Huskies, OSC, Washington State Tie In Second Spot Behind Oregon Cagers

CORVALLIS, Jan. 21 (AP)—The University of Washington Huskies jumped back into the thick of the northern division basketball race last night by outshooting Oregon State, Pacific coast champions, 44-39.

The Beavers won Tuesday night, 42-39. The Washington victory threw the Huskies, OSC and Washington State college into a tie for second position behind the current pace-setters, the University of Oregon. It also lent importance in the early phases of the race to the two-game series Washington will play with the division leaders at Eugene Friday and Saturday nights.

The Webfoots grabbed a bulge on the rest of the division by two victories over Idaho before the rest of the league got started. Then they split a two-game series with Washington State. The Cougars open their first series with Idaho Friday night.

Last night's was a rugged contest during which 38 fouls were called. Don Durdan, with 20 points, threatened throughout to OSC led but once in the contest, 5-4 early in the game. After that the count was knotted twice at 5-5 and 9-9 before Bobby Morris, Washington guard found the range to give his club a 13-9 lead which was never relinquished.

It was 28-22 for Washington at the half after Durdan had come close to closing the gap.

For the Beavers the second half was virtually a one-man show, with Durdan always threatening to pull his club even. With but a minute to go, the State flash scored twice to make it 39-42, but Leask also caught one to make Washington safe.

Grade School Girls Hold Volleyball Jamboree Meet

One hundred and fifty grade school girls took part in the volleyball jamboree held in the Fremont school gymnasium last Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m., under the direction of the physical education department.

Miss Genevieve McGee, girls physical education director at the Junior high school, had charge of the tournament with the assistance of the following gymnasium teachers of the grade schools: Conger, Mrs. Napier; Fairview, Mary Jane Heaton; Fremont, Genevieve McGee; Mills, Mrs. Beatrice Kidd; Pelican, Patricia Talbot; Riverside, Mrs. Kreida Kemmitzer; and Roosevelt, Miss Leuevana Olson.

Girls were divided into A and B groups according to size and then subdivided into color teams. Each team then drew lots to determine the order of play.

In the first round of the A group, Black, Lavender, Pink and Blue teams were victorious. In the semi-final rounds, Lavender defeated Black, 16-8, and Blue defeated Pink, 21-9. War Makes Frank Hogan Early Riser

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Jan. 21 (AP)—The war has led Frank (Shanty) Hogan, former Giants catcher, to do things that even the invincible John McGraw couldn't make him do.

McGraw would have considered that he had reached the millennium if he could have awakened Hogan in time to report for 10 a. m. practice. Now, Hogan, a ship trigger, gets up at 5:30 a. m.—and likes it.

"The sweetest thing about working in a shipyard is that you never get fined," said Hogan, reminiscing about the days when he was known as one of McGraw's "bad boys."

"During the five years I caught for the Giants, McGraw fined me a total of $4000. No wonder some ball clubs can afford to pay big salaries. They take it back in fines."

Hogan said he would like to obtain a minor league club after the war.

He pointed out that he's still in his prime—he's only 36 years old. But he still totes that 248 pounds he tried to work off when he was with the Giants.

Washington Will Maintain Minor Sports Program

PULLMAN, Jan. 21 (AP)—Washington State college will continue its minor sports program with those schools maintaining such activities as long as sufficient interest is shown by students and transportation facilities remain available, according to Earl Foster, graduate manager.

Other northern division, Pacific Coast conference schools have abandoned many of their minor sports.

"It is the belief of WSC athletic officials that it is more important during the war to keep up athletic participation by men students than in normal times," Foster said.

Washington State At Full Strength For Idaho Game

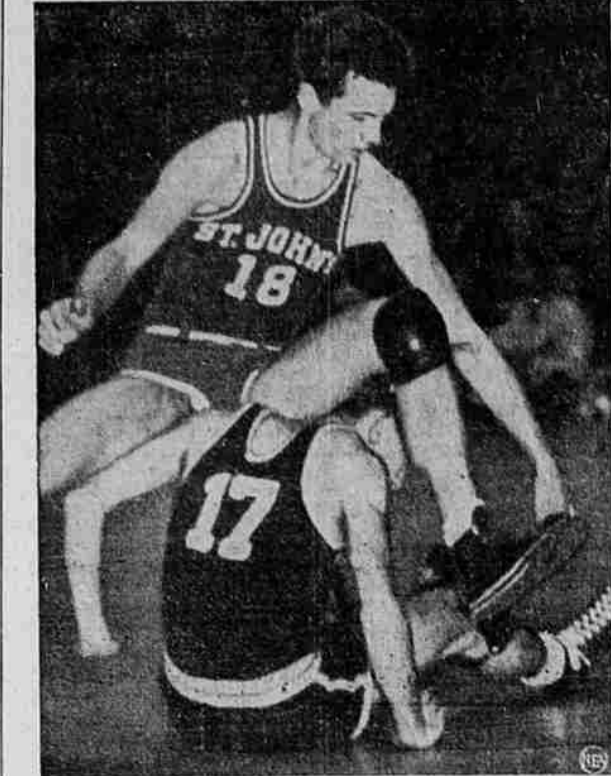

PULLMAN, Jan. 21 (AP)—Washington State will be at full strength for its series basketball opener against the University of Idaho Friday night.

