

Midland Empire News

MUSIC, DRAMATIC CLUB HAS MEETING

BLY—The Music and Dramatic club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raupach at Ivory Pine last Monday night, January 11. The members from Bly assembled at Protzman's store and drove out. The members, called to order by President Elmer McGinnis, decided to give $15 of the money made on their annual play to the Bly fire department and to use the remainder for club expenses.

Carl Raupach was appointed to write the minstrel show to be given some time in March.

After the business meeting was adjourned, games were played and refreshments served.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hanan and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raupach, Lester Cummings, James Boone, John Dillavon, Duane Gibson, Kay Bishop, Mrs. Delmor Lowe and Mrs. Cynthia Hall.

Shasta View

Residents of Shasta View have been enjoying the fine skating at Wocus recently. The Charles Cain, Claude Williams and Herbert Landis families have been among those skating there.

Emil Blum and family have moved to Phoenix, Ariz., where Blum has employment on a defense project.

The Chester Ellis family has moved to Willow Ranch, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Basey have returned from Grants Pass to reside at 1231 N. Medale. The Baseys are former Shasta View residents.

Miss Violet Woodruff of Anne Arbor, Mich., has returned to her home after spending the past month visiting her mother, Mrs. Lulu Woodruff, and her sister, Mrs. Donald Brown of Shasta way.

Mrs. Jack Andersen was guest of honor at a luncheon recently given by her neighbors. The occasion was her birthday anniversary. Those complimenting Mrs. Andersen were Mrs. Harold Hornsath, Mrs. U. G. Simpson, Mrs. John Ruesten, Mrs. Joe Swindler and Mrs. Roland Warren and daughter.

Little Claudine Fogel is confined to her home with inflammatory rheumatism. She will not be able to attend school the rest of this year.

L. Lambert is working on a defense project at Bend.

A no-host birthday dinner was held at the Bud Lyons home honoring the anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Ernest Gienger. Others present were Mr. Gienger, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Elsemore.

Pupils of the Shasta third grade completed a dairy project in geography by churning butter during class period. Mrs. Margaret Westlin and Lois Hare served the finished product to their students with bread and crackers.

H. Henderson of the county juvenile office will speak to the Shasta PTA meeting Wednesday, January 27, at 2:45 p. m.

Mrs. J. C. Grove substituted as fifth grade teacher at Shasta school during the absence of the regular teacher, Mrs. Echo Smith.

Merrill

Emil Sedlacek has gone to Nampa, Ida., where he plans to buy a home for his mother, Mrs. Caroline Sedlacek and his sister Caroline, who have been visiting a son, Tony, in Nampa since before the holidays.

Four-H club work is getting under way in the schools this week with Mrs. Mary Fox instructing classes in sewing in the junior high school. Mrs. Georgia Moore has charge of cooking and George Hobbs is directing classes in manual arts.

Velton Haskins has the Beef club which has been functioning for several weeks and the pig and sheep clubs are in charge of Joe Fotheringham. All classes meet during school hours.

First call for talent for the high school play to be given the last of March was made this week. The senior class voted down a class play this year and the school production will substitute.

Midland

Midland Home Economics club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. L. Burnett Tuesday afternoon, February 2. All members are invited.

Midland grange will hold its regular meeting January 27. A noon luncheon will be served.

Andrew Moore is completing a large new barn on his ranch near Midland. Mr. and Mrs. John Hurd are farming the ranch.

Mrs. J. B. Burnett and daughter, ter, Mrs. Lyle Hickman, and son spent Sunday afternoon at the S. L. Burnett home.

Mrs. Ada Owings and daughter Betty and Jean Burnett spent the weekend at Grants Pass with relatives and friends.

Young people of this community are enjoying the fine ice skating this week.

Harry Boyd left the first part of the week for Los Angeles, where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. Jack Casebeer is visiting friends in Alturas, Calif.

Wayne Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coe, is a patient at the Hillside hospital.

Gionesta

The new store opened for business Monday morning. With a new supply of groceries and much more room, it is appreciated by all patrons.

