In northeast New Guinea, striking the heaviest blows at Lae where Japanese reinforcements landed from a badly battered convoy last week.

"In a series of coordinated attacks, our heavy, medium and attack units with strong fighter cover bombed the (Lae) air-drome, harbor installations, stores and barges," Gen. MacArthur reported.

Jap Raid
"Damage was heavy and large fires were started."

Nine Japanese bombers raided the wharf area at Merauke in Dutch New Guinea, the communique said, but caused negligible damage.

In Burma, RAF planes flying from bases in India renewed the attack on the big Japanese base at Akyab, on the Bay of Bengal, and pounded targets at Kyauktaw, 40 miles north of Akyab.

Wavell Silent
British headquarters said RAF raiders machine-gunned Akyab airport and also strafed enemy shipping on the Mayu river.

No further information was forthcoming on the progress of Field Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell's British column driving back into Burma from India, last reported about 25 miles from Akyab.

Pianist

Witold Malcuzyński, Polish pianist, who appears at the Pelican theatre at 8 p. m. Friday in the second of a series of Klamath Community concerts.

FRIDAY CONCERT FEATURES PIANIST

"A whirlwind pianist," in the words of New York PM, is a pocket description of Witold Malcuzyński who will be presented Friday at 8 p. m. on the Pelican theatre stage under the banner of the Klamath Community Concert association. This is the second of a series of three concerts planned for the season.

Malcuzyński, last pupil of Paderewski, was born in Warsaw. He studied law and philosophy at two Polish universities, but before he had taken his degree an irresistible vocation for music had destined him for that art.

He turned to the Polish Conservatory where in 1936, he was awarded the first prize for piano. This led to a most significant event in his life. Paderewski, hearing of this brilliant new talent, invited Malcuzyński to play for him at his Morges estate on the banks of Lake Lemman in Switzerland. The master was so impressed with the gifts of the younger man that he offered to become his teacher.

Outbreak of the war brought Malcuzyński two narrow escapes from Nazi invasions, the first when he left Poland and the second when he fled from Paris the day before the Nazis entered. Arriving in Lisbon, Malcuzyński was fortunate enough to find waiting for him an offer of a South American tour. He later accepted offers in New York and his initial appearance at Carnegie Hall immediately placed him among 1943 artists.

No tickets will be sold at the Pelican door tomorrow night. Members are asked to present membership cards.

book holders in the 17-state eastern area.

Agents Accused

The OPA took out of the hands of local ration boards the decision as to whether these drivers could get more coupons to compensate them for the recent 25 per cent reduction in the value of their ration coupons. Hereafter the nearest district, state or regional OPA office must rule on the requests.

OPA enforcement agents were accused in a house resolution prepared by Rep. Herter (R-Mass.) of "extortion of hush money perilously close to a blackmail."

Case Disclosed

Herter said they had adopted a technique "whereby the accused culprit is called upon to make a voluntary contribution to the U. S. treasury in an amount specified by the OPA and receives in return an inconclusive and unenforceable promise that the charges will not be pressed."

He said he had been told of one case in which a businessman accused of violating OPA regulations had made a "voluntary contribution" of $25,000 to the treasury, through OPA, on a promise that the charges would not be pressed in the courts.

Still on the fuel-gasoline front, Secretary Ickes promised a new preferential list of fuel oil and gasoline consumers in the east, saying he was working with the OPA and the WPB on a substitute for the cancelled original list, which omitted amusement places but gave all other fuel oil consumers equal preference.

Dies Quits Down

One of the hitherto more active groups in Washington, the house committee on Un-American activities, appeared meanwhile to be heading toward a quieter existence.

Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) said he would ask for its continuance another year, but would ask a $60,000 appropriation rather than $100,000, would cut its staff of a half dozen investigators in two and planned no public hearings so long as the war is on.

Lumber Workers To Lead Victory Program Saturday

more bonds Saturday night than they have ever bought before.

Tim Sullivan, president of the Klamath basin district council, CIO, had the following statement to make:

"We who are employed in the lumber industry in this area, besides working in vital defense work, are also giving aid to the people of this section through the purchase of war bonds. We realize the real importance of lumber in the war effort and also that with lumber we cannot win this war. We urge all employees of the Klamath area to attend Saturday night's program."

He adds specifically that Britain is NOT backing De Gaulle and America is NOT backing Giraud. One gathers from his remarks that we're letting the French fight out their own political battles.

Which (if true, as it seems to be) is the best way out of it. Mixing in the other fellow's political fights usually gets the mixer nothing but trouble.

EDITORIALS ON NEWS

now have been ALREADY made and delivered.

