Pelicans Win From Ashland

Ashland Tight Defensive Slows Pelicans in Second Game of Double Header Go

Never headed, Klamath's Pelican hoopsters pulled a 35-27 win out of the basket Saturday night on the local court in the second of a double header series with the Ashland Grizzlies. It was a tight game with halftime score standing at 15-10.

The Grizzlies had a tight zone defense which held usual high-scoring Bocchi and Welch to a total of five points. The Pelican defense was weak especially in controlling Ashland long shots.

For the Pelicans, Young played a good game under the basket, and Foster made two long field goals in succession that pulled the Klamath men out of a tight spot. Bocchi was removed from the game early in the first half by Coach Wayne Scott to conserve his cold-sapped strength for a possible stemming of a last minute rally by Ashland.

The Pelicans foul shooting was greatly improved. They sank 13 of 23 tries. Bellotti was high point man with nine tallies. Young made seven.

Nelson and Mansfield high pointed for Ashland with six each. Riggs of the substitutes came out with five.

Though the Ashland team never took the lead, they threatened throughout the game. First quarter score was 7-2, halftime mark 15-10, and third quarter score stood at 30-19.

The Wildcats defeated Malin in the preliminary tilt.

Hornets Sting Merrill Huskies In Tight Tilt

A crowd of partisan spectators were kept on the edge of their seats at the Henley gym January 29 as the Henley and Merrill basketeers battled in a 32-31 game.

Merrill took the lead in the game, but the first quarter ended 4-3 in favor of the Hornets. The halftime score was 11 all. Merrill held the lead 19-17 at the end of the third period, but the Hornet passing attack proved too much for the Merrill cagers' defense and the Henley boys slowly pulled ahead.

Pollard of Henley led the scoring with 14 points, while Snapp, left-handed hook-shot artist of Merrill, took second honors with seven points.

The Merrill B squad led by Kandra dumped the Henley Bs 32-15 in a preliminary game.

Lineups:

High School Hoop Play Dominated by Handful

Astoria, North Bend, Klamath Falls, Eugene, Baker, Milwaukie Top Team

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer

A handful of teams continued to dominate Oregon today as high school basketball quintets entered their last month of play before district tournaments.

Two of the strongest are on the coast, and one of them, Astoria, the defending state champion, is undefeated. The Fishermen marked up victories Nos. 7 and 8 in the weekend with 27-21 and 34-22 scores over Marshfield. Farther down the coast North Bend, leader of the Coos County league, added to prestige by dropping Tillamook, 27-13 and 38-22.

As usual the race for honors was hottest in southern Oregon, where Klamath Falls maintained a slim lead by defeating Ashland, 45-35. Roseburg was only a step behind, downing Grants Pass twice, 30-22 and 33-24. Grants Pass remained in the running despite the losses.

In the Willamette valley Eugene won its 12th game in 14 starts, defeating St. Mary's of Eugene, 42-32, and unbeaten Albany rolled over Lebanon, 36-21.

Baker neared the Blue Mountain conference title in eastern Oregon, trimming Milton-Freewater, 52-39, for its 15th victory in 16 games. Pendleton aided Baker by spilling La Grande, the second-place team, 26-23.

In northern Oregon, Milwaukie won its sixth game in seven starts by nosing out Oregon City, 38-33, and Central Catholic of Portland remained among the leaders by out-guarding Columbia Prep of Portland, 13-9.

Klondike New 1915 Alaskan Keg Champ

SPOKANE, Feb. 1 (AP) — A bowling match that was halted by a sore thumb 28 years ago was finally completed here yesterday and George (Klondike) Kosmos of Seattle now can style himself the 1915 bowling champion of Alaska.

He defeated Chet (Sourdough) Sheets, operator of a bowling alley here, 1208 to 1049.

Neither now can remember whose sore thumb ended the original match in a tie in Anchorage, Alaska, but thumbs held up beautifully yesterday and the match now can go into the record books under the "completed business" chapter.

Back in 1915 Kosmos was dog-sledding supplies in Alaska and Sheets was superintendent of schools in Anchorage. They were the top bowlers in the territory, and that's how the match was born.

Kosmos now is secretary of the Northwest International Bowling Congress.

CROSBY WINS AGAIN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1 (AP)—Bing Crosby is the champion of the Lakeside Golf club for the third year in succession.

Groaner Bing whipped John Leach yesterday, 8 and 7.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—Baseball, they tell us, is America's national game. Anybody old enough to read is supposed to know all about it . . . But don't tell that story to the boys who have to compile batting and fielding averages for the class "D" circuits . . . One of them was moaning in our ear the other day about the ignorance of official scorers in the very minor leagues . . . "One guy complained all season about our weekly batting records," he said. "Then at the end of the season he sent in his sheets without any fielding figures . . . They'll list only three total bases and no run batted in for a guy who hit a homer . . . we got one score that had Jones pitching a complete game, then three weeks later the scorer sent us a note 'change Jone to Smith; Jones was traded before the game.'" . . . This year's prize, our informant claimed, came from the North Carolina State league. The box was faultless down to the last two lines, which read: "Weather — Green and Jones; umpire—fair and warm."

Northern Division Hoop Race No Cinch; Cougars Tie Huskies' Percentage

By The Associated Press

Weekend northern division basketball results proved conclusively this year's race will be no runaway affair, and it probably will be anybody's pennant right down through the stretch.

The University of Washington Huskies had an excellent chance to build up a commanding lead, but the best they could do against Oregon was a split in a two-game series and Washington State is tide with the Huskies for first place in the percentage table.

