

Midland Empire News

THREE ROTARIANS BOAST A RECORD

FARRAGUT, Ida.—Lieut. Albert O. Roenicke, USNR, 2035 Portland street, Klamath Falls, Ore., is now on duty at the U. S. naval training station here and has been assigned to the navy dental corps.

Volunteering for naval service, Lieut. Roenicke received his commission last August 22 and reported here for active duty January 4.

Lieut. Roenicke is a graduate of North Pacific college, Portland, Ore. He has been a member of A. F. and A. M., Kiwanis, Elks, chamber of commerce, Muskrat club and Klamath Sportsman's association.

FROM THE SOUTH SEAS—Two Klamath men who have seen service all over the world, spent a well-learned furlough in Klamath Falls recently.

Pvt. Ralph "Bud" Crawford (left) arrived unexpectedly at Christmas to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford of Crescent avenue.

Richard Warren Wells joined the navy January 18 and is now at Camp Scott. His address is Co. 38-43 USNTS, Farragut, Ida.

Charles Richard Jones, Evans apartments, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Jones, is now at Farragut, Ida., in naval training.

Private Leslie H. Dunn is spending a 10-day furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Dunn, 474 South Sixth street.

George Robert Uerlings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Uerlings, 180 Lewis street, has reported to Brooks field, Tex., after completing basic flying at other fields.

Richard Otis Rasmussen, husband of Mrs. Lorraine Rasmussen, 125 South Seventh street, is wearing the uniform of an apprentice seaman at the U. S. naval training station at Camp Farragut, Ida.

Private Ralph W. Howell, son of Frank H. Howell of Merrill, has graduated from an intensive course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard field, Tex.

Robert R. Wong, 619 Main street, is at Camp McQuaide, Calif., undergoing basic training.

John W. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Nash, 2550 Reclamation street, is an aviation cadet at Randolph field, Tex.

Largest American Bear The Alaskan brown bear is the largest bear on the American continent, exceeding even the famous grizzly in size.

Cascade Summit Residents Are Walking on the Rooves

CASCADE SUMMIT, Jan. 27 The depth of the snow is now 110 inches and the storm has not yet broken.

The Southern Pacific company has had difficulty in keeping the tracks cleared so as to not cause delays to train service.

Persons traveling through here might be unaware of the fact that back in the snow drifts are houses with people living in them.

Persons traveling through here might be unaware of the fact that back in the snow drifts are houses with people living in them.

Chiloquin The Chiloquin town team left for Merrill Wednesday night to meet the Merrill team in a basketball tilt.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gienger and their son Buddy, motored to Red Bluff, Calif., Wednesday on business. They plan to return Sunday night.

M. E. Snyder of Lamm's camp was shopping in Chiloquin Wednesday.

Leonard Long, Calvin Summers and Albert Summers were business visitors in Chiloquin Wednesday.

Mrs. Minato and Gina Minato were shopping in Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday.

The streets of Chiloquin were cleared Monday, but with the additional snow Wednesday, the work done Monday appeared to be futile.

Crescent Lake Mrs. Darlene Dishman returned to work at the Crescent Lake cafe last Saturday.

Mrs. Earl Holman and daughter Pamela, went to Eugene Friday, where Mrs. Holman was called by the illness of her grandmother.

Child's Colds VICKS VAPORUB Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

We have a number of pictures and cuts of men in service which we are unable to identify. Subscribers who left pictures for this department prior to a month ago, and have not observed them in the paper, are invited to call at The Herald and News office at their convenience to assist in identifying if possible the pictures which are here.

SPRAGUE RIVER—Guests at the B. L. Tompkins home were Second Lieutenant and Mrs. J. D. Lewis. Lt. Lewis graduated from officers candidate school at Fort Knox, Ky. on January 16 and has been assigned to duty at Camp Beal, Calif. with the 13th armored force division.

Private Luther E. Stallings, brother of John Stallings of 4426 Crosby street, has graduated from a course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard field, Tex.

CHILOQUIN—Bill Taylor, former engine watchman at Chiloquin, is now stationed as a military police with the army at Beldon, Calif.

Willard Hull, former CHS student, is stationed with the army at Atlantic City, N. J.

Private Frank Summers is on furlough visiting friends in Chiloquin.

NEW PINE CREEK—Sergeant Delmer Smith left last Thursday morning for his station at Amarillo, Tex., to resume his army duties. He was guest of honor during the grange social hour of dancing that climaxed the last grange meeting.

TULELAKE—Sergeant Eldon L. Bates, who made his home for several years here with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lindsey before entering the service, was a gunner in a recent plane raid on a German submarine base in the Bay of Biscay.

