Washington Hoopers Top Coast Conference Race

Huskies Win One Point Victory Over Oregon; Washington State Now Second
By virtue of three thrill pack- ed victories, the race-horse University of Washington basketball team was in first place in the northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball race today after dropping their opening game of the season to the Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis.
Washington defeated the Web-foots the night before in another game that was just as un- certain, but took a little better edge, 52-48, in the final score. The Huskies won their second game from Oregon State 44-39 after dropping the first, 39-42 to the defending champions of the northern division.
Washington State, through Friday night's 54-46 defeat of the University of Idaho, claimed second place in the standings with two wins and one defeat, while Oregon with three wins and three losses, and Oregon State having won one and lost one, tied for third. Idaho, with three lost, was in the cellar.
Friday and Saturday nights, Seattle fans will be given their first taste of conference competition this year, when University of Oregon journeys to Seattle to play a repeat of their last week's thrilling schedule on the Husky floor.

Sports Briefs
By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (AP) - Eddie Gordon, the old Olympic broad jumper, finds a strong similarity between General Douglas MacArthur and Knute Rockne. "He gets closer to his men than most leaders—like Rockne," says Gordon, who was on the 1928 Olympic team when MacArthur ran the show. "And the general apparently doesn't have any more use for a 'good loser' than Rock did. Branch Rickey claims Larry MacPhail may have called the Brooklyn fans more names than he does, but Larry never threw his teeth at 'em. That's what Branch did the other night. He was speechmaking at a Boy Scout banquet when a loose tooth slipped its moorings and sailed right across the table. That's what he gets for using those $10 words.

Districts Changed for High School Hoop Meet

Annual State Tourney To Be Eight Team Affair in Salem - If at All
PORTLAND, Jan. 25 (AP) - The annual state high school class A basketball tournament will be an eight-team affair this year - if at all.
Members of the State High School Activities association said approval for the tourney must first be given by the office of defense transportation, but Saturday they tentatively scheduled it for March 11-13 at Willamette university in Salem.
The state's 18 class A districts were abolished and eight new ones established. Winners in each district would go to the tourney.
The new districts:
No. 1 - Baker, Enterprise and La Grande of the old No. 1 district, and Adrain, Nyssa, Ontario and Vale of No. 15.
No. 2 - Pendleton, Milton-Freswater, Hermiston, Hood River and The Dalles of district 2, and Bend, Burns and Redmond of No. 14.
No. 3 - Beaverton, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Sherwood and Tigard of No. 9, and Clatskanie, Hill Military, Parkrose, Rainier St. Helens, Scappoose and Vernonia of No. 14.
No. 4 - Independence, Chemoawa, Dallas, Mount Angel, Woodburn and Silverton of No. 11, and Canby, Molalla, Oregon City and West Linn of No. 12, and Central Catholic Columbia Prep, Estacada, Gresham, Milwaukie and Sandy of No. 13.
No. 5 - Amity, McMinnville, Newberg, Sheridan and Williams of No. 8, and Astoria, Seaside and Tillamook of No. 10.
No. 6 - Cottage Grove, Eugene, Springfield, St. Mary's, Eugene and University High of No. 6, and Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon, Sweet Home and Toledo of No. 7.
No. 7 - Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Roseburg of No. 4, and Coquille, Marshfield, Myrtle Point and North Bend of No. 5 and Klamath Falls and Lakeview of No. 3.
No. 8 - Salem.
The drawings would send district 6 against 7, 2 against 4, 5 against 8 and 3 against 1 in the opening games.
The state was split into four class B districts and that tournament was scheduled for March 12-13 at Salem.
Teams would be limited to eight players and a coach in each division. March 6 is the deadline for district tournaments.

Catholics Divide Hoop Tournament

Annual Prep Hoop Meet Set In Four Districts; Decide Tourney Fate This Week
PORTLAND, Jan. 25 (AP) - Directors of the annual state Catholic prep basketball tournament redivided the state into four districts, but today there was no assurance the event would be staged this year.
Father F. P. Leipzig, Eugene, chairman of the directors, said the fate of the tournament probably would be decided sometime this week.
If there is a tourney, four teams will compete from these new districts:
District 1 - Columbia Prep, Central Catholic, both Portland, and St. Mary's, The Dalles.
District 2 - Mt. Angel, Sacred Heart of Salem and St. Mary's of Eugene.
District 3 - St. John's of Milwaukie, Star of the Sea, Astoria, and Sacred Heart, Tillamook.
District 4 - Sacred Heart, Klamath Falls.

