Prior to Departure on Saturday Morning

Friends regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanfield and their three sons, Dick, Bob and Jim, who left Saturday morning to make their home in Dyersburg, Tennessee, after a residence here of the past five years. En route east the Stanfields will visit with friends and relatives in their former home, Durango, Colorado.

Several informal affairs were given for the Stanfields prior to their departure. On Thursday evening Mrs. Dean Osborne entertained at her home on Lawrence street at a half past seven o'clock dinner followed by bridge. High score was held by Mrs. William Van Buskirk. A handkerchief shower was also given for Mrs. Stanfield and guests included Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mrs. James M. Hilton, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Louis R. Mann, Mrs. Nell F. Black, Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mrs. Joseph W. Peak, Mrs. F. W. Peak, and Mrs. William Van Buskirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Buskirk entertained at dinner for the Stanfields on Wednesday evening and other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Doren and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Esche-

Luncheon Wednesday

Mrs. Coull Honor Guest at Party in Pelican Room

Mrs. Samuel J. Coull of San Luis Obispo, visiting here for several weeks as the houseguest of Mrs. William Serruys, was complimented at a prettily appointed one o'clock luncheon given in the Pelican party room by Mrs. George Burger on Wednesday afternoon.

The one long table was centered with bowls of narcissi and daffodils.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Coull, Mrs. Charlie Read, Mrs. Guy Hancock, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mrs. Clara Shaw, Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. E. Dietsche, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mrs. Paul J. Dalton, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Robert Burleigh, Mrs. William Serruys and Miss Nora Rinker and the hostess, Mrs. Burger.

A number of informal affairs have been given for Mrs. Coull during her stay. She is a former resident of this city.

Mrs. Van Vector In Salt Lake City

Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vector and son, Robert, are in Salt Lake City, Utah, where they joined Captain Van Vector over the holidays. Mr. Van Vector is stationed there at the army base. Mrs. Van Vector and her son are at the Temple Square hotel and hope soon to find a suitable home.

NEWCOMERS—Greeted here as comparative newcomers to Klamath Falls is the H. M. Shapleigh family now occupying the Howard Perrin home on Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Shapleigh and her two daughters, Nancy, nine, (left), and Della Lou, twelve.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT ELLIOT'S

Emilie Elliot observed her eighth birthday anniversary at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliot of Washington street, when a group of second graders from Riverside and several others shared her cake. John Elliot arranged games for the afternoon.