Prior to the broadcast the Lindseys, who have kept in close touch with the young man, knew he was in England but not until the word was flashed via the air waves did they know he was in actual combat.

SMART ACCESSORIES IN MILITARY MOOD

by Alice Brooks 7437

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference.

The visor cap is making fashion "headlines," due to the influence of women-in-uniform. Here's a jaunty, becoming style to crochet in gimp or four-rod German town, with bright contrast facing for the visor.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia.—A recent enlistee in the woman's reserve, Beverly Jean Sanders, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reed, 213 McKinley street, Klamath Falls, Ore., today completed a five-week indoctrination course at the naval training school for WAVES, located on the campus of Iowa State Teachers college here.

During her period of training here, she has been given a series of aptitude tests to determine what type of advanced specialized training she is best suited for. Now an apprentice seaman, she may be selected to attend one of several schools and advance to a petty officer.

FORT DES MOINES, Ia.—Graduating recently from the administrative specialist school of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps was Auxiliary Lillian W. Ferguson of 3340 Cannon avenue, Klamath Falls, Ore.

This auxiliary was assigned to a four-week basic course in army training and infantry drill, and immediately after was enrolled in the administrative specialist school which equips her with knowledge of military office routine necessary to carry on the maintenance of army records.

Staff Sergeant George Wieda is stationed at Camp Kearns, U. S. for an indefinite period. He is expected to go on overseas duty soon. He recently enjoyed a 14-day furlough with his parents at Youngstown, O. Mrs. Wieda is the former Maxine Grey of Klamath Falls.

Charley Harold McKeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McKeen of Keno, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the army upon completion of the officer candidate course at the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga. He attended Keno high school.

Charles Richard Jones, Evans apartments, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Jones, is now at Farragut, Ida., in naval training.

Private Leslie H. Dunn is spending a 10-day furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Dunn, 474 South Sixth street. He formerly worked for the Algoma camp.

George Robert Uerlings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Uerlings, 180 Lewis street, has reported to Brooks field, Tex., after completing basic flying at other fields.

Richard Otis Rasmussen, husband of Mrs. Lorraine Rasmussen, 125 South Seventh street, is wearing the uniform of an apprentice seaman at the U. S. naval training station at Camp Farragut, Ida.

Private Ralph W. Howell, son of Frank H. Howell of Merrill, has graduated from an intensive course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard field, Tex.

Robert R. Wong, 619 Main street, is at Camp McQuaide, Calif., undergoing basic training.

John W. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Nash, 2550 Reclamation street, is an aviation cadet at Randolph field, Tex.

Largest American Bear The Alaskan brown bear is the largest bear on the American continent, exceeding even the famous grizzly in size.

Advertisement for Bill's T-Bone Steak House, opening Saturday under new management and re-decorated. Located at 122 S. 9th St. Open all night.

TULELAKE — Three Rotarians of the Tulelake club can boast of perfect attendance since the club was organized over two years ago.

In a financial report for 1942, it was disclosed that the club had purchased a $300 war bond, had made substantial donations to the Red Cross, USO, and at Christmas time had sent out 59 cartons of cigarettes to men in service with nine boxes of candy for non-smokers.

"Cannon on Wings," a motion picture offered by the Bell-Air Cobra pursuit plane company, was presented for entertainment during the luncheon hour with Earl Ager officiating as chairman.

Otto Schultz, classified as a potato seed grower and sponsored by C. C. Spears, was welcomed to membership.

Jerome Keefe, club secretary who will act as program chairman next week, will present Harold Schilling of the high school faculty in a demonstration of first aid.

Guests at the luncheon were Johnny Johnson, Klamath Falls, Vince Court, Alturas, Bill Osborne, Tulelake, and William Smith Newell.

Dorris Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Andreatta went to Yreka last weekend to make application for their second citizenship papers.

Mrs. H. A. Campbell returned to her home in Portland this week after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. I. E. Dennis Jr.

Mrs. Carl Marshall returned from Seattle this week. She has been visiting at the home of her son, Murray Marshall.

Mrs. M. K. Maltzen received her final citizenship papers this week at Yreka.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCollum of Malin were recent overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reece and family moved to Dorris recently from Klamath Falls.

Oscar Pierson slipped on the ice last week and broke his arm. Mrs. Jim Baker of Klamath Falls was a recent Macdoel visitor.

Merrill—Wayne L. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Wilson, serving with the US army at Camp Cooke near Los Angeles, left Tuesday night to return to camp after spending several days here with his parents.

