FAVORITES UP FRACTIONS IN DAY'S MARKET

By VICTOR EUBANK
NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (AP)—Investment props remained in today's stock market and, after early hesitancy, scattered favorites, many in the blue chip industrial category, edged up fractions to around 2 points to new tops for more than a year.

Transfers were around 700,000 shares.

WHEAT

CHICAGO, Jan. 25 (AP)—An advance in rye futures which sent deferred contracts into new seasonal high territory imparted strength to all grain pits today.
 Although gains in other grains were confined to fractions, rye moved up more than a cent on buying by houses with eastern connections and covering by traders who had previously sold short. There was considerable profit taking on the upturn, but it failed to cause any pronounced reaction.
 Wheat and oats started lower,

City Briefs

Expected Home—The Rev. L. K. Johnson is expected to return Monday night from Los Angeles and Phoenix, Ariz., where he has been visiting for the past week with relatives. Rev. Johnson's father, J. H. Johnson of Kendall, Wis., spent a month visiting here at the home of his son, and left two weeks ago to return by the southern route. He was joined by Rev. Johnson at San Jose, Calif., for a week's stay with Mrs. Johnson's parents in Los Angeles.

Visit in Portland—Mrs. Virgil Veitch of 1526 Sargent street, accompanied by her mother and sister, Mrs. Mary Post and Mrs. Herman Arzner, both of Lakeview, left Saturday morning for Portland, where they are visiting with another sister, Mrs. Jack W. Arzner, formerly of Klamath Falls.

Waynes Return—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wayne returned to their home here the latter part of the week from Portland, where they had been visiting with Mrs. Wayne's parents and were forced to remain longer than planned due to storm conditions. Wayne is general agent for the Great Northern.

Fire Alarm—The city fire department was called out at 1:38 a. m. Sunday when an alarm came from the Don Hensley apartment, 420 Main street. Firemen said a defective electric attachment on a bed lamp caused occupants to turn in the alarm. There was no damage.

Return South—Pvt. and Mrs. Tom Judge left Sunday for San Francisco where Judge is stationed with the military police. They were guests at the C. A. Williams home on Grant street during their stay. Judge is a former member of the Klamath Falls police force.

Visit Here — Mrs. Harry Rourke and son, Ward, of Seattle spent a couple of days in the city this past week, en route home after a visit in southern California. They were guests of Mrs. Carrie Joans and of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Manning of Roseway drive.

but soon turned higher in response to the rye strength. Corn tended to lag behind other cereals and interest in that market was light.
 Wheat closed 1-1/4 higher, May $1.40-1.40 1/2, corn was unchanged to 1/4 higher, May 98 1/2, oats advanced 1-1/4, rye gained 2-1/2, May 83-83, and soybeans were inactive.

Initiated — The Beta chapter of the Phi Beta Sigma, teachers' honorary at the Southern Oregon College of Education, has initiated four new members into their society. Membership is based upon character, scholastic standing, and only students registered in teacher education are eligible. The formal initiation was held Tuesday evening, January 12, at the home of Mrs. Mildred Schultz. The new members include Barbara McLain of Klamath Falls.

First Aiders — D. C. Westerhout, first aid instructor, is here from San Francisco to conduct an instructors' course in first aid. Classes begin tonight (Monday) at 7 p. m. at 418 Main street, Red Cross headquarters. All first aiders holding advanced first aid cards are urged to attend. All those now holding instructors' cards should attend to refresh their memories and to meet Westerhout, it was announced.

To Honor Members — Both Mrs. J. F. King and Mrs. George Hays will be honored by members of Bethany circle of the First Presbyterian church at the meeting to be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck on North Ninth street. Acting as hostesses with Mrs. Groesbeck will be Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger and Mrs. Alfred Collier.

Return from Valley—Mrs. J. H. Poppy of Roseway drive and Mrs. Jerry Ricker of Modoc Point returned Friday night from Medford, where they attended the ceremonial of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, held Tuesday, honoring the supreme queen, Mrs. Florence Davis of Spokane, Wash. Both Klamath women were guests of Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, queen of the temple, while in the valley city.

Brother Dies — Mrs. E. W. Swartz of North Third street, received word the latter part of the week of the sudden death of her brother, William Marshall Bresnahan, at his home in Tacoma, Wash., last Thursday evening. Mrs. Swartz was unable to go north at this time to attend the services.

At Santa Ana—Mrs. Dwayne McDonald (Yvonne Petersteiner) received a message from her husband that he is now located at Santa Ana, Calif., where he is taking pre-flight training. Mrs. McDonald is now staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersteiner of Portland street.
