ERROL FLYNN WAS NERVOUS, SAYS WITNESS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19 (AP)—Testimony that Errol Flynn was nervous and perspiring when he was confronted by police and one of his two accusers was presented today at the 33-year-old film actor's trial on charges of raping two teen-age girls.

It was offered by Police Lieut. Robert W. Bolling, one of the few remaining state witnesses to be heard in the prosecution's effort to convict Flynn of allegedly raping Betty Hansen and Peggy LaRue Satterlee, each 17.

Bolling said that on the night of October 14, last, following the alleged seduction of Miss Hansen in a fashionable Bel-Air home during a party, Flynn was taken to juvenile hall and was confronted with the blond, former Lincoln, Neb., girl who came to Hollywood seeking roles in the movies.

"Miss Hansen at that time related her story of the events that took place at the party," said Bolling. "Several times she turned to Flynn and remarked: 'Isn't that so?' But Flynn's only reply was: 'Go ahead, Betty.'"

"Flynn was nervous and sweating profusely while she was telling her story, but no one else present appeared to be warm. And, after Miss Hansen had completed her story, Flynn made no comment.

"Miss Hansen remarked that she was ill and several times, while telling her story, she broke down and cried."

Bolling said that when he and other officers went to Flynn's home earlier that night, the actor received them graciously and offered them a drink.

When informed of Miss Hansen's charges, the actor gulped and sputtered over a drink, at first professed not to recall whether he knew the girl and then remarked: "Oh, yes—that little washed out blonde!" the officer continued.

Bolling said Flynn then telephoned his attorney, Robert Ford, and consented to go to juvenile hall and be confronted with the girl.

On cross-examination, Bolling testified that Flynn denied the girl's charges.

STATE GUARD FATE HANGS ON SENATE ACTION

By PAUL W. HARVEY Jr. SALEM, Jan. 19 (AP)—Oregon's state guard of 9000 men was in serious danger today of being dissolved next Thursday, as the senate still considered amendments to a house-approved bill which would extend the guard's life.

The bill, as passed by the house, provides that the guard remain organized until six months after the war. But the senate, fearing that the Oregon national guard, most of which now is fighting in New Guinea, would not be home by that time, voted to send the bill back to its military affairs committee.

Deadline Near
The committee probably will amend the measure so that the state guard would remain organized until the national guard comes home.

The senate hoped to pass the bill this afternoon, but the bill then would have to go back to the house for approval of senate amendments. Then it would go to Governor Snell for signature. Snell said he thinks he would have to sign the bill by tomorrow night to keep the guardsmen's enlistments from expiring Thursday.

The 1941 legislature, which passed the original state guard law, agreed to requests by labor organizations that the law expire when Governor Sprague left office. Labor feared that an unfriendly governor might succeed Sprague and use the guard in labor disputes.

Pensions
Sen. Thomas R. Mahoney of Portland introduced a bill today to increase the cost of liquor permits from 50 cents to $2.50, the $2 difference to be used for old age pensions. A bill by Rep. Eugene E. Marsh of McMinnville would require that liquor permits be used for buying beer and wine.

Sen. Joel C. Booth of Lebanon sponsored a measure today to provide for $40 monthly old age pensions, as recommended by Governor Snell. The average pension now is $24.

A memorial asking congress to adopt the Ruml pay-as-you-go plan of paying income taxes was sponsored by Rep. Stanhope S. Pier of Portland.

This Time the Speeder's Story Was Correct

PORTLAND, Jan. 19 (AP)—Ray E. Muir, stopped for speeding, told Patrolman William Hoff that he was rushing to a hospital where his wife was expecting a baby.

"I've heard that one before," Hoff said, advising Muir to bring along a birth certificate when he appeared in court.

Muir did, the certificate showing the baby arrived 25 minutes after Hoff wrote out the ticket, and the court suspended a $5 fine. Then Muir passed cigars around the courtroom.

Sub Sinks Allied Merchant Vessel

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—A medium-sized British merchant vessel was torpedoed, shelled and sunk by enemy submarine in the Atlantic off the northern coast of South America in mid-December, the navy reported today.

Survivors have landed at Miami, Fla.

Returns Home—Mrs. David Totton and daughter, Karen, returned by train Tuesday noon from Salinas, Calif., where they visited Pvt. David Totton now stationed at Camp Roberts. They have been south for the past week.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED FOR COUNTY SING

Final plans for Friday night's community sing were given a last-minute polish by Andrew J. Loney Jr., director of music in the schools, and an excellent crowd is expected to attend the program at 8 o'clock in Klamath Union high school auditorium.

Old and new songs, on mimeographed sheets, will be distributed by the ushers, members of the Honor society. Lillie Darby and Mrs. S. Meade Badger will assist the song leader in the audience. Loney will direct the singing.

Program Workers
Andrew Collier, Klamath county war savings chairman, will make a brief talk and although stamps and bonds will not be sold in the audience, those wishing to buy to aid the county's January goal of $217,000, may do so from a booth in the hall. Collier will also represent Rotary club, in charge of the January campaign.

Those taking part in the program include Sherman Carter, vocalist; Mrs. David Burgoyne, violin numbers accompanied by Mrs. Carter; boys' chorus from the Junior high school, combined "B" band of KUHS and Junior high band, and Loyal Heath, accordion numbers. Mrs. Raymond Coopey will accompany the singing.

Regardless of how many coupons you've needed to use, the coupon number change tells you—

Thursday - the last day to use your No. 3 Gasoline Ration Coupons - is time to change your oil, too!

Midnight, Thursday, your No. 3 Gasoline Ration Coupons expire.

If you need to drive in for gasoline, ask your Shell Dealer or Shell Service Station to drain, flush, and refill your crankcase with Golden Shell Motor Oil while you're at the station.

You may have thought that with less driving you don't have to be so careful about changing your oil. Actually you have to be more careful. You can't take any chances, for two important reasons.

The finest motor oil is exposed to impurities, dust, abrasives, and other contaminants carried through the air. Even though your oil lies idle in the crankcase, partially burned fuel particles are constantly promoting oil deterioration. And, with today's short trips and lower driving speeds, your engine doesn't get hot enough to vaporize the water formed by combustion and condensation. This water accumulates in the crankcase and further contaminates your oil!

If your oil shows signs of impurities, let your Shell man change it today—AND EVERY TIME you go to a new ration coupon number (every two months). Then you know you're on the safe side and probably won't have to add a drop between drains.

At the same time, get another essential wartime service—Shell lubrication. Thorough, correct lubrication every time you go to a new number is important in making your car last for the duration. It includes:

- COMPLETE LUBRICATION of all moving parts with fresh Shell Lubricants, safety inspection of the transmission and differential lubricant levels.
- BATTERY CHECK—Especially important as reduced driving may allow strength of your battery to fall below normal.
- COOLING SYSTEM CHECK—Inspection of fan belt, hose connections, oil filter condition and mileage.
- SPARK PLUG CHECK—Notification if cleaning and adjusting are necessary—because dirty plugs can waste 10% of your gasoline.
- TIRE CHECK—for nails, glass, cuts, etc. Air pressure correction, tires dressed. All supplementing regular inspections required by Government.
- CLEANING of all windows and interior of car, polishing of chrome, inspection of all lights.