Coach Jack Friel said Captain Owen Hunt, one of the regulars on whom the Cougars have depended for most of their scoring this season, will be back in the lineup for at least a portion of the game. The Cougar mainstay was out of the Oregon series with an attack of flu.

Hale American Open Golf Tournament May Be Shelved

By ARNOLD DERLITZKI CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Hale America open golf tournament, successor last year to the war shelved national open, in turn may be succeeded this year—but perhaps in name only.

The Chicago District Golf association said today it planned an open tournament, national in scope and with proceeds going to some war relief agency, but indicated that the event probably would be identified by a name other than Hale America.

Last year's Hale America was held at Chicago's Ridgemoor club. Proceeds of the event, won by Ben Hogan, totalled $25,000 and went to the navy relief and USO organizations.

Thomas G. McMahon, CDGA president, said "We definitely plan to hold an open golf tournament and expect it to be national in scope. What shape or character it will take otherwise has not been determined."

The PGA already has committed itself to cooperate with the CDGA on any plans in regard to a national open in Chicago, McMahon said.

As for transportation, McMahon added, "We hope to lick that problem by holding the tournament on a course close in and near a street car line."

Keno Eagles Top Henley In Two Tilts

The Keno Eagles basketball team proved too much for the Henley high school basketballers this weekend, winning 23-22 on Friday at Keno, and 24-18 on Saturday at the Henley gym.

In the first game the Hornets led until the final two minutes, but lost their lead by wild playing in the closing seconds.

On the Henley floor the Keno lads maintained the lead most of the game as the Hornets failed to make their shots.

Lineups for the games were as follows:

Tennis Champ Goes to Navy, Leaves Trophies

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21 (AP)—Naval Ensign Frederick Schroeder, national men's singles tennis champion, is going to sea—and leaving at Coronado high school his championship trophy.

It will be a memorial, he said, to a schoolboy friend, Bob Carothers, who died in an automobile accident in 1940 and "who might have been champion himself if he had lived."

"He was a better tennis player than I was, when we started out together at USC."

Paul Derringer May Wear Chicago Cub Baseball Suit

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP)—Big Paul Derringer, Cincinnati Red pitcher for 19 seasons, may find himself wearing a Chicago Cub uniform this season. Reports circulating here say the Cubs want him and the Reds would be willing to part with him. The hitch, these reports add, is that the Reds desire a left hand hitting outfielder, of which the Cubs feel they have none to spare.

Dempsey to Pay Alimony To Ex-Wife

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 21 (AP)—Hannah Williams Dempsey, estranged wife of former Heavyweight Boxing Champion Jack Dempsey, will receive $500 a month temporary alimony and $2500 counsel fees under order of Supreme Court Justice Graham Witschlef.

Justice Witschlef awarded the amount yesterday after Mrs. Dempsey, a former stage actress, asked $1500 alimony and $10,000 counsel fees when she filed a counter suit for separation here January 8.

Dempsey's suit, filed December 9, has been set for trial without jury next month. He asks custody of their two children, Joan, 8, and Barbara, 6.

The couple was married July 18, 1933, at Elko, Nev.

Oregon Sport Notes

By FRED HAMPSON Associated Press Staff Writer

Looking ahead a few weeks to the slightly-delayed hatching of 1943 baseball spring training, a contemporary predicts that the late start and shorter season won't be the only effect of the war.

He predicts that that old standby of February and March, Mr. Holdout, practically will disappear. This will be agreeable to many a horsehide fan who never did relish the spring squabbles over money, partly because he never knew how much of it was honest disagreement and 'how much of it was publicity.

It's going to be hard to work up much excitement this year over Joe Blow's declaration that he would rather retire to his chicken ranch than play for the peanut money suggested in his contract.

Players are expected to sign with a minimum of noise and disputes over salaries probably will be kept as quiet as possible. Anything else would be in poor taste in a war year when a lot of people think baseball ought to be suspended completely.

Some managers fear that many players—particularly in the minors—will fail to show up for training, but they probably won't be holdouts in the accepted sense. Mostly they will be war workers who will stay on the job for patriotic reasons and without much—if any—financial sacrifice.

Portland's National Boxing club has been doing a thriving business at the box office but as Fred Zimmerman remarks in the Salem Capital Journal, hasn't had any luck developing a local star. Anyone familiar with the glove business knows that nothing can bring in the trade like a home town favorite.

Zim thinks the club has been unlucky in being unable to unearth an Oregon scrapper who could piece together more than a two or three-fight winning streak.