The Wednesday Night Pinocle club met at the home of Mrs. Ross. Those present were Lydia Moulton, Ellen Peterson, Opal Holte, Linnie Harris, Jennie Brown, Juanita James and Lena Hansen. High score was won by Lena Hansen and low by Opal Holte.

The Friday Afternoon Pinocle club met at the home of Mrs. Fay Shadle. Those present were Ruth Hoyt, Opal Holte, Juanita James, Ellen Peterson, Lydia Moulton, Dorothea Brown and Jennie Brown. High score was won by Ellen Peterson and low by Juanita James.

Hildebrand

Miss Clara Ritter and brother, Walter, attended the New Year's dance in Langell valley.

Mr. Johnson of the Pauley Packing company was a business visitor at the Leonard Ritter and Charles Crawford ranches on Tuesday.

Ritter and S. K. Hartzler sold a number of beef cattle to Johnson the past week.

Roy Drew, who has been on the sick list for several days, was taken to Klamath Falls on Saturday for medical attention.

Mrs. T. P. Michael visited on Wednesday with Mrs. Leonard Ritter.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Michael and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Michael were transacting business in Klamath Falls on Monday.

John W. Logue, who has been seriously ill for several months, was taken to Klamath Valley hospital on Monday for medical attention.

Mrs. S. K. Hartzler and children, John and Beatie, visited on Thursday afternoon in Bonanza with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Broadword.

Mrs. Marvin Michael visited on Sunday with Mrs. Leonard Ritter.

Mrs. Ione Linzi of Sprague River was a business caller at the Michael ranch on Sunday.

Clarence Parker was transacting business in Klamath Falls on Friday.

T. P. Michael was taken to Klamath Falls on Monday for medical attention.

Viola Smyth, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Orville Smyth, was taken to Klamath Valley hospital on Friday, where she was operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter were transacting business in Klamath Falls on Friday.

Tulelake

An epidemic of colds and light cases of flu has reduced attendance at Carr school for several days.

Martin Dinger has returned from San Francisco where his father, who resides in the Henley district, was taken recently for medical treatment. The elderly man was operated on in a bay city hospital last Saturday for a brain tumor and his condition is reported as extremely critical.

Langell Valley

Mrs. Nellie Dean of Wheatland, Calif., spent several days with Mrs. Owen Pepple of Bonanza. Monday evening she was an overnight guest of Mrs. Mary Dearborn. Tuesday, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Dearborn were lunch guests of Mrs. Lester Leavitt.

Mrs. Wes Dearborn and children spent Sunday at Bonanza with her mother, Mrs. Ruby Brown and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nichols.

Edith Pankey and Mary Scholler are enjoying a vacation trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and family, Mrs. O. C. Johnson and Mrs. Mary Dearborn spent Sunday at Bonanza with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bramwell and Marjorie.

Deep sympathy is being extended to the relatives of Staff Sergeant Dale Brown, who was killed in a plane crash. He was well known in Langell valley and had many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boggs enjoyed dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Horn.

Mrs. Frank Brown and Deanna, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mike Dearborn. On Monday she visited Mrs. Wes Dearborn and family.

Harry Boyd of Midland, spent the weekend with his sister, Rhea House. He is leaving soon for Los Angeles, where he will be a defense worker.

Bly

Mr. and Mrs. Ross McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McMillan and their daughters, Hollis and Francis, spent a week at Tuttle, Ida., visiting friends and relatives. They report a most enjoyable trip. They returned to Ivory Pine this weekend.

Bill Herford returned home Sunday from Centralia, Wash., where he has been visiting his brother for the past week.

Ross Sheperd accompanied several forestry men to Tulelake Tuesday afternoon. They planned to return home Wednesday but the snowstorm prevented that and they were forced to remain over.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hitchcock have taken over their restaurant, the White Lunch, again. They had leased it to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turner for a few months. They plan to keep open the entire winter if possible.

These extremely cold nights

WHEN COLD MISERIES STRIKE
Get Penetro for colds, sniffles, coughs. The stainless saline in muttonsuet base. 25-35c.

have been the cause of many ice skating parties lately. This is the first year for some time that the ice has been in such good condition.

