SMALL GAINS REGISTERED IN STOCK MARKET

By VICTOR EUBANK NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—Small gains were in the majority in the stock market today, with steels prominent in the selective field upturn. Turnover was around 600,000 shares.

Tentative spurts were made by golds, selected metals and a handful of utility leaders. Investors tended to study reports of government fund-raising plans more than the tape, as the full import of a budget calling for more than $100,000,000 in expenditures was realized.

WHEAT CHICAGO, Jan. 13 (AP)—The grain market still was depressed today by imposition of federal ceilings on corn but prices showed less weakness than yesterday, declines being limited to fractions to a cent a bushel.

Corn was weakest but this was due partly to hedging sales in connection with purchase of the largest quantity of grain to arrive here from country points in months. Enlarged mill buying reflecting flour business to some extent, helped to lift wheat about 1 cent at times early in the session.

Wheat closed 1-1/2 cent lower than yesterday, May $1.37 1/4, July $1.38 1/4; corn 1-1/2 down, May 96 1/2-1c, July 96 1/2-1c; oats unchanged to 1c up; rye unchanged to 1c lower; soybeans 1c off to 1c higher.

BOSTON WOOL BOSTON, Jan. 13 (AP-USDA) Sales of a wide variety of Australian, New Zealand and South African wools were made in the Boston wool market at firm prices today. Some manufacturers have changed over completely to the use of foreign wools. South American prices continue slightly easier. Texas fine staple wool was offered at a clean price a little under ceiling without attracting interest.

The job for men of goodwill everywhere is to so organize human affairs that no Adolf Hitler, no power-hungry war-mongers can ever again plunge the world into war and bloodshed.—Vice President Henry A. Wallace.