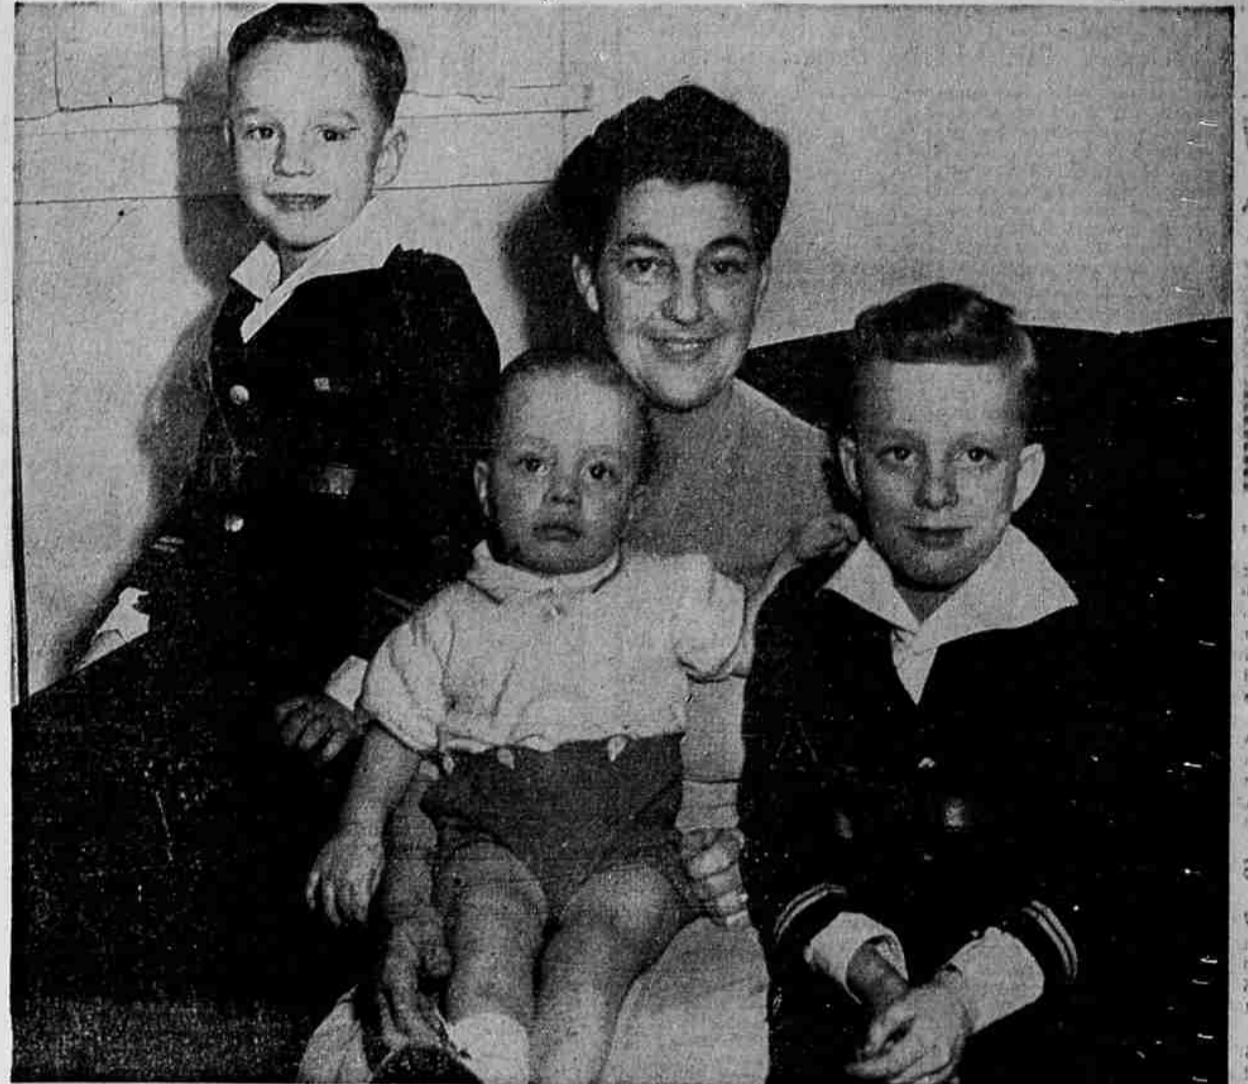

Guests included David French, Boyd Sprague, Janice Larson, Shirley Faus, Elsie Nitschelm, Robert Boivin, Patricia Isensee and Gary Glascoe.

Plans Made For Class

Younger Set to Dance During Winter Months

Twenty members of the younger set are interested in a dancing class which is being planned for the winter months. Sponsors are Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed.

Mrs. Clifford Rowe of the high school faculty will instruct the class. Invitations will be in the mail soon, issued to those asked to join the class which includes lower Klamath Union high school students. The place where the class will be held will also be announced later.

WOMEN TO AID IN SALE OF WAR BONDS

Wives of Rotarians are assisting in the war savings drive for the month of January which Rotary club has taken over. At a luncheon given Monday in the Pelican, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, who is women's division chairman of war savings, outlined plans by which the group could contribute much toward the success of the month, designated as "Pine Goes to War."

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. Alfred Collier, Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, Mrs. R. D. Eller, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. Arnold L. Grapp, Mrs. J. Percy Wells, Mrs. Paul Landry, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Neal Stewart.

Mrs. Alfred Collier and Mrs. Blohm will have charge of the women who are taking care of the Vox window booth where the sale of war savings stamps and bonds will continue each day throughout the month. Starting Monday, from two to five o'clock the following will be in charge of the booth: Monday, Mrs. R. D. Eller; Tuesday, Mrs. DeLos Mills; Wednesday, Mrs. Paul Landry; Thursday, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson; Friday, Mrs. Robert Sproat; Saturday, Mrs. F. L. Weaver.

Plans are being made for a community sing, the date to be announced later.

EPIPHANY SERVICE IS OBSERVED

The beautiful Feast of the Lights was observed Wednesday evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church followed by an informal gathering in the parish house where the Epiphany cake was cut.

