SPECIAL BIBLE STUDY COURSE OPENS SUNDAY

A special Bible study class for high school young people will open at the Bible Baptist church, Sunday at 6:30 p. m. The church is located on Ward street at Idella's corner, Rose and Frances Smith will be in charge of music with Mrs. G. W. Wheatley as the Bible teacher. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logerwell will play and sing their own compositions, using the guitar and piano accompaniment.

Wednesday afternoon of each week there is a new Bible class for the women of the south end beginning at 1:30 p. m. Already a goodly number are attending.

Another new class has started for children of school age, beginning at 4 o'clock each Wednesday afternoon. Every child in the community not receiving Bible training ought to be in this class. Mrs. Wheatley will be the teacher.

At the mid-week fellowship, James Vaus will be the leader. This fine Christian soldier is the son of Rev. Vaus, president of the "Hebrew Mission" in Los Angeles. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Penri Smith, 2933 Homedale road, at 7:45 p. m.

Pastor G. W. Wheatley extends a very cordial welcome to any and all who can attend these services.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the pastor speaks on the subject, "What is Christian Patriotism." Sunday evening the sermon subject will be, "What Hinders the Uplift?"

The Bible school is open to all age groups and meets at 9:45 a. m.

Immanuel Baptist Church
The church is located at the corner of North Eleventh and High streets. Pastor, Rev. William B. Rice. Residence, 720 Jefferson street, phone 7400. Director of music, C. E. Logerwell.

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages and a staff of Bible teachers who are really interested in your children. There is no better place for your child than Sunday school on Sunday morning. Superintendent, Mrs. J. D. O'Neil. Morning worship, 11:00 o'clock. Many are enjoying this hour of worship and we would urge you to be in the House of God next Sunday. The pastor will speak on the subject, "The Mystery of the Kingdom."

Evening Gospel hour, 7:30 p. m. The hour is divided in half. One half in singing the old songs of the church and 30 minutes of preaching from the Word of God. Tell your friends about this hour as we need new recruits to replace the regular attendants who have moved into defense areas.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible study, 7:30 o'clock. Because of the remodeling which is going on at the church, the mid-week service will be held at the home of Mrs. Chamberlain, 317 North Ninth street.

Young people's meeting Saturday, 7:30 p. m. at the home of the pastor, 720 Jefferson street. If you desire transportation to and from the meeting, just phone 7400.

You are always welcome at any of the services of this friendly, Bible-loving church. If you have no church home, we invite you to be at home with us. You are a stranger but once, and then, just for a moment. (Affiliated with the Northern Baptist Convention.)

Pilgrim Fellowship
Located at 2229 Wantland avenue. Pastor, Rev. Sherman Moore.

Are you attending church? If not, we invite you to attend these services. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Mrs. Sherman Moore, superintendent. We have a growing and enthusiastic school. In both preaching services, 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m., Rev. Moore will occupy the pulpit. REV. BROWN TO SPEAK ON PEACE

"God's Prophetic Plan for Worldwide Peace" is the subject to be discussed by the Rev. C. C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets.

The pastor states that in this message he will outline the plan of God for an everlasting peace on earth. He will answer such questions as, "Will there be a World Peace? And can the Allied Nations formulate and maintain a lasting peace among the nations. Mr. Brown says that the Bible makes God's peace plan unmistakably clear, and that he believes that some of the current peace proposals are being made without regard to the divine dispensational dealings with the nations of the world.

The public is cordially invited to hear this prophetic message.

GAS LINE JAM

LAKE GENEVA, Wis. (AP) — A huge tank truck loaded with 3000 gallons of gasoline upset after a collision with another vehicle and gasoline started running from the tanker out of a small hole.

Motorists hurried to the scene and helped themselves, standing in line to await their turns while police and firemen directed traffic and enforced a "no smoking" rule.

Most of the gasoline was salvaged.

Detroit automobile industries insisted, before Pearl Harbor, that only 30 per cent or less of its machinery could be converted for war uses; 86 per cent of it is now in use.