But their ultimate effect can't help being serious.

NORTH AFRICA is still quiet. The French are pushing forward their attempted drive to Sousse, on the Mediterranean (purpose: to prevent a junction between Rommel and the axis forces in Tunisia) and have taken a couple of strategic heights along the road.

Montgomery's 8th army (British) is reported in today's dispatches to be gathering strength for the final 180-mile drive to Tripoli. That would put it about in the neighborhood of Misurata (see map).

From this one guesses (it's only a guess) that Rommel is dug in along the narrow Misurata defile between salt marshes and the sea, getting reinforcements on his own account.

Another big fight will probably follow when Montgomery figures he's strong enough to blast Rommel out.

BRENDE BRACKEN, British minister of information (corresponding roughly with our Elmer Davis), says today that neither the British nor the US government is backing any particular candidate for leadership of the French.

He adds specifically that Britain is NOT backing De Gaulle and America is NOT backing Giraud. One gathers from his remarks that we're letting the French fight out their own political battles.

Which (if true, as it seems to be) is the best way out of it. Mixing in the other fellow's political fights usually gets the mixer nothing but trouble.

2,000 STRIKING MINERS RETURN TO WORK TODAY

would use all powers within its jurisdiction to settle the matter.

Challenge

Approximately 300 officials of the United Mine Workers, which has joined in pleas for an end to the walkout, attended last night's meeting. To leaders of the 10,000 miners who decided to disregard the WLB, James Hennihan, president of the Baltimore local, declared:

"I defy any of you to stop us from going back."

The position of 7000 other strikers employed in four collieries was not determined in the poll. United Mine Workers leaders believed some favored returning and others were for continuing the 15-day-old wildcat walkout in spite of a war labor board declaration indicating the government might seize all strike-bound collieries.

Developments

Spokesmen for the 10,000 still adamant, who represent 10 collieries, said they were "content to let the government make the next move."

Other developments included: 1. Spokesmen for another 23,000 miners in the southern section of the mine region set Friday as a "deadline" for action on their demands for a day bonus over present wages estimated unofficially to average $8.50 daily.

2. Coal dealers in Philadelphia reported their stocks exhausted or extremely low and stockpiles reached low levels elsewhere in the oil-rationed northeast.

Truck Loaded With Poultry Overturns Near Merrill

Frozen turkeys and chickens were strewn along the highway and over an adjacent field when a big truck loaded with poultry overturned near Merrill shortly after 8 o'clock Thursday morning. The truck, operated by the Bennett-Armour company of Susanville, was en route from Susanville to Camp White, Medford.

Driver of the truck reported the machine ran into a ditch and crashed on its side. There were no injuries.

continuing drive, officials announced.

German reports that the Russians had launched new offensives against the Leningrad siege line or on the Voronezh front to the north of the Don bend were not confirmed here. Neither communiques nor battlefield dispatches mentioned these sectors.

Towns Seized

Dispatches announcing the recapture of Novo Bladorodnoye placed the Russian advance more than 20 miles west of Spatov of Mineralnye Vody, recaptured early this week.

Another arm of the offensive swept through Kumagorsky and on past Zhuravskoye, 50 miles north of Mineralnye Vody.

In between, on the straightened front, the Russians reported seizing the little towns of Kalaborka, Orbelianovka and Pobegallovskeye in the heart of some of the most intensively farmed land in the Caucasus.

Nazis Surrounded

Battlefront accounts said tanks led the Russian advance, breaking up Nazi counterattacks along highways and rail lines of the Kuma river valley near Kumagorsky.

Red Star, mouthpiece of the Russian army, said a large German force had been surrounded in one Caucasian settlement and was under the combined attacks of tanks and Cossack cavalry.

Goldwater and Flynn, represented a Mr. Serge Rubinstein, who at the time of his retention with Flynn had large Japanese interests and that this Mr. Rubinstein was closely associated with this country until two weeks before Pearl Harbor. Rubinstein also presented a gift of money to the Japanese government at a time when our relations with Japan were clearly strained.

"I charge that Edward J. Flynn as chancellor of the city of New York invested public funds in the State Title and Mortgage company, causing the city to lose over a million dollars. Flynn's law firm subsequently became general counsel to this company and his law partner, Mr. Monroe Goldwater, served as a director.

"I charge that Edward J. Flynn appointed Dutch Schultz, noted criminal and murderer, a deputy sheriff when Flynn was sheriff of Bronx county. Schultz was appointed by Flynn just a few months after Flynn took office, and Schultz served the full tenure of Flynn's incumbency as sheriff, even though he was a known criminal and a fugitive from justice from many states.