Every potential has been battered down in short order by top-flight importations from California, mostly Leo Turner, Keller Wagner and Powder Proctor were three of the strongest hopefuls but each has been licked.

Zim thought Proctor was the most likely of the trio.

"No one ever questioned the negro boy's gameness. He received a fractured jaw in a bout with Tony Kahut at Salem a couple of years ago. Usually such an incident has a tendency to make the recipient a bit gun shy. Nothing of the sort appeared in Proctor's performance against Costello Cruz last Friday night."

The Western-International league chiefs will meet at Tacoma Sunday to determine whether or not the circuit has stamina enough to try another season in a war year. Club owners have announced individually and collectively their intention to operate but recent sales of players to Coast league teams suggests the beginning of liquidation.

$50 REWARD

will be paid by the Klamath County Court for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons destroying or mutilating any Klamath county road or street signs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—One reason major league baseball clubs are willing to turn loose such old timers as Paul Waner and Johnny Cooney is that they're expecting to have plenty of ball players hanging around after various minor leagues fold up. . . . An official who naturally doesn't want to be quoted says a lot of these circuits still are hanging on only because their presidents want to keep collecting salary checks. . . .

PUTTING ON THE BITE

Al Kaval, Michigan State college boxing coach, must have wondered whether his charges were taking tips from wrestlers or applying the "get tough" idea too thoroughly when Middleweight Charlie Calkins reported he had suffered a severe bite on his arm in a training bout. . . . When Charlie's opponent rushed in, his mouth wide open, Calkins swung for the jaw, missed and his arm was caught between the other fellow's teeth.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 21

Bill Klem, boss National league umpire who has been calling 'em from behind the plate for 40 years, took a look into the future today and predicted: "There'll always be baseball. You can't keep down a sport that is bred into the heart and soul of America. What's a few wartime restrictions to a grand old game like that?"

Thus Klem, at his Miami Beach residence, responded to news that the major teams must train close to their home grounds.

"So what?" asked the old arbiter. "I remember when all the teams trained at home. They waited around the clubhouse for the snow to melt, and dashed out to get in a few licks before it started to rain. Then, on sunny days, they worked like the devil. It was sure different in those days—but you can't tell me baseball is any better."

Klem has umpired for four decades, officiating in 18 world series, for an all-time record. He'll be out there this summer racking up another season.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 21 (AP)—Two Florida winter golf tournaments will be played as usual, but war bonds will replace trophies as prizes in each.

The second annual Florida open two-ball mixed foursome tournament is scheduled to begin February 3 at Orlando. Winners last year were Warren Dawson, Chicago amateur, and Miss Marge Row, Detroit women's champion.

Everything Sets Back One Week in Baseball

Opening, Close, All-Star Game, Even "Holdout" Campaign Postponed a Week

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP)—Everything is being set back a week in the coming major league baseball season—including the opening, the close and the all-star game—and even the "holdout" campaign, which precedes each pennant fight, may be in for an enforced delay.

This was indicated yesterday when President William Harridge of the American league met with President Ford Frick of the National league to complete the schedule adjustments brought about by wartime necessity.

Harridge disclosed that all clubs in his circuit had been asked to hold up player contracts until the director of economic stabilization rules whether or not baseball comes under the salary freezing order. Frick said National league clubs were withholding contracts for the same reason, with the exception of the New York Giants, who are proceeding under a regional rule.

Baseball's advisory council, headed by Commissioner K. M. Landis, has asked for the national ruling on the matter of salaries, and players won't receive their contracts until it is made. Thus, no player can start his annual spring "holdout" for more money until he finds out how much he's being offered in the first place.

The 1943 season, the league presidents agreed, will open on Wednesday, April 21, and close Sunday, October 3. The annual all-star game will be played Tuesday, July 13, at Shibe park in Philadelphia, with the Athletics of the American league as sponsors.

Since the Washington Senators open on the road, they will be hosts to the Philadelphia Athletics in a preliminary game, April 20, under a time-honored arrangement of having a special opening game at the nation's capital every other year.

With each team making no more than three trips into any other city, the officials estimated that 2,400,000 man-miles would be saved in transportation during the regular season. This, together with the mileage saved by training close to home, represents a total saving of approximately 5,000,000 man-miles, they said.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 21 (AP)—Bill Klem, boss National league umpire who has been calling 'em from behind the plate for 40 years, took a look into the future today and predicted: "There'll always be baseball. Malin Cagers Face Honker Five Friday

Though Malin Mustang courtmen lost to the Klamath Wildcats last weekend 15-31, they face the Tulelake Honker lineup Friday night with a determination to do less fumbling and better shooting. Coach Lee LaClair in a resume of the Wildcat game stated that, while his squad played a good game, several of his string failed to find their court legs. Charles Duncan and George Draxl, both forwards, were credited by the coach for playing strong offensive ball.

LaClair announced the following schedule for the remainder of the season: January 23, Tulelake at Malin; January 27, Bonanza at