The thimble, ring and dime found in the cake symbolized work, fellowship and money. Mrs. J. K. Bruner received the thimble, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., the money, and Mrs. H. M. Shapleigh, the ring. Mrs. Bruner will make an article of needlework, Mrs. Bosworth will put the dime to work, and Mrs. Shapleigh will arrange the Epiphany party for next year.

The service was arranged by the Rev. Frederick C. Wisenbach, rector of St. Paul's.

Visitor in Klamath Falls

Among the out-of-town holiday visitors in Klamath Falls was Lieutenant William C. Orton, United States army, who spent a ten-day leave here en route from Camp Truckee Meadows, near Reno, to Fort Custer, Michigan. He was the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Mann, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Orton Sr., who are here for the winter at the Mann home on Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. George Burger, Mrs. Joe Foster and Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger are spending this weekend in San Francisco.

FAREWELLS—Mrs. Charles Stanfield and her three children, Jim, five, (left), Dick, seven, and small Bob, just one and one-half, with Mr. Stanfield left Saturday to make their home in Dyersburg, Tennessee. A number of informal affairs were given for them prior to their departure. —All pictures by Guderian.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED ON SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick have invited a group of friends to their home on Lavey street for cocktails from four to six o'clock Sunday afternoon, January the tenth, to observe their twenty-third wedding anniversary.

Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Long, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Land, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kennett and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Nelson.

Dinner Dance Will Highlight Party

Kiwanis Club to Install Officers at Affair Scheduled for Tuesday Evening at the Willard

Plans have been completed for one of the largest parties of the year when the annual installation dinner dance at the Willard hotel is given by the Kiwanis club. The date is set for next Tuesday evening, January twelfth, with a social hour from seven to eight o'clock and dinner at eight.

Dancing will follow the ceremony and dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson are chairman of the event assisted by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huson.

Master of ceremonies will be Mr. Phil Hitchcock of Bend, northwest district governor, and a special guest will be Mr. Archie Vaughn of North Bend, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis.

Installed in office will be Mr. Ed Ostendorf, president; Mr. E. A. Thomas, vice president; Mr. Henry E. Perkins, secretary; Mr. Bert Thomas, treasurer; directors, Mr. R. C.

Dale, Mr. Keva Hutchinson, Mr. Don R. Drury, Mr. Stanley Woodruff, Mr. Bert Schultz, Mr. Ralph Howard, Mr. John Fowler, Mr. Joe Hicks and Mr. L. Orth Slesmore.

Mr. Malcolm Epley is immediate past president.

Speakers of the evening will include Mr. Vaughn, Mr. Hitchcock, Mr. Epley and Mr. Ostendorf. Special events will include a program by Mr. Charles Seavey and Mr. John H. Houston, and a tribute to members of the club who are now serving in the armed forces. Army and navy wives, who are now in Klamath Falls, will be special guests of the club.

LIONESS CLUB MEET SCHEDULED

Hostesses for the Monday night meeting of the Lioness club at eight o'clock in the library club rooms will be Mrs. J. V. Owens, chairman, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. Elton Disher and Mrs. Hans Norland.

Mrs. Winifred Darnell will present a book review, "Inside Latin America," by Guther. There will be a brief business meeting. Those attending are asked to bring their knitting.

The executive committee of Lioness club met for dessert at the Pelican Thursday evening to discuss plans for the year.

TOMMY HUMBLE BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Tommy Humble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Humble, observed his sixth birthday anniversary January the sixth after school when he invited a small group of friends to his home for cake and games.

Guests included LeRoy Porter, Gerald Johnston, Donnie Drury, George Brandt, James Southwell, Paul Adams and Gregg Schultz.

Returns to School in South

Joan Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell, left Saturday for the south where she returns to Mills college after having spent the past month with her parents on holiday vacation.

IN WAR WORK

Miss Madelon Crane, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Crane, 521 Alameda street, is among the nation's young women doing their bit in the war effort. Madelon is stationed at the United States army air corps navigation school, Mather Field, near Sacramento.

—Kennell-Ellis.

WED NEW YEAR'S EVE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crusen cut their wedding cake immediately after the ceremony New Year's eve at the Fred Hoagland home. The bride is the former Beverly Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barr of this city, and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gregg H. Crusen of Eugene. —Comart.