

MOST SUCCESSFUL PARTY, when Klamath women played cards and drank tea at the Doernbecher benefit, was due to Mrs. Don R. Drury, left, and Mrs. Matthew Rauw, right, chairmen of the day. All funds will go to the children's hospital in Portland.

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

POURING AT THE Doernbecher tea last Saturday afternoon at the Willard were Mrs. A. G. Proctor (seated), president of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club which sponsored the party, and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck, state chairman of Doernbecher. —Guderian.

Reception Given At Epperson's

Lieutenant and Bride Honored at Affairs Following Arrival Here Thursday Morning

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson of North First street entertained this afternoon from two to four o'clock, and guests are also invited for this evening from eight to ten o'clock, in honor of their son and his bride, Lieutenant and Mrs. George Marion Epperson, who arrived Thursday morning from the south.

Mrs. Epperson is the former Phyllis Loretta Otto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Otto of Glendale, California, and her marriage was an event of December thirty-first in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The ceremony was read at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Robinson with Major Robert S. Spencer officiating in the presence of a few close friends.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. William L. Cornwell, wore a California gold suit trimmed with squirrel. Her flowers were orchids. Mrs. John E. Nelson, matron of honor, and Lieutenant Fred H. Nelson, the best man, were the young couple's attendants.

Both Lieutenant Epperson and his bride are Oregon State college students, she a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, he of Theta Chi. They will leave the first of the week to make their home in California. Lieutenant Epperson is connected with the United States army air corps as an intelligence officer.

Guests who called during the afternoon were greeted by the young couple. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom which Mrs. A. B. Epperson had made for her mother's golden wedding cake.

Pouring during the afternoon hours were Mrs. C. E. Dennis, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, Mrs. J. Y. Tipton, and Mrs. Calvin Hunt. This evening Mrs. Andrew Kronert and Mrs. Gomer Jones have been asked to pour. Mrs. Leo N. Hula served the wedding cake during the afternoon hours, Miss Betty Jones to preside this evening. Mrs. Oscar Peyton was in charge of the guest book.

The bride visited here at the Epperson home in June of last year and made many friends during her brief stay.

Board Hears Party Report

Doernbecher Benefit Bridge Tea Success Last Saturday

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club board, in session Thursday morning, heard gratifying reports on the Doernbecher benefit bridge tea given last Saturday in the Willard hotel. Mrs. Matthew Rauw, chairman of bridge, announced that forty-five tables were in play, bringing in a net $90, and donations totaled $44.30, with still more to be contributed by those who wish to add to the fund. It is hoped that $150 will be reached before the check is sent to Doernbecher hospital for children in Portland.

Mrs. Rauw announced that those wishing to pay their contribution may do so at the regular Monday afternoon meeting of Library club in the main auditorium of the library.

Defense stamps were given as awards during the afternoon playing and these were donated by Mr. Guy Harmon of the Missouri-Pacific Railroad company. The club also wishes to thank Swan Lake Moulding company, and J. C. Penney company for their donations of decorations.

High score in contract went to Mrs. C. P. Van Dusen, second to Mrs. William Spangler, third to Mrs. Tony Molatore, fourth to Mrs. R. D. Rakestraw, and guest award was received by Mrs. George D. Tucker.

In pinocle, high score went to Mrs. C. Petersen, second to Mrs. M. W. Rayner.

MRS. WARREN HOSTESS AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Lane Warren entertained at her home, 746 California avenue, Friday evening honoring Mrs. Charles Bailey, the former Patricia Woodruff. Bridge was played with supper served later to Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Lloyd Froom, Mrs. George Filcraft, Mrs. Paul Crapo, Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan, Mrs. Don Vannice, Miss Dorothy Buchanan, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. K. A.

Moore and the honor guest, Mrs. Bailey.

Delphin, Delta Gamma chapter, will meet Tuesday at a quarter to ten o'clock at the home of Mrs. Floyd Ranker, 212 North Second street. Leader will be Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, the topic, "The Kinesthetic Arts."

