At Clinic—Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, Klamath county health officer, left this week for Portland where he will attend the second Oregon Social Hygiene conference which started Friday at Hotel Portland. The conference is arranged by the American Social Hygiene association and conducted by the University of Oregon medical school, Oregon Tuberculosis association and the state board of health. Dr. Donald Erb, University of Oregon president, will preside and an address by Dr. R. A. Vonderlehr, assistant surgeon-general, US public health service, will highlight the program. Dr. Vonderlehr will speak on "Venereal Disease Work in Wartime." Dr. Rozendal will report on the conference after his return this weekend.

Newton Visits—Sergeant Angus Newton of the army recruiting service, a Klamath Falls man, is spending 10 days here on a WAAC recruiting assignment. Sergeant Newton said he recently saw Lieutenant Colonel Dewey Powell of Klamath Falls, now at Fort Stevens, and found Colonel Powell looking fine.

To San Francisco—Bette Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Henry, 2204 Garden avenue, left Tuesday evening for San Francisco, where she will enter the Southern Pacific hospital for medical treatment.

Daughter Born—Lt. and Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe are parents of a daughter, Kathleen Diane, born at Wilcox Memorial hospital in Portland on Thursday, February 4. This is their first child, and also the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of 1420 Pacific Terrace, and Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Steelhammer of Portland, and the first great-granddaughter of Mrs. W. C. Ball of this city. Lt. Radcliffe is now stationed at Fort Sill, Okla.

Passes—Ross Painter of this city received word of the death of his mother, Mary Stafford Painter, 88, who died late Wednesday at her home in Central Point. Mrs. Painter was born in Springfield, Mo., in 1854 and came to southern Oregon in the fall of 1888. She has lived in Central Point area for more than 30 years. Final rites were held Saturday afternoon with interment in the family plot in Phoenix cemetery.

Leaves—Mrs. John W. Benefield and infant daughter left Klamath Valley hospital Friday for their home in the Hamel apartments at Sixth and Pine streets.

In Hospital—O. E. Murray, health unit janitor, is receiving treatment at the county isolation hospital following a sudden attack of illness while at work this week. He is improving.

Medford WAAC—Betty Vilm, well known Medford girl and sister of Mrs. Robert Hart, formerly of this city and now living in Korbelt, Calif., left Friday for Portland to enter service in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. Auxiliary Vilm, who has visited here frequently, enlisted at Portland a month ago. At the time of her enlistment, Miss Vilm was employed by the Rogue River Forest service and the Crater Lake National park service. She is the daughter of Mrs. E. N. Vilm.

From Bonanza—Mrs. K. I. Bold and Mrs. Cecil Haley were visitors in Klamath Falls Friday from their homes in Bonanza. Mr. and Mrs. Bold plan to leave next week for Portland where they will attend the wedding of their son, Ivan Harlan Bold, to Clara Elaine McCormick, planned for February 14. June Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Williams of Medford and formerly of this city, will accompany the Bolds north and will sing at the wedding.

To San Francisco—Charles Riley left Friday night for San Francisco to visit with Charles, Jr., who is in the air corps and is expected to "ship out" shortly. Returning from San Francisco, the elder Riley will spend some time at Richardson Springs, near Chico.

House Cleaning—Three members of the staff of the Klamath county health unit were busy this weekend wielding brushes, brooms and mop sticks as they embarked on a spring house cleaning campaign.

The entire clinic was to undergo a thorough cleaning at the hands of the employees.

Party Planned—Klamath post No. 8, American Legion and auxiliary, will sponsor a Valentine dancing party Saturday evening, February 13, in Veterans Memorial hall, Fourth street and Klamath avenue. This is one of the scheduled dances to be held each month. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooten, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Amil Paul are in charge and have issued a cordial invitation to all veterans, wives and friends. "Old time" dance music will be played as well as the new. Those not wishing to dance will find tables for cards. Refreshments will be served. Cocktail hour is from 9 to 10 p. m.

Talk Heard—Mrs. F. C. Catlin spoke at the Thursday afternoon meeting of St. Paul's auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. James Swanson. Mrs. Catlin, who visited her cousin, American consul at Tunis, Africa, discussed at length that part of the country, the city and the customs. She especially stressed the life of the women, political and religious. The group will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Lane Warren on California avenue.

Dismissed—Marvin Bright, US navy man, will be dismissed from the county isolation hospital this weekend. He and two other sailors, were confined to the hospital following an outbreak of measles.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Good Jr. are the parents of a girl born at Emmanuel hospital, Portland, Tuesday, February 2. Good is taking the CPT course in Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Good has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Carl McBrayer, in Portland.

Services—Final rites for Lovis G. Rose, 84, who died here Tuesday, were held in Siskiyou Memorial park, Medford, at 1 p. m. Saturday. Mr. Rose came to this county from Norway at 20 years of age. Two children, Lewis Rose and Mrs. Clara Burdette, live in Medford.

Clinic—Plans are being made for a child guidance clinic to be held in Klamath Falls at the Klamath county health unit all day February 18. Drs. Dixon and Finley, psychiatrists, Portland, will be in charge.

In Town—French Johnson, Tulelake rancher, was a Klamath Falls visitor Friday.

No fire—There isn't any fire; they are going up to Room 203, Odd Fellows Building to have Chase help them dope out their income tax. Lots of activity and no accidents, so far.
