

City Briefs

Books Missing—Three motorists reported the loss of their gas rationing books to city police Wednesday. Robert Himelwright, 2440 Reclamation avenue, said his "A" card was missing. The card was issued to a 1937 Plymouth coupe, Oregon license No. 354-229. Walter Robinson, Merrill, lost his "C" gas book near Balsiger garage Tuesday, the card issued to a 1940 Chevrolet sedan, Oregon No. 93-778. An "A" card owned by Madge Kookon, 2010 Worden street, is missing, police were advised. The card carried Oregon license 382-049, 1938 Plymouth sedan.

Rotary Program—Charles A. Henderson, Klamath county agricultural agent, will be the principal speaker at the Friday noon luncheon of Rotary club in the Willard hotel. Henderson will discuss Klamath's farm produce quota and the "Food for Freedom" program. E. A. Geary will be the chairman. At this meeting members will have the opportunity to bid for "Captain Jack," the club's rooster who has brought many thousands of dollars in Rotary's January bond sale campaign.

Receives Promotion—Friends here were interested to learn that Mary Walker, who has been with the Medford green stamp office of the Sperry and Hutchinson company, has been promoted to the Portland office and left the valley last week to take up her new duties. Miss Walker has been with this company for the past 15 years, and had charge of the first green stamp department opened in this city.

Receives Cap—Jane Sanders, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders, was among 20 student nurses who received their caps at a ceremony held at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Friday evening. Mrs. Ida Grimes, Jane's aunt, returned the first of the week from Portland where she attended the ceremony at the hospital and also visited with her sister, Mrs. Sanders.

Receives Greetings—B. S. Grigsby, one of Klamath's best known pioneer residents, was receiving greetings on Tuesday from members of his family and many long-time friends on the occasion of his 80th birthday. He was also guest of honor at a birthday dinner given at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Grimes, on Eldorado avenue.

Death Learned—Mrs. Sara Robbins Brown passed away in San Francisco on January 20, it has been learned here. Mrs. Brown made her home in Klamath Falls until a few years ago, and was a member of the Royal Neighbors of America, Klamath Falls. Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Inez Hassett of San Francisco.

Name Omitted—The name of Martin Dingler of Tulelake was omitted from the list of survivors of Fred Dingler of Henley, who died Saturday, January 23, in San Francisco. Seven children survive. Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Ward's with interment in Linkville cemetery.

Visitor Here—PFC Harold Shelley of the Manzanar re-education center in California is spending a portion of his furlough with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson of 130 North First street.

Meets Husband—Mrs. Robert Monett has left for Superior, Wis., to meet her husband, Corporal Monett, who is spending a furlough there with his mother. Mrs. Monett (Elsie Boldschar) plans to return in about two weeks to Klamath Falls, where she is residing with her mother at 1420 Lookout. Corporal Monett is stationed at Camp Buckman, N. C.

Shrine Party—Plans have been completed for the Shrine club dancing party and buffet supper to be given Saturday, January 30, in the Willard hotel. Cocktail hour is from 9 to 10 p. m. with dancing to follow and the supper at midnight. C. S. Elliot is chairman of the affair with Walter Wiesendanger as supper chairman.

On Buying Trip—Jane Garcelon left early this week by train for San Francisco and Los Angeles, where she will attend market week and spring housewares shows.

Police Court—Only one traffic ticket was paid at the desk sergeant's window Wednesday. Four drunks and one drunk and disorderly appeared in police court.

In California—Mrs. E. Dietsche is ill in San Francisco. Dr. Dietsche visited her there this week.

LOVELY EMBROIDERED RELIGIOUS PANEL

by Alice Brooks

Inspiring beauty in a religious panel to "paint" with your embroidery needle. It's the "Sacred Heart of Mary," and it is a companion panel to the "Sacred Heart of Jesus," Pattern 7181, shown recently. Pattern 7475 contains a transfer pattern of a panel 10 1/2 x 14 inches; illustration of stitches; materials needed; color chart.

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No., to followed by your name and address."

DAMAGES AWARDED IN ACCIDENT CASE

Damages for personal injuries amounting to $1250 were awarded Mrs. Cornelia Eaton by a circuit court jury late Tuesday.

The suit arose from an automobile accident which occurred in June at the intersection of the Merrill-Malin and Lava Beds highways. Defendants were Mrs. Anna Dryer, sister of the plaintiff, John Kirby Jr., and Columbia Utilities.

Attorneys for the plaintiff were Napier, Merryman and Baintine.

Dairy

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blom and Harry Brown arrived here Thursday from Portland to attend the funeral of their brother, Staff Sergeant Dale V. Brown, which was held Friday afternoon. They spent the weekend with their parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown and Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolb returned to their home in Potosi, California on Monday, January 25, after spending the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoer and family.

Many local residents have been suffering from flu and severe colds.

SURPRISE!
LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mrs. Karl Nichols sat down with a surprised thump on a stool at her cash register, because the stranger blurted:

"This is a holdup!"

He took from the cash register the $41 she'd started to count.

After he left Mrs. Nichols took from atop the stool the $200 she'd finished counting.

You Women Who Suffer From HOT FLASHES then CHILLY FEELINGS

If you—like so many women between the ages of 38 and 52—suffer from hot flashes, weak, dizzy, nervous feelings, distress of "irregularities," are blue at times—due to the functional middle age period in a woman's life—try taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. It's the best known medicine you can buy that's made especially for women.

Pinkham's Compound is famous to relieve such distress. Taken regularly—it helps build up resistance against such annoying symptoms. It also is a fine stomachic tonic.

Thousands upon thousands of women—rich and poor alike—have reported benefits. Time and again Lydia Pinkham's Compound has proved some women's happiest days often can be during their "40's". Follow label directions. Worth trying!