USC Cagers Lead South Coast Race

This Weeey May Put South This Week May Put South Division Title Campaign
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25 (AP) - The Pacific Coast conference season still has a month or more to run, but so far as the four-team southern division campaign goes, this week may settle the championship question almost beyond challenge.
The issue hinges largely on whether the University of Southern California can beat UCLA again Friday night. The Trojans licked the Bruins last Friday, 60-49. They've whipped these same cross-town rivals 41 times in a row since 1932. And this year, UCLA seems to have the second best team in the division.
At any rate, if USC wins again Friday, it will have a conference record of five straight victories for the season. Each of the other three teams - Stanford and California besides UCLA - will have been defeated at least twice and not one will be as much as even with the board in the matter of wins vs. losses.
California may come closest. The Bears nosed out Stanford 33-32 last Friday for their first victory of the season and will meet the Indians again in a single game next weekend. But California already has been defeated twice by USC and once by UCLA.
Stanford in two tries has yet to win a conference tilt, the Indians also being numbered among Southern California's victims.

Cougars Win Wrestling, Swim Honors

PULLMAN, Jan. 25 (AP) - Washington State college took wrestling and swimming honors but lost their boxing match in a minor sports carnival with the University of Idaho, staged partly here and partly at Moscow Saturday.
The Washington State wrestling team defeated an inexperienced Idaho squad 36 to 0, here and wrestling officials said it was the first time in northern division conference wrestling a squad had been blanked.
In the swimming meet, W. S. C.'s Cougars won, 51-24, though Jay O'Connor of Idaho was high man of the meet with firsts in the 220 and 100 yard swims.
At Moscow, the Vandal boxers won 5 bouts to 3. There were no knockouts, but Idaho's Billy Williams, coast collegiate 145-pound champion had Bud Sleeth of W. S. C. on the ropes when the bout was stopped in the third round.

Babe Doubts Baseball to Finish Year

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 25 (AP) - Babe Ruth, who pitched for the Boston Red Sox during the last world war, doubts that baseball will finish its regular season this year.
In an interview at the Hackensack Elks' club yesterday after a bond selling drive at a theater here, Ruth was asked if he thought baseball would be able to continue uninterrupted this season.
"I doubt it," the former home run king said.
Of northern training, the Babe declared it would "develop more sore arms and sore legs than you can count."
"Thera won't be a pitcher," the balking forecast, "who will be able to go more than six innings for a great many weeks after the season starts. It may ruin a great many players."

Pitt Expects Shaughnessy For Coach

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 25 (AP) - Clark D. Shaughnessy, expected to be named shortly as the new football coach at the University of Pittsburgh, declares he is in perfect agreement with Pitt's de-emphasized policy and "will not guarantee to win any game or percentage of games" - if he takes the job.
Students on the Pitt campus were overjoyed at the probability of the 50-year-old wizard of the "T" formation taking charge of the Panthers and, despite Shaughnessy's statements, they felt that they had a coach building for the future.
While the lean, gray-haired Shaughnessy weighed the Pitt offer at College Park, Md., football fans in Pittsburgh were confronted with the baffling situation of being without a coach for any of their three major schools.

Joe Choynski, Bare Knuckle Fighter Of Oldtime, Dies

CINCINNATI, Jan. 25 (AP) - Joe Choynski, 74, heavyweight fighter of an era when bare knuckles were giving way to five ounce gloves, died yesterday.
Choynski's list of opponents included John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Creedan, Kid McCoy, Jim Jeffries, Peter Maher and Jack Johnson. He participated in more than 80 fights from 1844 until 1904. He once knocked out Johnson in four rounds and had draws to his credit against Corbett and Jefferies.

Shortstop Eddie Miller Baseball's 'Weather Holdout'

LAKEWORTH, Fla., Jan. 25 (AP) - Shortstop Eddie Miller, principal in one of the winter's biggest baseball transactions, will be a "weather holdout" this spring but if it will be with the permission of his new boss, General Manager Warren C. Giles of the Cincinnati Reds.
Miller, obtained by the Reds last month from the Boston Braves, will remain in Florida to take advantage of the climate until about April 1, two weeks after his club begins spring training in Bloomington, Ind., he said today.

Central Washington Wins From Pacific Lutheran, 57-54

TACOMA, Jan. 25 (AP) - Central Washington college won its second straight Washington intercollegiate basketball game from Pacific Lutheran college Saturday night, 57 to 45.
CWC led 39-29 at the half. The game was rough all the way with a total of 40 personal fouls called. Carmody, CWC forward, was high man of the game with 19 points. Pohlilo, Lutheran forward, led his team with 10.
