Baseball Eyes Escape From Manpower Demands

Players Omitted From Commission's List of Non-Essential Activities

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 (AP)—Big league baseball and other professional sports, already facing stringent travel and other restrictions, escaped what might have been a final crushing blow when they were omitted from the list of activities considered non-essential for draft purposes. Although the war manpower commission's list skipped the sports field by singling out greenskeepers and the boys who make a living gambling on the races, the play-for-pay athletes were not included among those who face induction after April 1, regardless of their dependents. But, along with thousands of other young wage earn-ers with children, professional athletes got no assurance *that their induction would long

PULLMAN, Feb. 3 (AP) Washington State stands out sharply today as the team to beat for the northern division basketball title after the Cou-gars' tingling 55-52 conquest of the Oregon State Beavers here last night.

Whishington, however, stands prepared to challenge WSC's league leadership, and the Husky-Cougar series in Seattle Friday and Saturday will be the closest thing to "crucial" this season has yet seen.

Oregon State left for home after last night's defeat, the defending champions' third in four games on the road trip, and will attempt to salvage something from what so far has been a far from happy season in Friday-Saturday g a m e s at Corvallis against the University of Idaho.

Chase Battles Costello To Uneven Draw After Cruz Shifts to Southpaw Style

By FRED HAMPSON PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 3 (AP) Costello Cruz of El Centro, Calif., and Jack Chase of Walsenberg, Colo., a brace of ranking middleweight, battled 10 rounds last night to what Referce Tom Louttit of Portland called a draw

The Associated Press score sheet gave Chase five rounds, Cruz one and called four even. There were no knockdowns.

Cruz, whose shift to southpaw style gave the Colorado scrap-per a few bad moments, was in trouble twice. In the fifth Chase shook him up with a overhand right that landed with a crack, and in the 10th the Coloradoan pummeled him at will and was belaboring him savagely in a corner at the bell. Cruz rallied in the seventh after dropping three straight rounds, pumping several lefts to the side of his adversary's head. Chase bore in endlessly and

The second game on a Civic auditorium doubleheader was a one-point victory by the St Mary's College Gaels over the University of San Francisco, The score see-sawed throughout and ended 40 to 39.

Coast conference southern division teams were idle last night but statistics compiled at the University of California dis-closed that Alex Omaley, Southern California forward, still was top scorer. His 63 total points for the season were three more than those of his closest competitor and team-mate, Gene Rock, also a forward.