The Huskies raced by Oregon 46-31 Friday night, but lost to the same team Saturday night, 47-44, in games at Seattle. Meanwhile Oregon State and Idaho divided a series at Moscow, the Beavers winning the first, 52-49 and dropping the second, 56-44. The Vandals showed much improvement in both games and would have been hard to down even if the Beavers had had the services of Don Durdan, left at Corvallis with a case of chicken pox.

Tonight and Tuesday nights Washington State takes on OSC at Pullman in a series which will give the Cougars their chance at a place in the sun. For the Beavers it will be a virtual "make-or-break" series. They now stand tied for third with Oregon.

If the Cougars can get by OSC, and here again Durdan and his chickenpox may be an important factor, contests in Seattle against Washington Friday and Saturday nights, well may mark the turning point in the northern division season.

Washington had too much speed for Oregon Friday night. Saturday's game started out to be the same story until Oregon took fire in the second half.

The Huskies led by seven points at the half, and after five minutes of the second session had stretched their margin to 11, at 36-25. At this point, however, Oregon found the range and in five more minutes had taken over the lead, 38-37. Washington regained a one point lead momentarily, but Oregon grabbed it back and from then on was never headed.

Idaho lost out in the Friday game in the last seconds of play but definitely made it stick in the Saturday game. The Vandals led OSC 29-23 and gradually widened the margin in the last period.

Durdan probably will be unable to play in the WSC series, according to latest reports.

Southern Cal Leads Hoop Race

Stanford and UCLA Have Chance for Top Spot, But Southern California Leads

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1 (AP) Maybe Stanford or UCLA will win the Pacific coast conference's southern division basketball championship this year. Maybe.

But if either school expects to turn that neat a trick it's high time to get about the task, for as of this moment Southern California leads the league by three full games and one more strike is out for either of its remaining challengers. California, fourth member of the division, already has gone down, swinging.

Southern California, offering what looks like its best team in years, now holds a conference record of five wins and no losses, with three left to play. Victory No. 5—and incidentally, the Trojans' 42nd consecutive success against this particular rival—was achieved at the expense of UCLA Friday night, 51-39.

The same evening Stanford topped California, 36-34, reversing an equally hairbreadth decision of the previous week and lifting the Indians into a second-place (technically speaking) tie with the Uclans. Each has one victory, two defeats.

California, with only its win over Stanford ten days ago as solace, has lost four.

The division's sparse schedule offers no activity this week.

BPW Lassies Knock Rotary Keggers in Service Match

The Klamath Falls Service Club Bowling Championship now rests securely in the capable hands of the Business and Professional Women's club as a result of their match with the Rotary club, previous conquerors of the Kiwanis club. The match was rolled Friday night at the Klamath Recreation, being witnessed by a large and enthusiastic gallery.

The match resulting from a challenge by the local Women's Service club to the male Rotarians who were proudly laying claim to the city service club championship after soundly drubbing the Kiwanis club in a recent match. However, the high riding Rotarians entirely overlooked an intrepid band of Business and Professional gals who know their spares and strikes.

The local lassies after a faltering start soon began to throw strikes and spares down the mapleways to edge out the Rotarians in the first game of their three game series match for total pins by a 779 to 754 count. Jumping into the lead in the second bracket while the jittery Rotarians floundered badly the ladies stretched their lead to 104 pins winning going away 776 to 697. In the final game the Rotarians rallied to win 753 to 705 but failed to close the gap falling 56 pins short. The BPW club totaled 2260 to the Rotarians 2204 for the series total.

Flo Ann Eaton with a 498 series total and Dena Backes with 477 led the attack for the ladies, while Doc Carter with 486 and Red Bussman with 463 were high for the Rotarians. Bernice Britt and Dena Backes both converted sensational splits. Britt picked up the 6-7 split and Backes the 6-10-7.

Rumors have it that the match was scouted by a delegate from the Lions club with a view to challenging the winner. The rumor has not been confirmed.

Cougar Star Boxer Gets Flying Cross

SPOKANE, Feb. 1 (AP)—Incidents such as having his parachute pack shot from under him by an explosive bullet and seeing his plane riddled by 20 machine gun and cannon balls probably run a close second to the thrill experienced by Lt. Dallas A. Clinger, former Washington State college athlete, when he received a distinguished flying cross recently.

Clinger, who was northwest boxing champion in 1939 and veteran ski jumper, received the citation for "extraordinary heroism and achievement" when he dived as if to collide with a Japanese plane which was attacking his flight leader, said J. Fred Bohler, athletic director at WSC.

"The Japs are not the suicide artists they are supposed to be," Lt. Clinger wrote Bohler. "They will flinch and turn first in a head-on run in the air."

New War Baseball Has Hide of Horse, Heart of Golf Ball

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—The new baseball you'll see bouncing and soaring around the parks this year likely will be a fugitive from the fairway with a hide of horse but the heart of a golf ball.

For the war production board reported today that 720,000 baseballs of quality "equal to prewar cork-cushioned center baseballs" will be made, using the left-over insides of golf balls that have been waiting for something to do since the golf ball industry was stymied by the war.

The new baseballs will have rubber-cushioned centers, and WPB gives its word they'll not be duds.

GLOBETROTTERS LOSE

SALEM, Feb. 1 (AP)—Forward Bob Perry scored in the last two minutes of play Saturday night to earn the Willamette Bearcats an upset 39-38 basketball victory over the touring Harlem Globetrotters before 2000 fans.

SWC Gets 60-56 Overtime Win From Western Washington

CHENEY, Feb. 1 (AP)—Eastern Washington College of Education took a 60-56 overtime victory over Western Washington Saturday night after Jack Perrault had tied up the contest with a free toss in the last three seconds. The victory gave Eastern college a firm grip on first place in the Washington Intercollegiate conference.