"Scotty" Lawer, a former employe of the Ivory Pine mill, has been home visiting his parents and friends in Idaho. He received an 18-day leave and spent it with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawer. Young Lawer has been in the navy for almost a year and a half now, and has seen action many times.

Among the many friends visiting him while in Idaho were Mr. and Mrs. Ross McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McMillan and their daughters, Hollis and Frances of Bly and Miss Janet Protzman, also of Bly.

The new community hall at Ivory Pine mill was the scene of a large dance, sponsored by the employes of the mill, to pay for their piano and loud speaker. The music was furnished by Mrs. Ernie Sandberg at the piano and Paul Corry and his guitar.

SEARS IS HEADQUARTERS FOR . . .

BABY CHICKS

- 2-A grade chicks from the west's Leading Hatcheries
- Every chick 100% pullorum disease tested

★ White Leghorns

13⁵⁰ Per 100

★ New Hampshires

15⁰⁰ Per 100

Our Chicks Are Hustlers

You won't find any slackers among our chicks, because we cull out every one that doesn't come up to our rigid specifications. When you buy Sears chicks you can be sure of getting healthier chicks that will develop into real layers. Why not get in on bigger profits by starting this year with Sears chicks?

Other heavy breeds proportionately priced!

POULTRY SUPPLIES

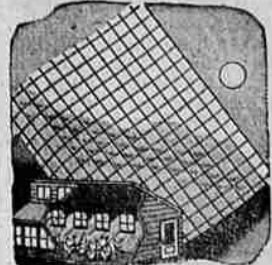

• SAVE AT SEARS •

Egg Scales	1.29
Egg Candler	1.39
Baby Chick Waterer	3 for 25c
Chicken Waterers 2 Quart	79c
Chick Feeders 12-inch	25c
Nest Eggs Dozen	45c
Flock Feeder, 5 ft. 1 bushel	5.49
Egg Cartons Case of 250	2.75
Leg Bands, baby chick Pkg. 100	18c
Single Deck Brooder 100 Chick Capacity	12.95

PURINA CHOWS . . . for Poultry and Livestock

Backed by more than 48 years of research and feeding experience, there is a Purina Chow to meet every feeding need . . . a Purina Chow for every bird or animal on the farm. Purina Chows are quality feeds, built for capacity production at low cost!

We Carry a Complete Stock

"SUNRAY MESH"

- Get that quick, profitable growth from your chicks by using Sears "CHECKER" plan:
1. Buy Sears Pullorum-tested chicks.
 2. Feed Sears Chick Startena.
 3. Add Sears "CHEK-R-TABS" to drinking water.

2 sheets of clear cellophane re-inforced by strong 3/4-inch cord mesh. Very transparent. 36 in. wide. Ft. 17c

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

133 So. 8th

Dial 5188

Sears

Fashions that look to SPRING

GAY PRINT DRESSES

- SAUCY STYLES
- SIZES 12 TO 20 AND 38 TO 44

$2⁹⁸

Perky one- and two-piece rayons fashioned in the captivating colors of Spring. You will want more than one . . . they're so gay and so wearable. Choose from rayon crepes, rayon sharkskins, velvety and ribbed weaves . . . in sizes from 12 to 20, 38 to 44.

THE CLASSIC "BOY" COAT

Popular casual style . . . in spring tweeds, diagonals and shotlands*. Choice of heather tan, nude, gold, red, flame, Kelly, mint, chartreuse green or blue.

$16⁹⁵

DAYTIME COTTON FROCKS

$1.59

Cunning corrons in button-front or fly-front classics, midriff and gathered skirt styles. Gay patterns with pastel or white backgrounds. Sizes 12 to 20, 38 to 44, 46 to 52.

- ★ BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS
- ★

MAN TAILORED SUITS

- One-Button Front
- Fine Pin Stripes

$15⁹⁵

Trim, debonaire style that fits in so well with your busy life . . . forms a smart mainstay for any well planned wardrobe. Meticulously tailored in a firm, hard finish fabric. Neat, fine pin stripes in black, brown or navy. Sizes 12-20.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

Buy Anything totaling $10 or more on Sears Easy Payment Plan

133 So. 8th

Dial 5188