SING SLATED WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK

Due to conditions over which this department, let alone the United States of America and the war department, have little or no control, the second community singing has been postponed from this past week to Wednesday, January the twenty-seventh, at half past seven o'clock.

The time has been advanced a half hour due to the singing falling on a school night, it was announced by Mr. Andrew J. Loney, who will direct the program. Families are urged to attend the gathering which promises to be as interesting as that held in early December.

Lioness club members will meet for a potluck supper in the library club rooms on Monday evening, February the eighth, at which time the group will be hosted by Lions members.

COMMANDOS PLAN DANCE FEBRUARY 20

The Commandos, of which Klamath Falls is justly proud, are now working on a new idea. They will sponsor a George Washington dance the evening of Saturday, February the twentieth, in the armory, all money to go into a fund which the Commandos will use to bring young service men to this city as a special treat following their hospitalization in the San Francisco bay area.

Bernie Heidemann, captain, is in charge of the affair and will announce her committees later.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shannon, (Elizabeth Anderson), are parents of their first child, a girl, born at Hillside hospital, January the nineteenth. The little one is named Carol Elizabeth. Lieut. (jg) Shannon is now on duty with the United States navy in Norfolk, Virginia.

Miss Jepson Scheduled

Last of Concert Artists Slated for Pelican March 5

Friday evening, March the fifth, is a long way off but members of the Klamath Community Concert association are asked to check their calendars for that date as the third of a series of concerts will be presented in the Pelican theatre.

This time that glamorous lady of the stage, Helen Jepson, will be the guest and if you've seen pictures of her you'll not give a hang whether she can sing or not, she's so good to look at.

Several Klamath folks heard Miss Jepson in Salem last spring when she sang under the concert association banner in that fair city. Miss Jepson is a luscious ice cream soda blonde with as pretty a pair of shoulders you'll find outside Esquire magazine. That particular night she wore a flaming red silk jersey gown, made with what seemed to be millions of yards in the skirt, long snug sleeves and a most interesting "boat line" at the deep throat which added something! When she left the stage following each group of numbers, the skirt puffed and billowed out in a fetching manner and caused many a gasp from the fashion conscious crowd. Her hair is honey colored and most beautiful. The lady can also sing.

Miss Lillian Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, is expected to return home Sunday from Seattle, Washington where she has been visiting.