Oregon Industry Reports Two Deaths During Last Week SALEM, Jan. 29 (AP)—There are two fatalities among the 717 accidents reported by Oregon industries during the week ended yesterday, the state industrial accident commission said today.

Fatalities were: Donald J. Diehl, Gresham electrician, injured January 19 at Troutdale; and Theodore Hoefft, Lake Creek faller, injured January 19 at Talent.

Details of Design and Construction are Important BUT The care exercised in the Examination of YOUR EYES and the scientifically correct Prescription are MORE IMPORTANT to your eye welfare.

37 years of uninterrupted eye service in Oregon is one of the reasons why you can expect and receive the utmost in Eyesight Satisfaction here.

Advertisement for Dr. Sid G. Moles, Optometrist, Columbian Optical Company. Two stores exclusively optical. Portland: 611 S. W. 6th - Klamath Falls: 730 Main. Phone 7121. Est. 1905.

Chiloquin

The Chiloquin town team left for Merrill Wednesday night to meet the Merrill team in a basketball tilt.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gienger and their son Buddy, motored to Red Bluff, Calif., Wednesday on business. They plan to return Sunday night.

M. E. Snyder of Lamm's camp was shopping in Chiloquin Wednesday.

Leonard Long, Calvin Summers and Albert Summers were business visitors in Chiloquin Wednesday.

Mrs. Minato and Gina Minato were shopping in Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday.

The streets of Chiloquin were cleared Monday, but with the additional snow Wednesday, the work done Monday appeared to be futile.

Crescent Lake

Mrs. Darlene Dishman returned to work at the Crescent Lake cafe last Saturday.

Mrs. Earl Holman and daughter Pamela, went to Eugene Friday, where Mrs. Holman was called by the illness of her grandmother.

Child's Colds VICKS VAPORUB Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Child's Colds

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

Relieve Sore Throat - Rub on Time-Tested

STUDENTS TO BE DISMISSED EARLY

DORRIS—Butte Valley high school students will be dismissed at 2:52 daily for the remainder of the term to release them for agricultural and lumber work after school.

Principal Don Doolin, announcing the change in schedule which began Wednesday, said the early dismissal will provide more daylight hours for working students.

Many students, Doolin said, have requested permission to be dismissed early so that they might have longer working hours.

Merrill

Mrs. J. B. Kidwell and son Joe, will join Mr. Kidwell at his ranch on Jenny creek on the Greensprings about February 1. Joe will continue his schooling at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hodges are recovering from a serious case of influenza.

Women of the community are meeting once a week on Monday nights in the high school gymnasium for a round of basketball practice, with Beesie Hodges in charge.

Winnifred Gillen, county home demonstration agent, was a Merrill visitor Wednesday.

Marjorie Mauldin, who left recently to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauldin at Bonanza, where they are now making their home at the Santford Jones' ranch, was feted by the Camp Fire Girls and her classmates at farewell parties before leaving.

Ray Fox, son of E. R. Fox, agent at the Southern Pacific depot here, has arrived from Sacramento to make his home with his father and this week took up his studies in the sophomore class at high school.

Eclipse Visibility

A lunar eclipse is visible to three-fifths of the earth, while a solar eclipse is only visible to one-fifth.

South End Home Guard Company Eyed

MERRILL—Organization of a home guard company recruited from Merrill and Malin for enlistment in Company C, Klamath Falls, was discussed here Tuesday night by Captain Van Fleet and other members of Company C, who voiced hope that interest would be stimulated in organization of a south end company.

Possibility of a platoon for each town was suggested. Several local men will drill once a month with Company C as a preliminary to further action.

Chiloquin Students Name Yell Team

CHILOQUIN—During the student body meeting held Wednesday morning, a team of yell leaders was elected from the four nominees: Betty Robertson, Violet Morande, Rachel Robbins and Betty Stienman.

Elected were Violet Morande and Betty Robertson. They acquired 28 votes to their opponents.

He's at it again. Who's at it? Wm. F. B. Chase. At what? Helping people prepare their income tax returns. Where? At 203 Odd Fellows Building, Klamath Falls, Oregon. Pretty keen fellow. Better see him soon.

Western Union Offers

Regular employment in an industry that is playing a vital role in the war effort.

Young Women 18-25

High School Graduates Those selected will be taught to operate automatic telegraph machines at Western Union Schools in Santa Cruz, Calif., or other Pacific Coast cities.

Salary while learning, and transportation furnished. Personal interview will be arranged. Apply WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Large advertisement for Sears' Pre-Inventory Clearance Bargains. Features 'Odds and Ends', 'Broken Sizes', and 'Drastic Mark Downs'. Includes the slogan 'Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!' and 'SAVE FROM 20% to 80%'. Signed by Sears.