Mrs. W. R. Boyd of Auburn street left Tuesday for Los Angeles where she plans to spend several weeks as the guest of her brother.

Mrs. Douglas Sharp, Miss Helen Lois Winingham and Enid Patricia Sharp, of Portland, arrived in the capital Thursday afternoon to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sharp. Miss Winingham returned to Portland Friday evening, but Mrs. Sharp and her daughter will spend the coming week visiting friends in Salem.—Capitol Journal.

Mrs. Marshall Cornett has spent most of this past week in Salem with Senator Cornett, attending legislature.

INITIATE FOUR INTO SORORITIES

Four University of Oregon women from Klamath Falls were recently initiated into national social sororities, after having completed the last term as pledges, and having a grade point of 2.00 or better. Initiates from Klamath Falls were Virginia Howard, Delta Gamma; Mary Corrigan, Sigma Kappa; and Adele Zamsky and Swea Swanson, Gamma Phi Beta.

Mary Louise Loney Will Wed Ensign

No Date Set for Ceremony as Friends in Eugene Learn of Klamath Girl's Betrothal

Romance and St. Valentine favors went hand in hand this week when the betrothal of Mary Louise Loney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Loney Jr., of Klamath Falls, was told at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house on the University of Oregon campus, Eugene, at one o'clock dinner Sunday, January the thirty-first. Miss Loney announced her engagement to Ensign N. W. Frees, United States navy air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frees of Salem.

Luncheon On Friday

Mrs. Carl Huson Honors Mother at Informal Party

A delightful affair of Friday at one o'clock was the luncheon given in the Pelican party room when Mrs. Carl Huson entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. L. McQuarrie of Missoula, Montana. The large table was centered with a cluster of red carnations and the St. Valentine motif added a colorful note.

Following luncheon bridge was played.

Greeting Mrs. McQuarrie who has been here since the holidays were Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. Don R. Drury, Mrs. Carleton W. Hornibrook, Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. J. F. King, Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mrs. Ray Coulam, Mrs. Carl Steinseifer, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. E. M. Raymond, Mrs. H. M. Shapleigh, Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick, Mrs. Harold Hilton and her mother, Mrs. Gary, Mrs. Robert Sprout Sr., Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. Bernard Costello, Mrs. Charles Kempter and Mrs. Boyd Sprague.

A guest gift was presented Mrs. McQuarrie and a farewell gift was given to Mrs. J. F. King, prominent Klamath Falls matron who is saying goodbye to friends here.

Jon, the mayor's four-year-old, has his left arm in a cast as the result of a rip-sporting trip on a toboggan last Sunday down a Pacific Terrace hill. Jon still thinks it was fun while it lasted!

The large table was centered with a huge bowl of red and white carnations with each place marked with a small white candle on a mirror. Wide red ribbon made the table gay and St. Valentine favors completed the decor.

Assisting about the rooms were three of Miss Loney's sorority sisters, Miss Phyllis Foster of Klamath Falls, Miss Mary Gene Bohenkamp of La Grande, and Miss Elizabeth Schafer of Eugene. Places at tables were marked for forty.

No date has been set for the wedding, according to Mrs. Loney who attended the announcement party. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Frees.

Ensign Frees is now stationed at Alameda, California. He and his parents are former La Grande residents and he attended Southern Oregon College of Education prior to enlisting in the navy air corps.

The bride-elect is an attractive Klamath Falls girl and now in her senior year at the university. She is a member of Alpha Chi and Phi Lambda Theta, national educational honoraries and has been active during the past four years in various campus affairs.

Friends of Miss Maxine Cameron, who has made her home here for the past several years, will be interested to learn she is leaving soon for Santa Fe, New Mexico, where she will reside. Miss Cameron has served as secretary to Mr. Mitchell Tillotson of the First National bank.

Friends are happy to see Mrs. George J. Walton about, following a month's illness which confined her to her home on Homedale road.