RAILS, COPPER, SPECIALTIES PROP MARKET

By VICTOR EUBANK NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (AP)—

Rails, coppers and specialties kept the recovery ball rolling in today's stock market while many leaders elsewhere took a rest on the sidelines. Transfers were around 700,000 shares.

Western Union and Postal Telegraph Preferred enjoyed a small upward flurry when the senate interstate committee approved a bill authorizing the merger of these communications concerns. New 1942-43 tops were posted for American Can, Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, J. I. Case, Deere, General Electric and J. C. Penney, among others.

WHEAT CHICAGO, Jan. 18 (AP)—A slackening in the demand from mills, coupled with light but persistent offerings, caused wheat prices to recede nearly a cent today.

Liquidation was never large in the wheat pit, however, and trading proceeded at a slow pace. Corn and oats also declined, traders attributing the slump to a letup in the shipping demand for these grains. Profit taking was an added factor in the decline of oats. Grain men said the losses apparently reflected a lack of support rather than any selling pressure.

Prices recovered somewhat in the closing minutes. All of the earlier losses were wiped out. Wheat finished 1-1/2c lower, May $1.39 1/2, July $1.30 1/2, corn was unchanged to 1/2c lower, May 98 1/2, oats lost 1-1/2c, rye was off 1-1/2c and soybeans gained 1-1/2c.
