Junior High School Boys' Chorus Adds to Monday Afternoon Program of Woman's Group

Library club programs are always interesting to members of the large organization, but Monday's was especially pleasing to the women who gathered in the main auditorium of the public library to hear the Rev. Eugene V. Haynes of the Community Congregational church review Han Suyin's book, "Destination, Chungking." The review was done in excellent fashion and Mr. Haynes added many interesting sidelights which have gleaned from missionaries who have served in China since the war with Japan.

Mrs. A. G. Proctor, president of Library club, introduced Mr. Haynes.

The program was opened by the Junior High school boys' chorus under the direction of Miss Lillie Darby. Hearing such well trained and youthful voices is a privilege all too seldom enjoyed by Library club. As an encore the boys sang, "Army Air Corps Song," one of their favorites and certainly a favorite with the audience. The four groups included patriotic songs, Stephen Foster numbers, Negro spirituals and as a finale, the Junior High song.

Flower arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook and hostesses were Mrs. John H. Houston and Mrs. George A. Myers.

Early in the afternoon Mrs. E. D. Lamb sold recipes for orange-date bread, proceeds going into the bond fund. The entire amount, enough to purchase a bond for the club, has now been made available through this sale and a silver tea at the January meeting.

Announcement was made of the Doernbecher benefit bridge scheduled for January thirtieth at the Willard.

Next meeting of the Garden club will be held February twenty-third, the program to be announced later, as will be the February program of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club.

During two periods Friday, "What Men Live By" was presented to those students who were unable to see it before the holidays. These actors have given eight performances besides the many rehearsals they must have had to perfect it. A lot of credit goes to Mrs. B. B. Blomquist for her direction of this play. Also to the performers and those behind scenes who congratulate you on your grand work.

In the late afternoon a pep assembly was held to remind the students to attend the basketball games played by the Pelicans. Lewis Vogler was master of ceremonies and introduced Mr. Woodruff, Mr. Scott, "Baldy" Foster and George Proctor. The main idea was that the students are not backing up the team as they should and it wouldn't be such a bad idea if they would. The dance band furnished the music.

Monday night the Harlem Globe Trotters will be at the Pelican court to play basketball (?) against an all-star team of this city. The reason for the question mark is that those boys don't stick to basketball. They are liable to change to football any minute. The Pep Peppers will be on the streets Monday selling tickets to this affair a 25 cents. For a time of your life, come to the game at 8 p. m.

BATTLES these days are fought in the air, on sea, on land—and with the help of the Nation's communication lines.

Operators, handling the greatest volume of calls in the telephone's history—calls dealing largely with war and war production—occupy a "battle station" of vital importance.

You can help them to bring Victory closer. Though materials for more telephone lines are not available, due to war's requirements, you can help keep the lines clear for war by making only vital calls to the war-busy centers.

Your cooperation helps us to serve you and our Country. We deeply appreciate it.
