Reservations—Those interested in attending the dinner Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Willard hotel honoring Dr. G. Bernard Noble of Reed college, are asked to make reservations not later than Thursday evening at the Willard hotel. Dr. Noble is sponsored by the Klamath chapters of AAUW, League of Women Voters, and the Business and Professional Women's club. Dr. Noble will speak on "The Shape of Things to Come." He is president of the northwest regional executive committee to study the organization of peace. The public is invited.

On Leave—Friends of the P. Winingham family of Portland, formerly of Klamath Falls, will be interested to learn that Lt. Douglas Sharp, husband of the former Enid Winingham, is now in West Palm Beach, Fla., and expected on the west coast to visit his wife and daughter, Enid Patricia Sharp, now in Salem with the flyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sharp. Lt. Sharp has been mentioned frequently in dispatches from India and other sections where he has served with the army air corps.

Enlists—Robert Leslie, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Leslie of 811 Rose street, has enlisted in the army air corps and is now in Klamath Falls awaiting his call. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie and small son, Robert Timothy, returned here from Medford, where Leslie has been a member of the Oregon state police force for two years. He is a graduate of Klamath Union high school where he served as an outstanding athlete and track star, and is also a graduate of Oregon State college.

In San Francisco—Word has been received from Mrs. Jessie Bryant, well known Klamath Falls nurse, that she is now on the staff at the Stanford university hospital, Clay and Webster streets, San Francisco, and enjoying her work immensely. She was formerly on the Klamath Valley staff here. Two other nurses, Marion Morris and Agnes Hendrickson, are also on the Stanford nursing staff, having gone south with Mrs. Bryant.

From Notre Dame—Phillip Albert, recently appointed an ensign in the United States navy, arrived here Sunday from Notre Dame university, Ind., to visit until next Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Albert, 923 Grant street. Ensign Albert, graduate of Sacred Heart academy and Armstrong's in Berkeley, has just completed a four months' course at midshipman's school at Notre Dame. He leaves here for Miami, Fla., to receive further training.

Transferred—Clinton R. Jester, district representative of the Oregon state department of agriculture, located in Klamath Falls since September, 1941, has been transferred to Medford and leaves February 8 to take over his new territory. Until his transfer, Jester was in charge of Klamath county, Lakeview, Bend and other northern towns. Mrs. Jester will accompany her husband. They have made their home in the Marion apartments.

Finishes Course—Friends of Herman Bremer will be interested to learn that he has completed his course at Camp Davis, N. C., United States army post, and has been detailed to the camp for the time being. Mrs. Bremer, who has been in Medford the past month, will leave this week for Fort Smith, Ark., to visit her father, Mr. Driscoll, former resident of this city. She will join "Red" Bremer there and the two will return to Camp Davis.

Home From South—Jean Rawlins and Earl Isaac of Your Store returned Saturday from a two weeks' buying trip which took them to San Francisco and Los Angeles. They reported the southern California area "pretty wet" with buyers having a difficult time returning home due to weather conditions.

Pays Visit—Eugene Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews of 2420 Garden avenue, was a recent visitor in Klamath Falls from Greenville, S. C., where he is stationed with the US army air corps. Young Andrews has charge of the turrets on planes there. He was drafted May, 1942, and this is his first visit home since that time.

Recuperating—Mrs. Sue Morrison Welsh, former Klamath Falls resident, recently underwent a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. It has been learned here. Mrs. Welsh is recuperating at the home of her daughter in Portland, 10448 SW 35th drive, where friends may write.

Ill at Home—Mrs. Earl Godding, 939 Eldorado street, has been ill for the past 10 days at her home, is still confined to her bed.

Transferred—Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson of 1342 Worden street, have received word from their son, 2nd Lt. Stanley J. Patterson, that he has been transferred from Fort Lewis to Fort Benning, Ga., and will receive a 5-weeks course in cannon study. Young Patterson was stationed previously at Fort Benning.

Visit in South—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lemire returned Sunday from a week's stay in San Francisco. While south they visited Mrs. Lemire's two cousins, one a captain in the US army and formerly stationed in Honolulu, the other a lieutenant in the US navy air corps; both expect to see overseas duty soon.
